IMPORTANT!
This monaural Long Play record can also be played on a Stereo phonograph—resulting in even better sound reproduction than that obtained from conventional phonographs.

FROM THE pages of Fannie Hurst's timeless novel, "Back Street," came a love story of such dramatic impact and emotional significance, that to date it has provided the inspiration for three motion pictures—the latest and most moving of which is the current Universal-International release starring Susan Hayward, John Gavin and Vera Miles.

The musical score for "Back Street"—written by Frank Skinner and conducted by Joseph Gershenson—not only serves to underscore, punctuate and enhance the drama, but emerges as a dynamic artistic achievement in its own right.

A great literary milestone becomes a memorable motion picture . . . a score becomes a magnificent musical experience.

THE WOUNDED HEALER

based upon Samuel Wesley 1876
words by Fr. Pat

1 Lead me, Lord; lead me by your spirit
Make your will clear for my future

Refrain: For it is you, Lord - - you, the wounded healer - -
Who makes my heart sing and my feet dance for joy

2 Fill me, Lord; fill me with your spirit,
Spirit of love, spirit of joy and peace

3 Be my rock; be my rock of refuge
Of courage and strength, for my journey

4 Heal me, Lord; heal me by your spirit - -
My every wound, my every need and want

A JOYFUL NOISE

words and music by Fr. Pat

Refrain: I will sing and make a joyful noise to the Lord - -
I will sing and make a joyful noise
For the Lord created everything upon this earth
Wonderful and pleasing in His sight

1 He made the stars and the moon to light the night,
The sun to warm us through the day,
The river, streams, the ocean blue, the mighty deep,
He made a miracle of life!

2 He made the earth and the flowers of the field,
The valleys green the mountain's peak,
The birds that melody the sky with gentle flight,
He made a miracle of life!

3 He made a man and a woman in His sight
To give a name to what He made To sing His praise and thanks, to glorify His name,
He made a miracle of life!

COME SILENT STAR

music Ed Martel
words by Fr. Pat

Come silent star. Come light up my weary night
Open my eyes that I may see
In your silence, set me free

Come silent star. Come whisper good news of peace
Open my heart to your healing light
In your presence, set me free

The world in its sadness complains Living on dreams that never come true it seems Best to believe and hope in a Star sent to you silently

Come silent star. Come light up this tired world
Open our eyes that we may see
In your silence set us free, Lord, free
Set us free, Silent Star

THE LORD IS MY LIGHT

based upon Ps. 27
words and music by Fr. Pat

Refrain: The Lord is my light and my help
The Lord is my shelter through the storm
There is only one thing I ask of the Lord - -
To live in His house forever more

1 In time of trouble, in time of pain,
Throughout my worries, I seek out your face
You never leave me. You never will
If my friends desert me, You care for me still

2 Fear that surrounds me, doubts that persist,
Throughout the dangers I step out in faith
You will sustain me. You surely will
With your tender care, I know I am safe

CRADLE HYMN

music by Ed. Martel
words by Fr. Pat

The nights are much longer,
The clouds are upon us,
The people are longing for peace
Their patience has dwindled
For no sign is given
To gladden the hearts of the weak

A maiden with child
Will give birth to a Son
And His name will be Emmanuel - - Eternal Father,
Prince of Peace,
Mighty God,
Wonder Counselor!

Let the dry lands and creation rejoice!
Let the wilderness burst forth in bloom!
And let ev'ry being join hands with the maiden
Who stands with the moon at her feet,
Adorned with the sun and a crown of twelve stars,
As she dances with joy and great peace
Look at her smile as she holds in her hands
The young child from her womb and her King!

Cradle Him, O nature, so fair - -
Love Him, caress Him, your Maker at birth!

IN MY FATHER'S HOUSE

anonymous

1 Come and go with me to my Father's house.
2 Jesus is the Way.
3 He will Dance and Sing.
4 We will praise the Lord.
5 Come and go with me.
6 We will dance and sing in my Father's house.
7 We will praise the Lord in my Father's house.

BREATH OF GOD

words by Edwin Hatch, 1835-1889
music by Fr. Pat

Breathe on me, O breath of God,
Fill me with your life anew
That I may love the things you love
And do what you would do.
Breathe on me, O breath of God;
Until my heart is pure,
Until with you I have one will
To live and to endure

Breathe on me, O breath of God,
My soul with grace refine
Until this earthly part of me
Glows with your fire divine
Breathe on me, O breath of God,
So that I shall never die,
But live with you the perfect life
In your eternity

WE ARE THE SHEEP OF HIS FLOCK

words and music by Fr. Pat

1 Enter the House of the Lord - -
The God of my gladness and joy
Come as you are before Him,
He who created all things

Refrain: We are the sheep of His flock;
He is our shepherd and king
We are His children, He is our Father,
Loving us without end
So we come to worship Him - - so we come to worship Him

2 Come with the fears you must face;
Know that the Lord will be here
Seeking the truth and the way,
Come now and sit by his feet

3 Feeling unworthy to pray,
He will reach out to forgive
Longing and searching for love,
He will bring peace once again

ONLY THIS

words and music Sr. Lucille Gauvin O.P.

Refrain: This is what Yahweh asks of you, only this:
to act justly, to love tenderly,
And to walk humbly with your God

1 How can I show your love in my deeds?
Often I'm blind to other people's needs
Teach me, oh Lord, the kindness to give
In your goodness I want to live.

2 Love is a risk I don't want to take
I can't seem to live with myself at stake
Give me, oh Lord, the courage to be
And I'll love as you love me.

PRAYER

words and music Margaret McGlaughlin rearranged by Fr. Pat

Make me blind, O Lord, that I might see
Make me deaf, O Lord, that I might hear Bind my tongue that I might speak clearly your word not my own

Make me lame, O lord, that I might walk
A straight path to your arms
Take my life all that I am
do with it what needs be done

When I smile, O lord, make it your smile
When I cry, O Lord, Make it your tears
When I doubt your presence in me
Be there in a friend.

It is you, O Lord, not I
When I take my brother's hand
Give me strength when I fail you
And be there when I'm alone

EVERY STONE SHALL CRY

A Voice Cries Out

Text: Michael Joncas (adapted from Isa 40)
Music: Michael Joncas

Refrain:
A voice cries out in the wilderness:
"Prepare a way for the Lord!"
A voice cries out in the wilderness:
"Make straight a highway for God!"

1. Console my people,
   The ones dear to me;
   Speak to the heart of Jerusalem:
   The time of your mourning
   Is ended now,
   The lord of life will come. Refrain.
2. Ev'ry valley is made a plain,
   Ev'ry mountain is leveled,
   The glory of God
   Shall then be revealed,
   And the nations will sing in praise. Refrain.
3. A voice shouts: "Cry!"
   "O what shall I cry?"
   "All flesh is like grass and its flowers:
   The grass may wither,
   The flowers may fade
   But the Word of the Lord is forever."
   Refrain.

This is the Day

Text: Michael Joncas (adapted from Psalm 118)
Music: Michael Joncas

Refrain:
This is the day the Lord has made;
Let us rejoice and be glad.
This is the day the Lord has made;
Let us rejoice and be glad.

1. Give thanks to the Lord
   For he is good,
   His mercy endures forever.
   Let the house of Israel say:
   "His mercy endures forever." Refrain.
2. The Lord's right hand
   Has struck with pow'r,
   The Lord's right hand is exalted.
   I shall not die but live
   And declare the works of the Lord.
   Refrain.
3. The stone which the builders rejected
   Has become the cornerstone.
   By the Lord has this been done;
   It is wonderful
   In our eyes. Refrain.

Song of the Lord's Appearance

Text: Huub Oosterhuis (adapted by Michael Joncas)
Music: Michael Joncas

In deepest night the star of morning has heralded the infant's birth.
His coming is for us the dawning
of God's salvation here on earth.
Trust what you see, believe the vision,
lay bare your hearts to God's own word,
do not refuse the savior's mission,
accept the message you have heard.

God has no other sign, no other light in our darkened world to give than this man Christ to be our brother,
a God with whom we can live.
God has revealed to every nation
his love for us in Christ our Lord.
In him all flesh may see salvation,
and earth be made new in God's own word.

The promised one of Israel's story,
the bridegroom clad in fire and light,
the morning sun in all its glory
dispelling darkness and the night has come to dwell with us for ever,
uniting us in peace and love,
and in his body we need never be parted from our God above.

Lord You Have the Words

Text: Michael Joncas (adapted from Jn 6:68 and Ps 19B)
Music: Michael Joncas

Refrain:
Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

1. The law of the Lord is perfect, Refreshing the soul;
   The decree of the Lord is trustworthy,
   Giving wisdom to the simple. Refrain.
2. The precepts of the Lord are right,
   Rejoicing the heart;
   The command of the Lord is clear,
   Enlight'ning the eye. Refrain.
3. The fear of the Lord is pure,
   Enduring forever;
   The ord'nances of the Lord are true,
   All of them just. Refrain.
4. They are more precious than gold,
   Than a heap of purest gold,
   Sweeter also than syrup
   Or honey from the comb. Refrain.

When We Eat This Bread

Text: Michael Joncas (adapted from 1 Cor., Matt., and Rev.)
Music: Michael Joncas

Refrain:
When we eat this bread
And we drink this cup
We proclaim your death until you come.

1. Where two or three are gathered together
   In my name,
   Where two or three are gathered together,
   There am I.
   How blessed are they who are called to the banquet of the Lord. Refrain.
2. Come, you blessed of my Father,
   Come to me.
   Enter into God's holy kingdom,
   Full of joy.
   How blessed are they who are called to the banquet of the Lord. Refrain.
5. All praise to the Father, Creator Most Holy,
   Praise to Him;
   All praise to the Son, Our Savior and Brother,
   Praise to Him;
   All glory and praise to the Spirit of God who makes us one. Refrain.

A Christmas Hymn
[Every Stone Shall Cry]

Text: Richard Wilbur (1921-)
Music: Michael Joncas

1. A stable lamp is lighted
   Whose glow shall wake the sky;
   The stars shall bend their voices,
   And every stone shall cry.
   And every stone shall cry,
   And straw like gold shall shine;
   A barn shall harbor heaven,
   A stall become a shrine.

2. This child through David's city Shall ride in triumph by;
   The palm shall strew its branches,
   And every stone shall cry.
   And every stone shall cry,
   Though heavy, dull, and dumb,
   And lie within the roadway
   To pave his kingdom come.

3. Yet he shall be forsaken
   And given up to die;
   The sky shall groan and darken,
   And every stone shall cry.
   And every stone shall cry
   For stony hearts of men:
   God's blood upon the spearhead,
   God's love refused again.

4. But now, as at the ending,
   The low is lifted high;
   The stars shall bend their voices,
   And every stone shall cry.
   And every stone shall cry
   In praises of the child
   By whose descent among us
   The worlds are reconciled.

EVERY STONE SHALL CRY

As the Watchman

Text: Michael Joncas
(adapted from Pss 130:6 and 63)
Music: Michael Joncas

Refrain:
As the watchman waits for the dawn,
so do I long for you, my God.

1. O God, you are my God;
For you my soul is thirsting.
My body pines for you
Like a dry weary land
Without water. Refrain.
2. So I gaze on you in your holy place
To see your strength and your glory;
For your love is better than life;
My lips will speak your praise. Refrain.
3. So I will bless you all my life,
In your name I will lift up my hands.
My soul shall be filled
As with a banquet,
My mouth shall praise you with joy.
Refrain.
4. On my bed I remember you,
On you I muse through the night,
For you have been my help;
In the shadow of your wings I rejoice.
Refrain.

My Soul Rejoices in the Lord

My soul rejoices in the Lord;
My soul rejoices in the Lord!

1. My being proclaims the greatness of the Lord,
My spirit finds joy in God my Savior.
For he has looked upon his servant
In her lowliness.
All ages to come shall call me blest,
Shall call me blest. Refrain.
2. God who is mighty
Has done great things for me:
Holy is his name.
His mercy is from age to age
On those who fear him! Refrain.
3. The poor he has given Everything they need,
While the rich he sent empty away.
He has upheld his servant Israel
Ever mindful of his mercy.

Coda:
My soul rejoices in the Lord;
My soul rejoices in the Lord!
In the Lord!

I See His Blood Upon the Rose

Text: Joseph Plunkett (1887-1916)
Music: Michael Joncas

I see His blood upon the rose
And in the stars the glory of His eyes,
His body gleams amid eternal snows,
His tears fall from the skies.

I see His face in every flower;
The thunder and the singing of the birds
Are but His voice—and carven by His power, Rocks are His written words.

All pathways by His feet are worn,
His strong heart stirs the ever-beating sea,
His crown of thorns
is twined with every thorn,
His cross is every tree.

Be With Me, Lord

Text: Michael Joncas
(adapted from Psalm 91)
Music: Michael Joncas

Refrain:
Be with me, Lord;
Be with me, Lord,
When I am in trouble and need.

1. You who dwell
in the shelter of God most high,
Who abide in the Almighty's shade,
Say to the Lord:
"My refuge, my fortress,
My God in whom I trust!" Refrain.
2. Evil shall never befall you,
Nor affliction come near to your tent.
Unto his angels he's given command
To guard you in all your ways. Refrain.
3. On their hands the angels will bear you up,
Lest you dash your foot 'gainst a stone.
Lion or viper might strike at your life,
But you will not come to harm. Refrain.
4. Cling to the Lord
And he'll surely deliver you,
He raises up
All who call on his name.
He will bring joy to your hearts
And bless you with peace
In all your days. Refrain.

Lallubye

Text: W. Ballett
Music: Michael Joncas

1. Sweet was the song
The Virgin sang,
When she to Bethlehem Judah came.
And was delivered
Of a Son
That blessed Jesus hath to name:

Refrain:
"Bye Lallubye, sweet babe," sang she,
And rocked him sweetly on her knee.

2. "Sweet babe, my child,
sweet babe," sang she;
"My Son and surely a Saviour born,
Who hast vouchsafed from on high
To visit us
That were forlorn." Refrain.

Canticle of Zachary

Text: J. Quinn, sj (adapted by Michael Joncas)
Music: Michael Joncas

1. Blest be the God of Israel
The ever-living Lord,
Who comes in pow'r to save his own,
His people Israel.
For Israel he raises up,
Salvation's tow'r on high
In David's house who reigned as king
And servant of the Lord.
2. Through holy prophets did he speak
His word in days of old,
That he would save us from our foes
And all who bear us ill.
To our ancestors did he give His covenant of love
So with us all he keeps his word
In love that knows no end.
3. Of old he swore his solemn oath
To Father Abraham;
His seed a mighty race should be
And blest forever more.
He vowed to set his people free
From fear of ev'ry foe
That we might serve him all our days
In goodness, love, and peace.
4. O tiny child your name shall be
The prophet of the Lord;
The way of God you shall prepare
To make his coming known.
You shall proclaim to Israel
Salvation's dawning day
When God shall wipe away all sins
In his redeeming love.
5. The rising sun shall shine on us
To bring the light of day
To all who sit in darkest night
And shadow of the grave.
Our footsteps God will safely guide
To walk the ways of peace.
His name forevermore be blest
Who lives and loves and saves.

AS MORNING BREAKS

I. INVITATORY

A. Opening Dialogue:

LEADER: O Lord, open our lips
ALL: And we shall proclaim your praise

B. Morning Hymn:
O Come and Sing
(Psalm 95)

O come and sing to God, the Lord
To him our voices raise;
Let us in our most joyful songs,
The Lord, our Savior, praise.

Before his presence let us come
With praise and thankful voice;
Let us sing psalms to him with joy,
With grateful hearts rejoice.

He is a great and mighty King,
Above all gods his throne;
The depths of earth are in his hand,
The mountains are his own.

To him the spacious sea belongs,
He made its waves and tides;
And by his hand the rising land
Was formed and still abides.

O come, and bowing down to him
Our worship let us bring;
Yet, let us kneel before the Lord,
Our Maker and our King.

C. Morning Thanksgiving

LEADER: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God
ALL: It is right to give him thanks and praise

LEADER: We give you thanks,
O Lord our God,
for raising us from sleep this day,
and pouring the words of your praise into our mouths,
that we may adore and invoke your holy Name.
We entreat your mercies which you have revealed throughout our lives;
now send forth your help to those who gather here.
Let us sing your praises with heart and mind and voices,
standing in your presence, waiting for your mercy.
For you deserve all glory, honor, praise, and worship,
Father, Son and Spirit,
now and always and forevermore.

ALL: AMEN.

II. PSALMODY

A. As Morning Breaks
(Psalm 63)

ANTIPHON: As morning breaks,
I look to you;
I look to you, O Lord,
to be my strength this day,
as morning breaks,
as morning breaks.

O God, you are my God,
for you I long.
For you my soul is thirsting.
My body pines for you,
Like a dry, weary land, without water.
So I gaze on you in your holy place
To see your strength and your glory.

Antiphon.

For your love is better than life
My lips will speak your praise.
So I will bless you all my life,
In your Name I will lift up my hands.
My soul shall be filled as with a banquet.
My mouth shall praise you with joy.

Antiphon.

On my bed I remember you.
On you I muse through the night
For you have been my help;
In the shadow of your wings I rejoice.
My soul clings to you;
Your right hand holds me fast.

Antiphon.

B. Arise, Shine Forth
(Canticle of Isaia)

Arise, shine forth, your light has come.
God's glory dawns on you;
Though darkness covers sleeping earth
And nations with its gloom,
Yet over you a star appears,
A beacon in the night;
The nations raise their eyes and stream
To glory in your light.

Your gates swing wide both night and day
To welcome one and all;
Your ramparts bear a holy name;
"The City of the Lord".
No sound of evil heard again,
In all God's holy land;
Your walls are named:
"God's saving work!"
Your gates are known as "Praise!"

No more the sun will shine by day,
No more the moon by night;
The Lord, an everlasting flame –
Your God will be your light.
All glory to Creator God,
The Word, and Spirit, blest,
As it began, and it is now,
Forevermore, Amen.

C. O Lord our God
(Psalm 8)

CHOIR: O Lord our God, how holy is your name!
We proclaim your praise, your beloved children proclaim:
Blessed be God most holy!
Through endless ages his glory!
Holy is his Name!

SOLO: When I behold your heavens, the moon and the stars you arranged, who am I that you should care for me,
that you should care for me?

CHOIR: You have made us little less than the angels,
Crowned us with glory and honor:
Giving your children all your works,
Putting all things into our care,
In your children's care:
Oceans and rivers, forests and hills,
Birds of the air, fish of the sea.

O Lord our God, how holy is your name!

III. GOSPEL CANTICLE

Blest be the Lord
(Canticle of Zachary)

Blest be the Lord, the God of Israel
Whose wonderous visit rescues us.
Delayed so long we thought all hope was lost,
From David's house the Savior comes.

A covenant was made with Abraham
And ancient prophets told the tale
With burning hearts they spoke of what would be
Our God would guard us from our foes

Thus free from all who wish to see us fail
Now we can safely serve our God
Surrounded by a love we cannot doubt
We worship God forevermore.

You, tiny babe, will roar with God's own Word,
A sound to take our breath away;
We know the Promised One is come at last,
Our tender God forgives us all.

The Rising Sun dispels the dark of night
And, – facing death, destroying fear,
The haunting shadows vanished in the light, –
Now guides us into lasting peace

IV. PRAYERS

A. Suffrages

LEADER: Show us your mercy, O Lord;
ALL: And grant us your salvation.

LEADER: Clothe your ministers with righteousness;
ALL: Let your people sing with joy.

LEADER: Give peace, O Lord, in all the world;
ALL: For only in you can we live in safety.

LEADER: Lord, keep this nation under your care;
ALL: And guide us in the way of justice and truth.

LEADER: Let your way be known upon earth;
ALL: Your saving health among all nations.

LEADER: Let not the needy, O Lord, be forgotten;
ALL: Nor the hope of the poor be taken away.

LEADER: Create in us clean hearts, O God;
ALL: And sustain us with your Holy Spirit

B. Lord's Prayer
(ICET)

LEADER: Gathering our praises and prayers into one, let us offer the prayer that our Savior gave us.

ALL: Our Father in heaven, hallowed by your Name,
Your kingdom come,
Your will be done on earth as is in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
And deliver us from evil.
For the Kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever.
AMEN

V. CONCLUSION

LEADER: May the God of hope fill us all with joy and peace in believing through the power of the Holy Spirit

ALL: AMEN.

Side Two

O JOYFUL LIGHT

I. LUCERNARIUM

A. Opening Dialogue:

LEADER: Light and peace in Jesus Christ our Lord.

ALL: Thanks be to God.

B. Evening Hymn:

O Joyful Light
(Phos Hilaron)

O joyful light, O image blest
Of our immortal Father's face!
O heaven's glory, Jesus Christ,
Eternal, holy, full of grace!

At sunset, Lord, we come to pray,
As we behold the evening's light:
Praise Father, Son, and Spirit blest,
One holy God of power and might!

O Son of God, all creatures sing:
How worthy to receive our praise!
You give us life and thus the world
Gives glory, Lord, through endless days.

C. Evening Thanksgiving:

LEADER: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God

ALL: It is right to give him
thanks and praise.

LEADER All praise and thanks to you,
Lord God our Father blest,
through your beloved Son,
Our Lord, Jesus Christ:
In Jesus you have shown the life that never dies, revealing to our eyes
the Light that never fades.
Night is falling now;
daylight's hours fade.
You match the gleam of day with the glow of vesper light to guide us through this night.
And so we give you thanks,
all praise and glory, Lord, Eternal Triune God,
both now and evermore.

ALL: AMEN.

II. PSALMODY

A. Like Burning Incense
(Psalm 141)

ANTIPHON: Like burning incense, Lord, let my prayer rise up to you.

I have called to you, Lord;
hasten to help me!
Hear my voice when I cry to you.
Let my prayer arise before you like incense,
The raising of my hands
like an evening oblation.

Antiphon.

Set, O Lord, a guard over my mouth;
Keep watch at the door of my lips!
Do not turn my heart to things that are wrong,
To evil deeds with those who are sinners.

Antiphon.

Never allow me
to share in their feasting.
If the good strike or reprove me
it is kindness;
but let the oil of the wicked
not anoint my head.
Let my prayer be ever against their malice.

Antiphon.

(To you, Lord God, my eyes are turned;
In you I take refuge; spare my soul!
From the trap they have laid for me
keep me safe;
Keep me from the snares of those who do evil.)

Antiphon.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
And to the Holy Spirit;
As it was in the beginning, is now,
And will be forever. Amen.

Antiphon.

B. To You, O Lord
(Psalm 25)

ANTIPHON: To you, O Lord, to you, O Lord,
I lift up, I lift up my soul.

Your ways, O Lord, make known to me;
Teach me your paths.
Guide me in your truth and teach me,
For you are God, my Savior.

Antiphon.

Good and upright is the Lord;
Thus he shows sinners the way.
The humble he guides to justice;
He teaches the humble his way.

Antiphon.

Kindness and constancy
the paths of the Lord
For those who keep covenant with him.
The friendship of the Lord with those who revere him

Antiphon.

C. Give Thanks to the Lord
(Ephesians Canticle)

Give thanks to God,
the Father of Jesus Christ, our Lord,
For all the Spirit's blessings
come down from heaven in Christ.
Before the world was founded,
God chose us in his Son
To be his holy people, unblemished, full of grace.

He chose us as his children
through Jesus Christ, his Son,
That all might praise the glory
of God's great gifts of grace.
What favor he has shown us
in his beloved Son, Whose blood has won our freedom,
the pardon of our sins!

How rich the grace God gives us,
how gracious wisdom's gift:
In Christ his loving purpose is now in Christ revealed.
When time had reached its fullness,
God planned to make all one,
All things in earth, in heaven,
in Christ, their only Head.

In Christ the Father made us a people set apart
That all might praise the glory
revealed to us in Christ.
In Christ you too have listened to God's good news of truth,
The gospel of salvation:
in Christ you have believed.

You too received the Spirit,
who marks you as his own,
The gift of God's own promise,
the first fruits of his love,
The Spirit seals God's promise in us who are the heirs
Of everlasting glory,
to God the Spirit's praise!

III. GOSPEL CANTICLE

My Soul Gives Glory
(Canticle of Mary)

My soul gives glory to the Lord,
in God my Savior I rejoice.
My lowliness he did regard,
exalting me by his own choice.
From this day all shall call me blest,
for he has done great things for me,
Of all great names his is the best,
for it is holy, strong is he.

His mercy goes to all who fear from age to age and to all parts.
His arm of strength to all is near;
he scatters those who have proud hearts.
He casts his mighty from their thrones
and raises those of low degree;
He feeds the hungry as his own,
the rich depart in poverty.

He raised his servant Israel,
remembering his eternal grace,
As from of old he did foretell
to Abraham and all his race.
O Father, Son, and Spirit blest
in threefold Name are you adored.
To you be every prayer address,
from age to age the only Lord.

IV. PRAYERS

A. Intercessions

In peace, let us pray to the Lord:

LORD HAVE MERCY; LORD, HAVE MERCY

For the peace from above,
and for our salvation:
For the peace of the whole world,
for the well-being of the church of God,
and for the unity of all:
For this holy assembly,
and for all who offer here
their worship and praise:
For the clergy, for all the servants of the Church, and for all the faithful:
For our public servants, for the government and those who protect us, that they may be upheld and strengthened in every good deed:
For peace, justice, health, and protection,
for those who live in this and every place:
For those who bring offerings,
those who do good works, those who toil,
those who sing, and all who await from the Lord great and abundant mercy:
For favorable weather, an abundance of the fruits of the earth,
and for peaceful times:
For our deliverance from all affliction,
wrath, danger, and need:
For the faithful who have gone before us
and are at rest:

Rejoicing in the fellowship of all the saints,
let us commend ourselves, one another,
and our whole lives to Christ our Lord:

TO YOU, O LORD; TO YOU, O LORD.

B. LORD'S PRAYER
(Traditional Text)

V. CONCLUSION

LEADER: May God the Father bless us and keep us;
May Jesus Christ our Lord
smile upon us;
May God the Holy Spirit
grant us peace.

ALL: AMEN.

Son of David

Son of David, have pity on me;
Son of God, hear my plea.
O, Son of David, have pity on me;
listen to my plea.

Those who sow in tears and pain will return rejoicing.
The lamb will leap,
the lion lie down,
on Your day, O Lord.

He has borne our grief and pain,
burdened down with sorrow.
Who'd believe what we have seen?
Like a lamb He's slain.

By His word this world was made,
ev'ry grain will flower.
The poor stand near to God, the Lord:
those who seek His face.

Lord God, bring us back.
Let Thy face
shine upon us.
Turn again, see this vine
which Thine hand has planted.

Mighty Lord

For He is mighty Lord,
God of all,
He is love and Lord of us all.
For He is mighty Lord,
God of all,
He is love and Lord of us all.

The Lord is dawn in darkness,
He is light for day.
He knows our weakness
yet He walks our ways,
He is steady love to ev'ry creature that lives,
He is mighty Lord.

And let the heavens praise Him
in the sun and moon.
Let stars give thanks to Him
at night and noon.
Praise Him, all the earth, the mountains, hills, and the trees,
He is mighty Lord.

O serve the Lord with gladness,
serve the Lord with song;
and know He made us,
He has loved us Long.
He is steady love and He alone is our God,
He is mighty Lord.

O teach us, Lord, to go with You,
to walk Your ways:
to love Your light,
to know Your brightness stays.
Help us help each other with the love that You are,
You are mighty Lord.

One Bread, One Body

One bread, one body,
one Lord of all,
one cup of blessing which we bless.
And we, though many, throughout the earth,
we are one body in this one Lord.

Gentile or Jew, servant or free,
woman or man, no more.

Many the gifts, many the works,
one in the Lord
of all.

Grain for the fields, scattered and grown,
gathered to one,
for all.

Our Help Is From the Lord

Our help is from the Lord,
the maker of the world.

My eyes are toward the mountains:
whence shall come my aid?
The Lord Himself will help me,
who loves the world He made.

He watches lest you stumble;
wakeful hours He keeps.
Behold, the one who helps you neither nods nor sleeps.

The Lord gives shade to shield you;
by your side He stays.
The moon by night won't fright you,
nor the sun by day.

He guards your heart from evil,
keeps you from all strife.
Your coming and your going
He guards through all your life.

Come to the Water

O let all who thirst,
let them come to the water.
And let all who have nothing,
let them come to the Lord:
without money, without price,
why should you pay the price,
except for the Lord?

And let all who seek,
let them come to the water.
And let all who have nothing,
let them come to the Lord:
without money, without strife,
why should you spend your life,
except for the Lord?

And let all who toil,
let them come to the water.
And let all who are weary,
let them come to the Lord:
all who labor, without rest,
how can your soul find rest,
except for the Lord?

And let all the poor,
let them come to the water.
Bring the ones who are laden,
bring all to the Lord:
bring the children without might,
easy the load and light,
come to the Lord.

Wood Hath Hope

Wood hath hope.
When it's cut, it grows green again,
and its boughs sprout clean again.
Wood hath hope.

Root and stock,
although old and withered up,
and all sunk in earth corrupt,
will revive.
Leaves return.
Water pure brings life to them,
and the tree lives young again.
Wood hath hope.

But for flesh waits death
to strip the soul,
and breathe life out, behold:
all things end.
Mortal life's like a
dried up river bed, we sleep,
lay down our heads, to rise no more.

But ah, strange thought:
if a man could rise again,
called home to a loving land,
we would have hope.

We would have hope.
Like a tree we'd grow green again,
and our boughs sprout clean again;
we would have hope.

This Is the Day

This is the day that the Lord has made;
let us be glad and rejoice in it.
Give thanks to the Lord for He is good,
and His mercy endures forever.
Alleluia, alleluia.

This is the stone that was thrown away;
now it becomes the cornerstone.
Let all those who fear the Lord now say that His mercy endures forever.
Alleluia, alleluia.

Side 2

The Cry of the Poor

The Lord hears the cry of the poor.
Blessed be the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times,
His praise ever in my mouth.
Let my soul glory in the Lord,
for He hears the cry of the poor.

Let the lowly hear and be glad:
the Lord listens to their pleas;
and to hearts broken He is near,
for He hears the cry of the poor.

Every spirit crushed He will save;
will be ransom for their lives;
will be safe shelter for their fears,
for He hears the cry of the poor.

We proclaim the greatness of God,
His praise ever in our mouth;
every face brightened in His light,
for He hears the cry of the poor.

Flowers Still Grow There

You're worried, my son,
'bout people hatin',
and how this world is run,
how this world is run.

You say it ain't true
it's dirt that we're made of,
and often return to,
often return.

Well don't search too long for this gold that you seek.
It's too deep to dig for,
and your arm's too weak.

Don't you worry, my son,
'bout the dirt in the soil:
flowers still grow there,
flowers still grow.

That man long ago,
with his low down birth,
found his glory,
planted in the earth.

Don't you worry, my son,
'bout people hatin':
love is still the Lord,
love is still Lord.

I Rejoiced When I Heard Them Say

I rejoiced when I heard them say:
we go to God's own home.
And now our feet have stood within Your temple, Lord.

For the sake of Jerusalem,
pray peace be in our walls.
And peace be in our homes.
May God's own good be known.

For the sake of our friends and kin,
pray peace be in our hearts.
For the sake of His own home,
may God's own good be known,
in our land,
in our lives,
in our homes,
in our hearts.

Glory to God

Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to His people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father,
we worship You,
we give You thanks,
we praise You for Your glory.

Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to His people on earth.

Lord Jesus Christ,
only Son of the Father,
Lord God, Lamb of God,
You take away
the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
You are seated
at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to His people on earth.

You alone are the Holy One,
You alone are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
With the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.

MR. RIGHT

New moon beams on piece of land
No one has touched before
Except beasts and bugs
Do you know someone
Just jumped out of the window?
Can you hear a man fall?
Can you hear a coin fall?
What do you see
What do you hear
Mr. Right?

You always come from behind
To push me around
To get what you want
So you are the center of the Earth
The world goes around
You wear your knowledge
Like a change of clothes
But it's only the fashion
Nothing inside
What do you get What do you lose
Mr. Right?

What do you see
What do you hear
Mr. Right?

Mr. Right tell me what do you see
Mr. Right tell me what you hear

HUNDRED MONKEYS

This is a story of a monkey island
Female monkey named Imo
Went down to water for washing sweet potatoes washing sweet potatoes
Next morning her brother and sister Went down to water, followed Imo
For washing sweet potatoes
Next day, her friends and neighbors
Went down to water, joined Imo
For washing sweet potatoes
Next day whole village of the monkeys
Went down to water, joined Imo
There is a hundred monkeys
Down by the water, for washing sweet potatoes

This has never happened before
Like a ripple of water
Reaching every consciousness

Then a miracle happened
Monkeys in the east
Monkeys in the west
All monkeys get together
For washing sweet potatoes, joined Imo

This has never happened before
Like a ripple of water
Reaching every island

DREAM OF AFRICA

There is a line, line of survivors
Walking through the desert
There is a wild beast, running free
Searching for food and water
The heat your rider, rain your judge
Where they go, where they rest
There ain't no choice
There ain't no direction
There ain't no time, uh uh uh

There is a crowd, crowds of hunger
Waiting for bits of grain
There is a child, lie on the ground
His eyes are still
The heat your rider, rain is your judge
Where they go, where they rest
There ain't no choice
There ain't no direction
There ain't no time, uh uh uh

The Viola D' Amore

A fourteen string shoulder viol (Held like a Violin and played with a bow). Seven strings (the top ones) are played with the bow, while the lower ones are usually tuned in unison with the upper ones and vibrate when a corresponding note is played on the upper strings. This imparts a silvery pure, ringing and resonant quality of sound, and lends to give the instrument its name i.e. "Love Viol" The tuning of the Viola D' Amore is in thirds, fourths and fifths, much like the viola da gamba or lute. The most popular tuning is in the key (chord) of D major (i.e. D A F*D A, D A, although there are other tunings. The score is usually in the Viola Clef, sometimes in the treble clef. There seems to be much in the way of music for the Viola D' Amore. Possibly more than one hundred and fifty compositions, such as concertos, solo compositions sonatas, etc. Hindemith was a virtuoso performer and composed for it, some earlier ones were Ariosti, Stamitz and Vivaldi. The instrument never has been obsolete, it has always been in use in various parts of Europe, never having been brought to this country until of late years. Most of the old instruments (Viola D' Amores) are now in musuems etc. and are not maintained in playable condition, making them very scarce. I built my own from blueprints I made from instruments in the Library of Congress some years ago.

THE INTREPID MIND OF JIMMY PELHAM

JIMMY PELHAM, A comedian of rare talent, engages in a refreshingly dynamic and lofty brand of humor. He speaks articulately, blending to perfection the mellow tones of a southern accent and the rough vernacular of western culture.

JIMMY PELHAM is a member of the human race . . . however . . . after you have listened to the pique (ings) on this record . . . you may ask yourself WHY, he has been permitted to remain at this level of the evolution . . . he just laughs and says "Man, after life, what else is there"?

Now notice the phrasing in his colloquy with PREZ . . . and you will see why the question in the first or rather second paragraph was raised . . . because it would take a keen mind, characterized by a most indicative proceeding of mental alertness, in order for him to take the most common forms of everyday life and involvements and to fabricate them to a point of complete stupefication.

Then notice the song "Stay by me", it speaks very favorably of some of our more astute southern politicians, and their unending pursuit of happiness and liberty, and their willingness to fight in order to take it away from us.

Jimmy is well prepared for his art . . . having received his masters degree from New York University . . . and you may wonder why his master didn't keep it . . . His material carries some racial overtones I should say, undertones, but is happily devoid of homilies. He says "the main thing that I am after is laughs, (belly busters he calls them) but if I am able to leave you with something to think of, so much the better".

In the words of Jimmy "My life has been sideways, first; retirement, second; successful retirement, then happy unemployment, third; suuccess, (I made a four the hardway) and now I am making an honest living, dishonestly".

Always wary of things too cerebral, he aims his humor at the funnybone as well as the brain. He feels that the bones, being made of a harder substance, are more sound than the brain, therefore less prone to damage by the violent hysteria - or the psychoneurotic disorder characterized by violent emotional outbreaks, which will bring on a state of preversion in the sensory, and motor-malfunctions of various morbid effects due to his enormous talent for autosuggestions.

On side two of this recording, Jimmy takes a primal look into that moviematical marvel (oh how I do go on) television, and those health halting obstacles . . . cigarettes. For a man who alleges that he doesn't smoke, he sure knows a lot about the happiness that can be derived from taking a long, long, drag and a deep deep inhalation of a real GOOD smoke.

In the bit entitled "Dreams", here again we see the "Intrepid Mind" at work. In that he dreams that he is a combination of all the TV networks . . . and the local channels as well, and the story that unfolds is something to behold.

Jimmy is considered a real "treat" by all who have had the opportunity to see and hear him. Magnificiently hilarious, and an eloquent speaker, he's a comedian you simply CAN'T afford to miss! And believe me, I consider it an honor that he chose me to write these linear notes.

As I was trying to say in the very beginning of this discourse, until my mind had a malfunction . . . why dont You, Pick up your phone and "CALL PREZ . . . COLLECT".

THE FIRST ANNUAL BENEFIT CONCERT FOR THE CONGRESSIONAL BLACK CAUCUS

We 17 members of the Congressional Black Caucus are not alone in our struggle. With the love and support of so many people, we are strengthened far beyond our numbers as we fight to make our government responsive to human needs. Although we and our supporters may strive in different arenas – politics, business, the arts, education, labor – we are all joined in the crusade for freedom and dignity.

We are grateful for the generosity of the great artists who gave so much of themselves to make our first benefit concert a success and for this opportunity to share their performances with you.

RESUME OF EVANGELIST RONALD E. BROWN

Evangelist Ronald E. Brown is pastor and founder of the Faith Tabernacle Deliverance Evangelistic Center of Orangeburg, South Carolina and the Lighthouse Tabernacle Deliverance Evangelistic Center of Savannah, Georgia. Evangelist Brown, a young pioneer of holiness, is a dynamic man of God whose world-wide outreach has blessed the lives of many, for scores of souls have been saved, healed, and delivered under his ministry.

Full of faith, the power of God, and boldness, Evangelist Brown acclaims the unadulterated gospel of Jesus Christ. Great signs, wonders and miracles follow such a ministry, so much so that many marvel at the great manifestations wrought in the services.

Pastor Brown, as he is also called, heralds the message of deliverance, proclaiming 'old time' holiness as is written in the Bible. He cherishes his broadcast ministry, for he takes each God-sent message at heart. Pastor Brown has a great burden for his radio listeners, the invisible audience, as he has for his congregation. It can be said that he 'goes at sin like a lion goes at his prey.' He is well loved by many for his stand against unrightness.

In his recent 'Back to God' broadcastings, he exorts that in returning to God we, as individuals and as a nation, will find just what we need (salvation, deliverance, joy, love, peace, happiness in our surroundings), for there is no shortage in God.

Evangelist Brown and his congregation wish to share with you in a 'gospel experience,' two live broadcast recordings.

MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1976,

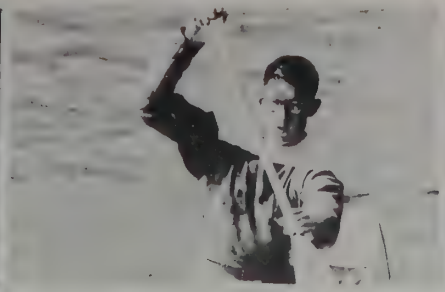
U.S. MILITARY ACADEMY



AS YOU WERE is a story of Academy life. The curtain rises on a Saturday afternoon area formation as we hear doleful lamentations of Mike Stevenson and other area birds (AREA BLUES). Next, Mike, disenchanted with the honor associated with being the Bicentennial Class, gets involved in a heated discussion with his best friend, Steve Jackson. Steve, somewhat of a recluse and an academic superman, attempts to prevent Mike from becoming further embittered. The scene culminates in a musical satirization of the chain of command (SPEAKIN' MY MIND). Steve enlists Mike's help to complete a physics project but Mike overloads the electrical equipment and both Mike and Steve disappear in a flash of smoke. We now see them back in the West Point of 1817 where they are mistaken for cadets by none other than Major Sylvanus Thayer. The two cadets overhear two British officers, Vernon and Shalford, discussing attack plans but are unable to understand the conversation. Confused and upset, Mike and Steve gradually realize what has happened, but are unable to return home due to a missing piece of the control mechanism. They are well received by the other cadets and discover an attitude in which cadets abuse the system and take advantage of each other. Mike is elated with the prospect of being able to change West Point, but only succeeds in providing Thayer with an incentive for his "Thayer System" (WONDERFUL MOMENT). Thayer is also preoccupied with news of a possible attack by British ships moving up the Hudson. A party is held for Mike and Steve at Benny Havens Tavern where Mike meets Anne Hayes, a lovely and mysterious woman (THE WAY TO GO). Filled with excitment over Anne, Mike is warned by Steve to avoid becoming involved for fear of hurting her. Back in their room, Steve falls asleep and Mike composes a letter (SPECIAL KIND OF GIRL). The second act opens on a lovesick Mike brooding over Anne. Steve finally convinces Mike to tell Anne goodbye. While Mike is gone, Vernon and Shalford accost Steve and persuade him to join them (COME JOIN ENGLAND). Mike, having said goodbye to Anne, learns of the attack and, against Steve's protests, goes to help stop the British. Steve is hurt, (REPRISE: THE WAY TO GO), and a tearful Anne is confused (ANOTHER DAY). Mike enlists the support of other cadets (REPRISE: WONDERFUL MOMENT) but, by a surprising twist, it's Steve who saves the day and the British are defeated (TODAY'S THE DAY). Mike and Steve finally locate the missing control piece; Mike and Anne bid a sad farewell (TURN AROUND), and the cadets return to 1976. Through a Bicentennial experience, Mike and Steve have taken on some characteristics of each other; Mike, proudly wearing his West Point ring, begins to study, while Steve, the recluse, goes to socialze with other cadets at Coffee Call.

Music Preformed and Arranged by the United States Military Academy Band

The musicians who have gathered together to make this new ISIS album are among the most inspired and inspiring performers, composers and philosophers in the business. And another thing, they are all women. Four years ago, when Carol MacDonald founded ISIS, women hardly had a chance to be heard in the contemporary world of music. Since then, Carol and her longtime colleague, Margo Lewis have been turning stumbling blocks into stepping stones by hiring top female instrumentalists and arrangers as well as vocalists. Listening to the six regular members of ISIS and the additional performers on this album proves how right they are.

IT'S ONLY A MATTER OF TIME

It's only a matter of time
Till we can see
All the rhyme and the reason
For how things are gonna be
So I'll walk right beside you
No matter where you may go
'Cause it's only a matter of time
Till we know
It's only a matter of time
With the stars up above
It's only a matter of time
We'll be falling in love
And I'll walk right beside you
No matter where we may go
It's only a matter of time
Till we know
How did you know that I needed you so?
Tell me, how did you know?

LOVE LOVE LOVE

You can feel it, All around you You're gonna know it, when you're in it
You can see it when you're face to face with love
I'm looking for love, I've gotta find it

Love Love Love
Everybody's talking about it
Some people hate it, some people shout it Knowing it's for sure, wondering what it's for
I'm searching for it, Gotta find somebody
I really really need it
Love Love Love
You know you all need it
So just look around
Search high search low
You'll know where to go
Love Love Love

ONE WOMAN

You see life like looking in a mirror
Never breaking through to the other side
Open up your mind and things would seem much clearer Help you understand what's happening to you
One woman she lays back and waits
while the other might jump right in
The third one she sings a song for you
All for you, for you
Tell me do you hear it?
All this pain, why don't they think of what they're doing?
In Brazil, in Viet Nam, in Chile too*
We are leaving, we are leaving,
we are leaving
Because your pain is our pain too
One woman she lays back and waits
While the other might jump right in
The third one she sings a song for you
All for you, for you
Tell me do you hear it?

GOD GIVE ME THE STRENGTH

God give me the strength to let you go
God give me the strength to set you free
I love you, I can't let you go
I want you, Gotta take it slow
I want you, that's too damn bad
Can't have you now ain't that sad
God give me the strength to let you go
God give me the strength to set you free
The nights are cold in summer heat
I lay there lonely forced to sleep
I wake up and the bed is bare
God only knows I need you there
If I could turn back hands of time
And once more really make you mine
Can't beg you baby, can't beg you baby
God give me the strength
God give me the strength

LOVING YOU THROUGH MUSIC

(dedicated to Laura Nyro)

I've been loving you through music
Even though we've never met
But your feelings have touched my feelings
In a way I can't forget
I've been loving you through music
I know what you've been through Laura, O Laura
This song is for you
Music is a feeling
It's a celebration too
O your music has sent me reeling
I'm feeling just like midnight blue
So heal me with music
You know what I've been through Laura, O Laura
This song is for you

-SIDE TWO-

LOOKING FOR A SPACE

Life is always changing
Going up and down
Time is always passing
I feel it going round and round
First you're here and then you're gone
Looking for another place to sing your song
Looking for a space
See the people laughing
They're feeling real high
Getting what they wanted
And then they're saying goodbye
Searching high searching low
Realizing there's no place to go
Looking for a space

GET CRAZY

Everybody everybody come along and join us in the fun Anybody anybody who thinks we'd leave you out well
they'd be wrong
You've got a voice so sing along
Get Crazy Get crazy
And if you can walk then you can surely sway your hips and dance up a storm
Everybody everybody shopping
all around for their good time Anybody, anybody who's got a taste for life can do it fine
We know there's madness everywhere
Get Crazy
But if not for madness people spend their life bored
out of their minds

Take your time move only as fast
as you can go
No need to be afraid
Make a fresh start, listen to your heart
Try to do your part
Listen to your heart

Not by Might Not by Power

COMPOSED & SUNG BY DEBBIE FRIEDMAN

Printed in U.S.A.

Stereo LP
S80-741

Debbie Friedman is a young woman with boundless energy directed toward the goal of providing the young and the old with a means of coming closer to their Judaism through music. As a composer, youth leader, teacher, camp counselor, and director of a city wide Youth Choir, she has brought to many a sense of belonging as well as an awareness of the need to express love and hope and joy through song.

"Not By Might and Not By Power" is the second in a series of albums presented in the praise of God. "Sing Unto God," a Sabbath Liturgy, was the first.

Her creativity, her sensitivity toward others, her concern for people and her deep religious commitment are well expressed in her musical compositions.

The music of this album was originally commissioned as a Chanukah Cantata by Chicago Sinai Congregation, 5350 South Shore Drive, Chicago, Illinois 60615 through a grant from its endowment fund. It was premiered before the congregation by Debbie Friedman and the Sinai City Wide Choir on Sunday, December 16, 1973.

A few years ago, I came to Olin Song Ruby Union Institute. It was a time when my own experiences and the spirit of the Institute came together to allow me to create in the finest educational and spiritual moment of my life. That is when I knew that "Sing Unto God" was only a beginning.

In every age there are times of despair; there are dreams shattered, hearts broken, tears shed, and ideals lost. The theme of Chanukah is one of renewal, a time of rededication; a time to go back and pick up the pieces with your people and take another step forward in pursuit of those precious dreams once forgotten.

To my family and those special people who have been an inspiration to me, I dedicate this music with my love — for in your spirit and in your song —

"Another Song Will Rise"

A M A N D A

Babe, tomorrow's so far away.
There's somethin' I just have to say.
I don't think I could hide
What I'm feelin' inside
Another day.
Knowin' I love you.

And I—I'm gettin' too close again.
I don't wanna see it end.
If I tell you tonight
Will you turn out the light.
And walk away
Knowin' I love you?

CHORUS
I'm gonna take you by surprise
And make you realize.
Amanda
I'm gonna tell you right away
I can't wait another day.
Amanda
I'm gonna say it like a man
And make you understand.
Amanda
I love you.

And, I feel like today's the day.
I'm lookin' for the words to say.
Do you wanna be free,
Are you ready for me
To feel this way?
I don't wanna lose ya.

So it may be too soon I know.
The feelin' takes so long to grow.
If I tell you today
Will you turn me away
And let me go?
I don't wanna lose you.

CHORUS
I'm gonna take you by surprise
And make you realize.
Amanda
I'm gonna tell you right away
I can't wait another day.
Amanda
I'm gonna say it like a man
And make you understand.
Amanda

You and I—I know that we can't wait.
And I swear—I swear it's not a lie girl,
Tomorrow may be too late.
You—you and I girl—we can share a life together.
It's now or never
And tomorrow may be too late.

And, feelin' the way I do,
I don't wanna wait my whole life through
To say I'm in love with you.

Thanks For The Help And Support
Of All Our Friends

You leave in the morning
With everything you own
In a little black case
Alone on a platform
The wind and the rain
On a sad and lonely face

Mother will never understand
Why you had to leave
For the love that you need
Will never be found at home
And the answer you seek
Will never be found at home

Pushed around and kicked around
Always a lonely boy
You were the one
That they'd talk about around town
As they put you down
And as hard as they would try
They'd hurt to make you cry
But you'd never cry to them
Just to your soul
No you'd never cry to them
Just to your soul

A M A N D A

Babe, tomorrow's so far away.
There's somethin' I just have to say.
I don't think I could hide
What I'm feelin' inside
Another day.
Knowin' I love you.

And I—I'm gettin' too close again.
I don't wanna see it end.
If I tell you tonight
Will you turn out the light.
And walk away
Knowin' I love you?

CHORUS
I'm gonna take you by surprise
And make you realize.
Amanda
I'm gonna tell you right away
I can't wait another day.
Amanda
I'm gonna say it like a man
And make you understand.
Amanda
I love you.

And, I feel like today's the day.
I'm lookin' for the words to say.
Do you wanna be free,
Are you ready for me
To feel this way?
I don't wanna lose ya.

So it may be too soon I know.
The feelin' takes so long to grow.
If I tell you today
Will you turn me away
And let me go?
I don't wanna lose you.

CHORUS
I'm gonna take you by surprise
And make you realize.
Amanda
I'm gonna tell you right away
I can't wait another day.
Amanda
I'm gonna say it like a man
And make you understand.
Amanda

You and I—I know that we can't wait.
And I swear—I swear it's not a lie girl,
Tomorrow may be too late.
You—you and I girl—we can share a life together.
It's now or never
And tomorrow may be too late.

And, feelin' the way I do,
I don't wanna wait my whole life through
To say I'm in love with you.

Thanks For The Help And Support
Of All Our Friends

You leave in the morning
With everything you own
In a little black case
Alone on a platform
The wind and the rain
On a sad and lonely face

Mother will never understand
Why you had to leave
For the love that you need
Will never be found at home
And the answer you seek
Will never be found at home

Pushed around and kicked around
Always a lonely boy
You were the one
That they'd talk about around town
As they put you down
And as hard as they would try
They'd hurt to make you cry
But you'd never cry to them
Just to your soul
No you'd never cry to them
Just to your soul

今天不回家

(電影"今天不回家"主題曲) 古月 作曲 諸戈 作詞

今天不回家……。徘徊的人，徬徨的心，迷失在十字街頭的你，今天不回家，爲什麼你不回家？往事如烟，愛情如謎，迷失在舊日情愛的你，今天不回家，爲什麼你不回家？朦朧的月，[illegible]，[illegible]，迷失的人，不要忘了家的甜蜜。朦朧的月[illegible]，爲什麼？爲什麼不回家。心在那裏？[illegible]了家的甜蜜，家的甜蜜……。

磁性的迷惑

(電影[illegible]曲) [illegible]菲奴 作詞

美麗的人[illegible]，那美麗的眼睛，迷住了我的心魂[illegible]，夢裏的燈，那夢裏[illegible]我的生命。看不出那是星，分不清，是燈[illegible]顆星，盞燈，[illegible]……情，那迷人的夢境，迷失了[illegible]不清那是燈，一顆星[illegible]um……。[illegible]那迷人的夢境，[illegible]

[illegible]菲奴 作詞

[illegible]聲，啊！夢裡，[illegible]的夢，我失去的夢[illegible]，啊夢裡，[illegible]，我失去的夢

[illegible]奴 作詞

愛，我要你那火樣熱的愛，啊！[illegible]愛，我需要愛，我要你那火樣熱的愛，啊！[illegible]

[illegible]年，[illegible]愛我不妨受[illegible]那電燈[illegible]，我需要[illegible]電燈[illegible]，我需[illegible]蝶兒破[illegible]樣熱的愛，啊

今天不回家

（電影"今天不回家"主題曲） 古月 作曲 諸戈 作詞

今天不回家……。徘徊的人，徬徨的心，迷失在十字街頭的你，今天不回家，爲什麼你不回家？往事如烟，愛情如謎，迷失在舊日情愛的你，今天不回家，爲什麼你不回家？朦朧的月，[illegible]，[illegible]夢境的你，今天不回家，爲什麼？爲什麼不回家。心在[illegible]，迷失的人，不要忘了家的甜蜜。朦朧的月[illegible]，爲什麼？爲什麼不回家。心在那裏？[illegible]了家的甜蜜，家的甜蜜……。

磁性的迷惑

（電影[illegible]插曲） [illegible] 莊奴 作詞

美麗的人[illegible]，那美麗的眼睛，迷住了我的心靈[illegible]，夢裏的灯，那夢裏的[illegible]我的生命。看不出那是星，分不清，[illegible]一顆星一盞灯。

……

情，那迷人的夢境，迷失了我

不清那是灯，一顆星一盞[illegible]，um……

那迷人的夢境，

[illegible] 莊奴 作詞

[illegible]聲，啊！夢裡，

[illegible]的夢，我失去的夢

[illegible]，啊夢裡，

[illegible]，我失去的夢

[illegible] 莊奴 作詞

愛愛，我要你那火樣熱的愛[illegible]

愛，我需要愛，我要[illegible]那火樣熱的愛，啊[illegible]

[illegible]午，[illegible]愛我不妨受[illegible]

[illegible]那電灯熱的愛[illegible]，我需要

[illegible]電灯熱的愛[illegible]，我需[illegible]

[illegible]蝶兒被[illegible]

樣熱的愛，啊

JAKKO

Michael Jaksyzk,also known as Jakko,is a 24 year old singer,guitarist,writer.

His first band,'Soon After',played their way to the semi finals of the 1975 Melody Maker Rock/Folk competition.

Soon after 'Soon After' he formed the enigmatic'64 Spoons',a sort of jazz rock Bonzo Dog.

Their only vinyl legacy was one E.P. which is now nearly impossible to get.

More recently he has played guitar with Dave Stewart's 'Rapid Eye Movement'

This led to his involvement on Dave's first chart success 'What Becomes Of The Broken Hearted', and his debut album.

Assisting Jakko on many of these projects has been John Clarke on drums/ percussion and trumpet player extraordin(h)air Ted Emmet,currently resident with the Teardrop Explodes.

Besides these two Jakko utilises two other musicians on his own debut L.P. 'Silesia'; these are Annie Whitehead on Trombone and Dave Jackson(late of the late Van Der Graaf Generator)on Saxophones.

Anyone interested in the Canterbury scene,Henry Cow,Van Der Graaf,Fripp etc should find something for them in Jakko's efficient pop stylings.

WAY, WAY BACK IN THE DARK, DARK DAYS

WHERE AM I

I STILL BELIEVE

IF I'M A FOOL

I'VE GOT NEWS

TONIGHT'S OUR NIGHT

They said it couldn't be done, but there were three guys who didn't know it and so they did it!

TWELVE wonderful ORIGINAL SONGS composed in collaboration with other song writers to bring you a fascinating album, full of rhythm — Danceable — and for those who prefer to relax — so very listenable.

The DO-RAY-ME TRIO was first formed in 1948 and the present Trio have been together since 1951.
The group consists of

AL RUSSELL

The last of four musical brothers. Was born in Columbia, South Carolina and went to Booker T. Washington High and played in the High School Band during the last two years before Graduation. Joined Brother Snookum Russell's Band after Graduation and The Al Russell Trio in 1943 and played in California from 1943 to 1946. Migrated to Philadelphia in 1946 and worked for a Night Club chain until the formation of THE DO-RAY-ME TRIO. Al plays piano and is also a fine vocalist.

ENGINEER — PAUL MONGEAU

BUDDY HAWKINS

Vocalist and Drummer.

Product of a singing family who started his career in a quartette organized by his Dad.

Later he attended the Granoff School of Music where he studied voice.

Headed his own group the Keynotes from 1948 to 1951 when he became a partner in the Do-Ray-Me Trio.

Enjoys his work as vocalist, timekeeper and business representative for the Group.

AL MOORE

Ex Piano and Vibe man.

Acquired early training during his grammar school years. Later organized local bands and small groups in and around Philadelphia until 1951.

Joined Louis Armstrong in 1943 and played with him during the war years. Returned to Philadelphia and in 1951 Joined the Trio. Now plays Bass and assists in Vocals.

THE CANDLE 4:05
(Scott Fraser)

I saw it, I felt it
The weight of giving over
I fought it, I won it
The hole was never closed up

I didn't feel like such a fool
I didn't
Believe it, the dreaming
The swirling never ended
The armies of angels
Were called in much too lately

I didn't feel so all alone
I kept a candle for the son
I didn't feel so all alone
I lit a candle for him

I thought of, I cried for
The thought of saints in armor
The staining of scabbards
The claret rose of valor

I didn't feel like such a fool
I didn't
Believe it, the lying
The tongues of fools in glory
Their freedom was taken
Their pride amounts to nothing

I didn't feel so all alone
I kept a candle for the son
I didn't feel so all alone
I lit a candle for him

The candle is burning
The candle burns so brightly
The candle is burning
The candle burns so brightly

I didn't feel so all alone
I kept a candle for the son
I didn't feel so all alone
I lit a candle for him

Biography -

Hywel Dunn-Davies

(aka H-Bomb, Souldriver, Chaos Theory, Mainline, Future Sound Collective, Peruvian Marching Band and Convergence)

Sussex born Hywel Dunn-Davies is a very modest, down to earth and amazingly talented Oxford graduate who is set to become the hottest producer on the progressive house scene this year. Hywel has been working in his studio since the young age of 15 - then producing mostly drum & bass tracks but slowly moved accoss to the house scene. In the mid 90's he was signed to Bullion Records under the name DJ Stealth producing funky cut up disco (very Sneak), and also recorded for "Kickin records" in it's early days. From this he had the opportunity to sign to Loaded, however decided to concentrate on his studies. His range of production is unlimited - from abstract hip-hop to the deepest funkiest progreesive house. To say the least, his talent is amazing for someone so young.

Hywel was again noticed (along with fellow Oxford grad James Holden and label and production partner Duncan Ellis) under the name Mainline with their huge success on the highly acclaimed Bedrock label. Hywel has since gone from strength to strength with remixes for Platipus, tunes released on Spundaes (under the name Chaos Theory), Rotunda (under the name Souldriver), Yoshitoshi (Souldriver) and Silver Planet. In the summer of 1999 he set up his own imprint Midset recordings - formerly "Slide recordings" - with his partner Duncan Ellis. The first release sees Hywel as H-Bomb, another guise. It's a superb 2tracker, Groove Attack (A side) (already featured on Nick Warren's latest Global Underground), is an ultra cool Circulation-esque deep progressive cut - already a proven anthem on dancefloors such as Fabric, Bedrock, Bomb. Inspiration (AA) is yet again a future progressive house anthem. Shifting in all the right places this is a relentless track; perfect kicks, perfect pads and a killer bassline. This track carries class without mistakenly sounding like yet another boring prog house track At the time of writing it's already done 2,500 on the pre-sales.

Hywel records under a number of guises, all styles representing his broad but progressive nature - he sets his own standards. Acetate support has come from the likes of Deep Dish, Danny Tenaglia, Sasha and James Holden to name but a few.

Hywel has recently returned from an American tour where he and partner Duncan Ellis were playing at Spundae's, San Francisco and The Crystal Rooms in LA - and tore it up.

MIDSET RECORDINGS -

Midset recordings deserve more than just a mention. If we're talking up and coming talent, these guys are the ones to watch out for.

Midset (formerly Slide recordings) was set up in the summer of 1999 by pioneer Duncan Ellis and Hywel Dunn-Davies aka Soul Driver and fellow Oxford graduate to the notorious James Holden (who we should all know by now - Horizons? Bedrock? Yes that's the one). Together the pair produced sexy and deep progressive house, and having initially met on campus, Hywel introduced James to the label and consequently the trio spent many a dark night in their rather modest studio in a room at St.John's College, Oxford. While the other Oxford students were running riot at the local Union, streaking through hallways and partaking in "the usual" student debauchery, the Midset boys spent night after night creating a unique and addictive progressive house sound which has been picked up by the likes of Timo Maas, Sasha, Digweed and Deep Dish, to name but a few.

Of course, this is not to say that these guys don't ever take a break from their busy schedule to enjoy themselves - to his embarrassment and to the others' entertainment, James was recently escorted out of Turnmills for being smoked under the table by the legendary Timo Maas, something her prefers to keep under wraps quite understanderbly.....

Narcotic/Innerspace, the trio's first major success under the name Mainline, received tremendous attention and made its way onto the most recent Sasha and Digweed album "Communicate" and also the latest Bedrock album, "Foundations".

Now, having silently created numerous awesome tracks and done well over 2,500 copies on the pre-sales, Midset finally crashed into the scene at the end of last month. The first release is called Groove Attack/Inspiration (artist "H-bomb" - that's Hywel - and that's How-el by the way) and wait for it - yes, unsurprisingly it's already featured on Nick Warren's latest Global Underground album, out last December. In fact, even Circulation's new "Sub-Tech" label also tried to snap this one up.

So you're probably thinking their prospects couldn't look any brighter for a label on its first release. Well ladies and gentlemen, that's where you're wrong. As if I couldn't name drop any more, Mr P tong has even had his two-pennies worth. he tipped their amazing "Ethnic dub" and "Darknoise" (which they released in December on Rotunda) as the tune of December. It can also be found on the latest of the Global Underground collection- Nick Warren in Amsterdam.

More? Deep Dish have been playing entire sets of the boys' material. Last year at Pacha in Jerusalem they played over an hours worth of Midset stuff to a crowd of thousands, including the soon-to-be massive "So Good" which Yoshitoshi have recently signed for a US release. This, as you may have guessed from the title, cleverly disguises "that" vocal from Loletta Hollaway's classic Sweet Sensation and is also a personal favourite.

Aside from Hywel and Duncan, expect to hear from Gwill Morris (aka Main Element and one half of Ogenki Clinic)- another promising artist whose latest track "Fuktitles" (Midset's second release) has been destroying dance floors from Fabric to The Bomb - a slightly slower, sexier, drugged-out trippy groover with a harder Mainline mix on the flip - due out this month.

Jerry Bonham, one of USA's leading progressive house DJ's and resident at Spundae's, invited the Midset duo over to join in his birthday celebrations at the end of January. One half the boss and unrivalled DJ Duncan Ellis rocked the floors aside Hywel (the most modest and probably the nicest man in the industry) and went on to tear it up at the Crystal rooms in Beverly Hills. Together they promoted Hywel's latest masterpiece, "Another dimension/Abstraction" (under the name Chaos Theory) which was released on Spundae recordings at the end of January.

Midset have a heavy release schedule for 2001 and if that's not enough, get your dancing feet down to their exclusive new night "Rhum Boogie" which runs fortnightly (second and last) and certainly takes the piss out of any other Oxford haunt. Duncan Ellis - "The aim of Rhum Boogie is to provide quality underground music in an intimate venue with a friendly relaxed atmosphere. Somewhere people can really get down and boogie the night away with no inhibitions. This is not a money making venture but a conserted effort to put on the best party possible for the most important people in the music industry - the clubbers and music lovers". Holding the fort along with Duncan will be Kava of Advance records, Steve Williams of Audio Science clothing and, the Hugh Grant of the progressive house world, Nev Scott.

Midset Artist Management, in conjunction with Midset recordings, was set up recently to look after the many label guises and is being run by partner of Duncan Ellis and talented DJ, Laura Martin. Contact 07788 952382 for details.

Jimmy Pelham

THE INTREPID MIND OF JIMMY PELHAM

JIMMY PELHAM, A comedian of rare talent, engages in a refreshingly dynamic and lofty brand of humor. He speaks articulately, blending to perfection the mellow tones of a southern accent and the rough vernacular of western culture.

JIMMY PELHAM is a member of the human race...however... after you have listened to the pique (ings) on this record...you may ask yourself WHY, he has been permitted to remain at this level of the evolution ...he just laughs and says "Man, after life what else is there"?

Now notice the phrasing in his colloquy with PREZ...and you will see why the question in the first or rather second paragraph was raised... because it would take a keen mind, characterized by a most indicative proceeding of mental alertness, in order for him to take the most common forms of everyday life and involvements and to fabricate them to a point of complete stupefaction.

Then notice the song "Stay by me", it speaks very favorably of some of our more astute southern politicians, and their unending pursuit of happiness and liberty, and their willingness to fight in order to take it away from us.

Jimmy is well prepared for his art...having received his masters degree from New York University...and you may wonder why his master didn't keep it...His material carries some racial overtones I should say, undertones, but is happily devoid of homilies. He says "the main thing that I am after is laughts, (belly busters he calls them) but if I am able to leave you with something to think of; so much the better".

In the words of Jimmy "My life has been sideways, first; retirement, second; successful retirement, then happy unemployment, third; success, (I made a four the hard way) and now I am making an honest living, dishonestly".

Always wary of things too cerebral, he aims his humor at the funnybone as well as the brain. He feels that the bones, being made of a harder substance, are more sound than the brain, therefore less prone to damage by the violent hysteria—or the psychoneurotic disorder characterized by violent emotional outbreaks, which will bring on a state of preversion in the sensory, and motor-malfunctions of various morbid effects due to his enormous talent for autosuggestions.

On side two of this recording, Jimmy takes a primal look into that moviematical marvel (oh how I do go on) television, and those health halting obstacles...giarettes. For a man who alleges that he doesn't smoke, he sure knows a lot about the happiness that can be derived from taking a long, long, drag and a deep deep inhalation of a real GOOD smoke.

In the bit entitled "Dreams", here again we see the "Intrepid Mind" at work. In that he dreams that he is a combination of all the TV networks... and the local channels as well, and the story that unfolds is something to behold.

Jimmy is considered a real "treat" by all who have had the opportunity to see and hear him. Magnificiently hilarious, and an eloquent speaker, he's a comedian you simply CAN'T afford to miss! And believe me, I consider it an honor that he chose me to write these linear notes.

As I was trying to say in the very beginning of this discourse, until my mind had a malfunction...why don't You, Pick up your phone and "CALL PREZ...COLLECT".

GEORGE NORWOOD,
Comedy Writer

Here is what just a few of the IN people have to say about Jimmy Pelham.

"...JIMMY PELHAM THINKS THAT HE IS THE GREATEST OF ALL THE YOUNG COMICS. HE IS GROSSLY OVER PRICED AND DOESN'T FOR ONE MOMENT BELIEVE THAT ANY OPINION CONCERNING HIS PERFORMANCE COUNTS EXCEPT HIS. William E. Bailey

THE VOICE OF BUSINESS FOR THE 70's

"The truth is incontrovertible—malice may attack it and ignorance may deride it, but in the end—there it is!"

—Winston Churchill

William E. Bailey
Founder, President and Chairman of the Board
Beatline Products, Inc.

THE VOICE OF BUSINESS FOR THE 70'S

William E. Bailey is an astonishing man who built a nation-wide company, plus a personal profit of $6,000,000 in just three years. Here he tells you—factually and irrevocably—how you can do it too! His is the voice of business in the 70's.

THE MEASURE OF A MAN . . .

The measure of a man . . .
is the ability to grasp an opportunity
and mold it to his ideals and benefit.

He must mold it in the manner which will be an enduring testimonial to his having lived and contributed his fair share to the world.

WILLIAM E. BAILEY . . .

William E. Bailey, Founder, President and Chairman of Board, Bestline Products, Inc.
spells it out for you . . .
he tells you how it is—
AND HOW IT CAN BE!

A personification of Horatio Alger's rags-to-riches,
'Bill' Bailey reminisces on some of his obstacles
and his final achievements.

Truly he is most qualified to say . . .
"Stand up and be counted—among the millionaires."

You've never really been aware of yourself . . .
or your capabilities, until you've heard Bill Bailey's voice saying:
"Why should you be stuck with 1930 incomes—in 1970?"

* * *

"Nothing can resist a human will!"

* * *

"I suggest we write history, as well as read it!"

* * *

"People are the most wonderful things in the world."

* * *

"A business has every right and should expect to accept the responsibility of improving the way it operates, as much as a scientist should expect and should accept the responsibility of improving his mathematical progress . . ."

* * *

"There is another life—but this one will not be repeated."

Bestline Products, Inc., was founded by William E. Bailey in October 1966, when he was still under 40 years of age.

THE WORLD IS RATED X

"THE WORLD IS RATED X"

(Marilyn McLeod, Mel Bolton,
Robert L. Gordy, Sr., Ezra Bolton)

The world's situation should be rated X
Rated X
The world's situation should be rated X
Rated X

Listen people
Not only in the movie show
Take a look outside
It's where the truth is really told
It's live in living color
Fighting, killing, and dope dealing
It's everywhere

What about the crime? Rated X
What about the killing, fighting,
stealing, everywhere?
They let the children see life destroyed
But they won't let them see it's making
What happened to God's creation?

Na, Na, Na, Na, Na, Na, Na, Na, Na, Na
Baby something's missing all over the world
It's alright, it's okay

Ooh, you and me, baby
Can withstand all the sin and corruption
In this land
'Cause we got love, we got peace
If we could only spread it all over
the world

Then, the world's situation won't be rated X, rated X
Do you hear me?
We'll have peace
We'll have love
We'll have happiness and joy
It'll be oh so sweet
And then we can share in the master plan
We can walk together
Side by side
Hand in hand
Oh, love is thin, rated X
We all know hate is overweight, rated X

(Instrumental Break)

Where's the love?
Where's the peace?
Where's the joy?
Where's the hope for us all?
God is watching, He knows where you're at Yes, He's watching the situation,
that's a fact
The world's situation should be rated X

We'll have peace
We'll have love
We'll have happiness and joy
It'll be oh so sweet
And then we can share in the master plan
We can walk together
Side by side
Hand in hand
Oh, love is thin, rated X
We all know hate is overweight, rated X

Where's the love?
Where's the peace?
Where's the joy?
Where's the hope for us all?
God is watching, He knows where you're at
Yes, He's watching the situation,
that's a fact
The world's situation should be rated X

ROMANCE DE LA LUNA

La luna vino a la fragua
con su polison de nardos,
el niño la mira mira,
el niño la esta mirando.

En el aire conmovido
mueve la luna sus brazos
y enseña lubrica y pura
sus senos de duro estaño.

Huye luna, luna luna,
si vinieran los gitanos
harian con tu corazon
collares y anillos blancos.

Niño, dejame que baile,
cuando vengan los gitanos
te encontraran sobre el yunque
con los ojillos cerrados.

Huye luna, luna luna,
que ya siento sus caballos.
Niño, dejame, no pises
mi blancor almidonado.

El jinete se acercaba
tocando el tambor del llano,
dentro de la fragua, el niño
tiene los ojos cerrados.

Por el olivar venian
bronce y sueno los gitanos,
Las cabezas levantadas
y los ojos entornados.

Como canta la sumaya,
ay, como canta el el arbol.
Por el cielo va la luna
con un niño de la mano.

Dentro de la fragua lloran
dando gritos los gitanos,
el aire la vela vela,
el aire la esta velando

****

PRECIOSA Y EL AIRE

Su luna de pergamino
Preciosa tocando viene
por un anfibio sendero
de cristales y laureles.

El silencio sin estrellas
huyendo del sonsonete,
cae donde el mar bate y canta
su noche llena de peces.

En los picos de la sierra
los carabineros duermen
guardando las blancas torres
donde viven los ingleses,
y los gitanos del agua
levantan por distraerse
glorietas de caracoles
y ramas de pino verde.

Su luna de pergamino
Preciosa tocando viene,
al verla se ha levantado
el viento que nunca duerme.
San Critobalon desnudo,
lleno de lenguas celestes,
mira la niña tocando
una dulce gaita ausente.

Niña, deja que levante
tu vestido para verte,
abre en mis dedos antiguos
la rosa azul de tu vientre.

(continua)
LA SANGRE DERRAMADA

Oh blanco muro de España
oh negro toro de pena
oh sangre dura de Ignacio
oh ruiseñor de sus venas.

No, que no quiero verla
que no hay caliz que
la contenga,
que no hay golondrinas
que se la beban,
que no hay escarcha de
luz que enfrie,
no hay canto ni diluvio
de azucenas,
no hay cristal que la
cubra de plata.
No, que no quiero verla.

JAKKO

Michael Jaksyzk,also known as Jakko,is a 24 year old singer,guitarist,writer.

His first band,'Soon After',played their way to the semi finals of the 1975 Melody Maker Rock/Folk competition.

Soon after 'Soon After' he formed the enigmatic'64 Spoons',a sort of jazz rock Bonzo Dog.

Their only vinyl legacy was one E.P. which is now nearly impossible to get.

More recently he has played guitar with Dave Stewart's 'Rapid Eye Movement'

This led to his involvement on Dave's first chart success ,'What Becomes Of The Broken Hearted' ,and his debut album.

Assisting Jakko on many of these projects has been John Clarke on drums/ percussion and trumpet player extraordin(h)air Ted Emmet,currently resident with the Teardrop Explodes.

Besides these two Jakko utilises two other musicians on his own debut L.P. 'Silesia'; these are Annie Whitehead on Trombone and Dave Jackson(late of the late Van Der Graaf Generator)on Saxophones.

Anyone interested in the Canterbury scene,Henry Cow,Van Der Graaf,Fripp etc should find something for them in Jakko's efficient pop stylings.

WAY, WAY BACK IN THE DARK, DARK DAYS

WHERE AM I

I STILL BELIEVE

IF I'M A FOOL

I'VE GOT NEWS

TONIGHT'S OUR NIGHT

They said it couldn't be done, but there were three guys who didn't know it and so they did it!

TWELVE wonderful ORIGINAL SONGS composed in collaboration with other song writers to bring you a fascinating album, full of rhythm — Danceable — and for those who prefer to relax — so very listenable.

The DO-RAY-ME TRIO was first formed in 1948 and the present Trio have been together since 1951.
The group consists of

AL RUSSELL

The last of four musical brothers. Was born in Columbia, South Carolina and went to Booker T. Washington High and played in the High School Band during the last two years before Graduation. Joined Brother Snookum Russell's Band after Graduation and The Al Russell Trio in 1943 and played in California from 1943 to 1946. Migrated to Philadelphia in 1946 and worked for a Night Club chain until the formation of THE DO-RAY-ME TRIO. Al plays piano and is also a fine vocalist.

ENGINEER — PAUL MONGEAU

BUDDY HAWKINS

Vocalist and Drummer.

Product of a singing family who started his career in a quartette organized by his Dad.

Later he attended the Granoff School of Music where he studied voice.

Headed his own group the Keynotes from 1948 to 1951 when he became a partner in the Do-Ray-Me Trio.

Enjoys his work as vocalist, timekeeper and business representative for the Group.

AL MOORE

Ex Piano and Vibe man.

Acquired early training during his grammar school years. Later organized local bands and small groups in and around Philadelphia until 1951.

Joined Louis Armstrong in 1943 and played with him during the war years. Returned to Philadelphia and in 1951 Joined the Trio. Now plays Bass and assists in Vocals.

GALAXY GROOVE

SIDE ONE

CHILD IN THE SUNBURST PYRAMID

67 DREAMS

there is a place filled with every strange delight
where flurdy-gurdies play.
flowers bloom at night!
67 dreams a-vying wine the end of time
gravity's all nonsense now

67 dream u r my valentine no girl comparies to the goddess in my mind
sweet dream you r my queen,
u r obscene
when we lay in the big block piece...
outer space

OCEANS OF GREEN BUZZING RIVER MACHINES
JUST A KING AND HIS QUEEN
A DREAM IS NO DREAM TO THE DREAMER

YELLOW SUN MELTED
IN A BUTTER OF VELVET...TODAY

to many dreams r they real or fantasy?
well outlived if doesn't matter much to me.
a pretty pillow for my head...a poppy bed
sunshine on a rainy day

CYCLOPS (DEDICATED TO THE ONE EYE LOVE)

now it u see the Cyclops on the side of the road
don't u ever look...in her eye!

it u ever look...bounce die!
she'll mesmerize. with that one great eye she'll take u 2 her castle
where the vision revealed she's a modern artist
paints her face to unreal... like Salvador Dali...telling

now it u meet the sun story trapped in the temple
with a little girl...don't be intrigued she turned a Botticelli's Venus.
more madman than genius lord how they hypnotize

we blow our one way ticket on a mystery ride
with a head heavy-delic.
pleasuring electric from the sunshine suicide

this song's dedicated 2 the one-eye love
2 the I eye!

LA CREATURE D'AMOUR

it's getting near down
when dirty creature come alive they're given the urge to spoil and pluntge
take the honey from the hive won't u. won't u

pick up the phone
i know that you're home don't u. don't u
look all your door
just give me some more

all the monster need a little monster to love...
i need one too!
in the dark

baby. baby tell me you're mine
monster valentine
maybe. maybe
after a kiss or 2...
oh yeah

u can run. u can run
but u know u can't get away
it've got a gun. filled with fun
i've got it pointed your way to come on. u know just killing here in such a bore your position slower in midnight hour
your the mixture of love
me. i'm in ecstatic d'amour
in the dark!

PHARMACEUTICAL RAINBOWS

light my candles of night flickering bright shadows up on my wall
drowning to fall
i hear them...call

everybody's walking the earth with broken heart
when's love gonna come around?
stranded in a block forgotten universe
when's love gonna come around?

staring up at the sky
the beautiful sky
forever and more blue refining-god's eye
before i was born and after i die

oh. don't want to stay here
i'll blow myself away
2 much pain here
i'll blow myself away

rainbows r forming up in the sky!
people r laughing now
they know it's alright to cry

SIDE TWO

SPIRAL MARILYN

why r we here?
disconnected from the start...
the picture from the X-ray television. shows life on mars

and why r u there
all alone. instead of in her arms?
spinal arm

they're waving to him
keep u to for from harm to for from harm
everybody come on the blew open my brain with a kiss

then stranded we one final wish!
all flower blooming come-on come-on super 8 machine and a cellulaid queen
come-on come-on
in the camera eye
it don't ever lie
come-on come-on
a natural born lover
and the camera in to mouth colors (oh to mouth colors)
you'll be immortalized
on a silver-screen parodize
i 5 minuter to forever be my star!
i'll be your Marbol
and we'll be joined together in one fantasie. sweet champagne bliss mother* #king kix forever

EL SENZO

THE CANDLE 4:05
(Scott Fraser)

I saw it, I felt it
The weight of giving over
I fought it, I won it
The hole was never closed up

I didn't feel like such a fool
I didn't
Believe it, the dreaming
The swirling never ended
The armies of angels
Were called in much too lately

I didn't feel so all alone
I kept a candle for the son
I didn't feel so all alone
I lit a candle for him

I thought of, I cried for
The thought of saints in armor
The staining of scabbards
The claret rose of valor

I didn't feel like such a fool
I didn't
Believe it, the lying
The tongues of fools in glory
Their freedom was taken
Their pride amounts to nothing

I didn't feel so all alone
I kept a candle for the son
I didn't feel so all alone
I lit a candle for him

The candle is burning
The candle burns so brightly
The candle is burning
The candle burns so brightly

I didn't feel so all alone
I kept a candle for the son
I didn't feel so all alone
I lit a candle for him

Biography -

Hywel Dunn-Davies

(aka H-Bomb, Souldriver, Chaos Theory, Mainline, Future Sound Collective, Peruvian Marching Band and Convergence)

Sussex born Hywel Dunn-Davies is a very modest, down to earth and amazingly talented Oxford graduate who is set to become the hottest producer on the progressive house scene this year. Hywel has been working in his studio since the young age of 15 - then producing mostly drum & bass tracks but slowly moved accoss to the house scene. In the mid 90's he was signed to Bullion Records under the name DJ Stealth producing funky cut up disco (very Sneak), and also recorded for "Kickin records" in it's early days. From this he had the opportunity to sign to Loaded, however decided to concentrate on his studies. His range of production is unlimited - from abstract hip-hop to the deepest funkiest progreesive house. To say the least, his talent is amazing for someone so young.

Hywel was again noticed (along with fellow Oxford grad James Holden and label and production partner Duncan Ellis) under the name Mainline with their huge success on the highly acclaimed Bedrock label. Hywel has since gone from strength to strength with remixes for Platipus, tunes released on Spundaes (under the name Chaos Theory), Rotunda (under the name Souldriver), Yoshitoshi (Souldriver) and Silver Planet. In the summer of 1999 he set up his own imprint Midset recordings - formerly "Slide recordings" - with his partner Duncan Ellis. The first release sees Hywel as H-Bomb, another guise. It's a superb 2tracker, Groove Attack (A side) (already featured on Nick Warren's latest Global Underground), is an ultra cool Circulation-esque deep progressive cut - already a proven anthem on dancefloors such as Fabric, Bedrock, Bomb. Inspiration (AA) is yet again a future progressive house anthem. Shifting in all the right places this is a relentless track; perfect kicks, perfect pads and a killer bassline. This track carries class without mistakenly sounding like yet another boring prog house track At the time of writing it's already done 2,500 on the pre-sales.

Hywel records under a number of guises, all styles representing his broad but progressive nature - he sets his own standards. Acetate support has come from the likes of Deep Dish, Danny Tenaglia, Sasha and James Holden to name but a few.

Hywel has recently returned from an American tour where he and partner Duncan Ellis were playing at Spundae's, San Francisco and The Crystal Rooms in LA - and tore it up.

MIDSET RECORDINGS -

Midset recordings deserve more than just a mention. If we're talking up and coming talent, these guys are the ones to watch out for.

Midset (formerly Slide recordings) was set up in the summer of 1999 by pioneer Duncan Ellis and Hywel Dunn-Davies aka Soul Driver and fellow Oxford graduate to the notorious James Holden (who we should all know by now - Horizons? Bedrock? Yes that's the one). Together the pair produced sexy and deep progressive house, and having initially met on campus, Hywel introduced James to the label and consequently the trio spent many a dark night in their rather modest studio in a room at St.John's College, Oxford. While the other Oxford students were running riot at the local Union, streaking through hallways and partaking in "the usual" student debauchery, the Midset boys spent night after night creating a unique and addictive progressive house sound which has been picked up by the likes of Timo Maas, Sasha, Digweed and Deep Dish, to name but a few.

Of course, this is not to say that these guys don't ever take a break from their busy schedule to enjoy themselves - to his embarrassment and to the others' entertainment, James was recently escorted out of Turnmills for being smoked under the table by the legendary Timo Maas, something her prefers to keep under wraps quite understanderbly.....

Narcotic/Innerspace, the trio's first major success under the name Mainline, received tremendous attention and made its way onto the most recent Sasha and Digweed album "Communicate" and also the latest Bedrock album, “Foundations”.

Now, having silently created numerous awesome tracks and done well over 2,500 copies on the pre-sales, Midset finally crashed into the scene at the end of last month. The first release is called Groove Attack/Inspiration (artist "H-bomb" - that's Hywel - and that's How-el by the way) and wait for it - yes, unsurprisingly it's already featured on Nick Warren's latest Global Underground album, out last December. In fact, even Circulation's new "Sub-Tech" label also tried to snap this one up.

So you're probably thinking their prospects couldn't look any brighter for a label on its first release. Well ladies and gentlemen, that's where you're wrong. As if I couldn't name drop any more, Mr P tong has even had his two-pennies worth. he tipped their amazing "Ethnic dub" and "Darknoise" (which they released in December on Rotunda) as the tune of December. It can also be found on the latest of the Global Underground collection- Nick Warren in Amsterdam.

More? Deep Dish have been playing entire sets of the boys' material. Last year at Pacha in Jerusalem they played over an hours worth of Midset stuff to a crowd of thousands, including the soon-to-be massive "So Good" which Yoshitoshi have recently signed for a US release. This, as you may have guessed from the title, cleverly disguises "that" vocal from Loletta Hollaway's classic Sweet Sensation and is also a personal favourite.

Aside from Hywel and Duncan, expect to hear from Gwill Morris (aka Main Element and one half of Ogenki Clinic)- another promising artist whose latest track "Fuktitles" (Midset's second release) has been destroying dance floors from Fabric to The Bomb - a slightly slower, sexier, drugged-out trippy groover with a harder Mainline mix on the flip - due out this month.

Jerry Bonham, one of USA's leading progressive house DJ's and resident at Spundae's, invited the Midset duo over to join in his birthday celebrations at the end of January. One half the boss and unrivalled DJ Duncan Ellis rocked the floors aside Hywel (the most modest and probably the nicest man in the industry) and went on to tear it up at the Crystal rooms in Beverly Hills. Together they promoted Hywel's latest masterpiece, "Another dimension/Abstraction" (under the name Chaos Theory) which was released on Spundae recordings at the end of January.

Midset have a heavy release schedule for 2001 and if that's not enough, get your dancing feet down to their exclusive new night "Rhum Boogie" which runs fortnightly (second and last) and certainly takes the piss out of any other Oxford haunt. Duncan Ellis - "The aim of Rhum Boogie is to provide quality underground music in an intimate venue with a friendly relaxed atmosphere. Somewhere people can really get down and boogie the night away with no inhibitions. This is not a money making venture but a conserted effort to put on the best party possible for the most important people in the music industry - the clubbers and music lovers". Holding the fort along with Duncan will be Kava of Advance records, Steve Williams of Audio Science clothing and, the Hugh Grant of the progressive house world, Nev Scott.

Midset Artist Management, in conjunction with Midset recordings, was set up recently to look after the many label guises and is being run by partner of Duncan Ellis and talented DJ, Laura Martin. Contact 07788 952382 for details.

THE INTREPID MIND OF JIMMY PELHAM

JIMMY PELHAM, A comedian of rare talent, engages in a refreshingly dynamic and lofty brand of humor. He speaks articulately, blending to perfection the mellow tones of a southern accent and the rough vernacular of western culture.

JIMMY PELHAM is a member of the human race...however... after you have listened to the pique (ings) on this record...you may ask yourself WHY, he has been permitted to remain at this level of the evolution ...he just laughs and says "Man, after life what else is there"?

Now notice the phrasing in his colloquy with PREZ...and you will see why the question in the first or rather second paragraph was raised... because it would take a keen mind, characterized by a most indicative proceeding of mental alertness, in order for him to take the most common forms of everyday life and involvements and to fabricate them to a point of complete stupefaction.

Then notice the song "Stay by me", it speaks very favorably of some of our more astute southern politicians, and their unending pursuit of happiness and liberty, and their willingness to fight in order to take it away from us.

Jimmy is well prepared for his art...having received his masters degree from New York University...and you may wonder why his master didn't keep it...His material carries some racial overtones I should say, undertones, but is happily devoid of homilies. He says "the main thing that I am after is laughts, (belly busters he calls them) but if I am able to leave you with something to think of; so much the better".

In the words of Jimmy "My life has been sideways, first; retirement, second; successful retirement, then happy unemployment, third; success, (I made a four the hard way) and now I am making an honest living, dishonestly".

Always wary of things too cerebral, he aims his humor at the funnybone as well as the brain. He feels that the bones, being made of a harder substance, are more sound than the brain, therefore less prone to damage by the violent hysteria—or the psychoneurotic disorder characterized by violent emotional outbreaks, which will bring on a state of preversion in the sensory, and motor-malfunctions of various morbid effects due to his enormous talent for autosuggestions.

On side two of this recording, Jimmy takes a primal look into that moviematical marvel (oh how I do go on) television, and those health halting obstacles...giarettes. For a man who alleges that he doesn't smoke, he sure knows a lot about the happiness that can be derived from taking a long, long, drag and a deep deep inhalation of a real GOOD smoke.

In the bit entitled "Dreams", here again we see the "Intrepid Mind" at work. In that he dreams that he is a combination of all the TV networks... and the local channels as well, and the story that unfolds is something to behold.

Jimmy is considered a real "treat" by all who have had the opportunity to see and hear him. Magnificiently hilarious, and an eloquent speaker, he's a comedian you simply CAN'T afford to miss! And believe me, I consider it an honor that he chose me to write these linear notes.

As I was trying to say in the very beginning of this discourse, until my mind had a malfunction...why don't You, Pick up your phone and "CALL PREZ...COLLECT".

William E. Bailey

THE VOICE OF BUSINESS FOR THE 70's

"The truth is incontrovertible—malice may attack it and ignorance may deride it, but in the end—there it is!"

—Winston Churchill

William E. Bailey

Bestline Products, Inc.

THE VOICE OF BUSINESS FOR THE 70'S

William E. Bailey is an astonishing man who built a nation-wide company, plus a personal profit of $6,000,000 in just three years. Here he tells you—factually and irrevocably—how you can do it too! His is the voice of business in the 70's.

THE MEASURE OF A MAN . . .

The measure of a man . . .
is the ability to grasp an opportunity
and mold it to his ideals and benefit.

He must mold it in the manner which will be an enduring testimonial to his having lived and contributed his fair share to the world.

WILLIAM E. BAILEY . . .

William E. Bailey, Founder, President and Chairman of Board, Bestline Products, Inc.
spells it out for you . . .
he tells you how it is—
AND HOW IT CAN BE!

A personification of Horatio Alger's rags-to-riches,
'Bill' Bailey reminisces on some of his obstacles
and his final achievements.

Truly he is most qualified to say . . .
"Stand up and be counted—among the millionaires."

You've never really been aware of yourself . . .
or your capabilities, until you've heard Bill Bailey's voice saying:
"Why should you be stuck with 1930 incomes—in 1970?"

* * *

"Nothing can resist a human will!"

* * *

"I suggest we write history, as well as read it!"

* * *

"People are the most wonderful things in the world."

* * *

"A business has every right and should expect to accept the responsibility of improving the way it operates, as much as a scientist should expect and should accept the responsibility of improving his mathematical progress . . ."

* * *

"There is another life—but this one will not be repeated."

"THE WORLD IS RATED X"

(Marilyn McLeod, Mel Bolton,
Robert L. Gordy, Sr., Ezra Bolton)

The world's situation should be rated X
Rated X
The world's situation should be rated X
Rated X

Listen people
Not only in the movie show
Take a look outside
It's where the truth is really told
It's live in living color
Fighting, killing, and dope dealing
It's everywhere

What about the crime? Rated X
What about the killing, fighting,
stealing, everywhere?
They let the children see life destroyed
But they won't let them see it's making
What happened to God's creation?

Na, Na, Na, Na, Na, Na, Na, Na, Na, Na
Baby something's missing all over
the world
It's alright, it's okay

Ooh, you and me, baby
Can withstand all the sin and corruption
In this land
'Cause we got love, we got peace
If we could only spread it all over
the world

Then, the world's situation won't be rated X, rated X
Do you hear me?
We'll have peace
We'll have love
We'll have happiness and joy
It'll be oh so sweet
And then we can share in the master plan
We can walk together
Side by side
Hand in hand
Oh, love is thin, rated X
We all know hate is overweight, rated X

(Instrumental Break)

Where's the love?
Where's the peace?
Where's the joy?
Where's the hope for us all?
God is watching, He knows where you're at
Yes, He's watching the situation,
that's a fact
The world's situation should be rated X

We'll have peace
We'll have love
We'll have happiness and joy
It'll be oh so sweet
And then we can share in the master plan
We can walk together
Side by side
Hand in hand
Oh, love is thin, rated X
We all know hate is overweight, rated X

Where's the love?
Where's the peace?
Where's the joy?
Where's the hope for us all?
God is watching, He knows where you're at
Yes, He's watching the situation,
that's a fact
The world's situation should be rated X

SET SMC-517, THE MUSIC OF FERNANDO SOR" (A Guitar Recital) Volume 2

Fernando Sor (1778-1839), often called the Beethoven of the guitar, left a wealth of material for the guitar, and among his best works, a collection of 20 etudes, were especially selected by Andres Segovia, as most interesting and of greatest educational value. From these 20 etudes, Rey De La Torre, world famous concert guitarist, plays 13 etudes, in the same order as edited by Andres Segovia. The etudes are: No. 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 8, 9, 10, 11, 13, 14, 16 and 20 . . .

SET SMC-518, "CANCIONERO INCAICO"

The music of Bolivia, Ecuador and Peru, is the music of the Incas. It is deeply religious and ceremonial, and utterly unaffected by any outside influence. In "CANCIONERO INCAICO", Los Incaicos, a native group of singers accompanied by guitars and featuring the "rondador", an instrument designed for polyphonic uses and built to produce two tones at a time, is heard in a group of traditional songs: From Bolivia, "Siguay", (Huaino) and "La Presumida", (Bailecito), From Ecuador, "En Brujas No Hay Creer", (Cachulliapi), "Ausencia", (San Juanito), "Chagrita", (San Juanito) and Puñales, (Yaravi). From Peru, "El Condor Pasa", (Yaravi) and "Arpita", (Cachulliapi). . . .

SET SMC-100, "CONCERTO FOR PERCUSSION" by Jose Estevez

Nearly 20 minutes of uninterrupted playing, allows for the first time the recorded presentation of a Rumba Concert, divided into two parts, Rumba and Mambo. The orchestra of Julio Andino, under the direction of Jose Estevez, its pianist-arranger, is heard in an instrumental session of basic Rumba distinctively showing the infiltration of American jazz producing the new and exciting rhythm of Mambo.

ROMANCE DE LA LUNA

La luna vino a la fragua
con su polison de nardos,
el niño la mira mira,
el niño la esta mirando.

En el aire conmovido
mueve la luna sus brazos
y enseña lubrica y pura
sus senos de duro estaño.

Huye luna, luna luna,
si vinieran los gitanos
harian con tu corazon
collares y anillos blancos.

Niño, dejame que baile,
cuando vengan los gitanos
te encontraran sobre el yunque
con los ojillos cerrados.

Huye luna, luna luna,
que ya siento sus caballos.
Niño, dejame, no pises
mi blancor almidonado.

El jinete se acercaba
tocando el tambor del llano,
dentro de la fragua, el niño
tiene los ojos cerrados.

Por el olivar venian
bronce y sueno los gitanos,
Las cabezas levantadas
y los ojos entornados.

Como canta la sumaya,
ay, como canta el el arbol.
Por el cielo va la luna
con un niño de la mano.

Dentro de la fragua lloran
dando gritos los gitanos,
el aire la vela vela,
el aire la esta velando

****

PRECIOSA Y EL AIRE

Su luna de pergamino
Preciosa tocando viene
por un anfibio sendero
de cristales y laureles.

El silencio sin estrellas
huyendo del sonsonete,
cae donde el mar bate y canta
su noche llena de peces.

En los picos de la sierra
los carabineros duermen
guardando las blancas torres
donde viven los ingleses,
y los gitanos del agua
levantan por distraerse
glorietas de caracoles
y ramas de pino verde.

Su luna de pergamino
Preciosa tocando viene,
al verla se ha levantado
el viento que nunca duerme.
San Critobalon desnudo,
lleno de lenguas celestes,
mira la niña tocando
una dulce gaita ausente.

Niña, deja que levante
tu vestido para verte,
abre en mis dedos antiguos
la rosa azul de tu vientre.

(continua)
LA SANGRE DERRAMADA

Oh blanco muro de España
oh negro toro de pena
oh sangre dura de Ignacio
oh ruiseñor de sus venas.

No, que no quiero verla
que no hay caliz que
la contenga,
que no hay golondrinas
que se la beban,
que no hay escarcha de
luz que enfrie,
no hay canto ni diluvio
de azucenas,
no hay cristal que la
cubra de plata.
No, que no quiero verla.

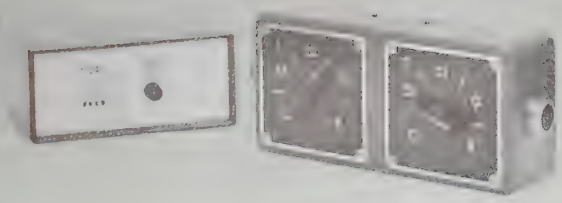
AKG C-24 stereo condenser microphone system

C-24



DESCRIPTION

The C-24 was specially designed for intensity stereo recording techniques in the XY or MS mode. Two twin-diaphragm condenser microphone capsules are mounted within the microphone body, with a spacing of only 1½", making any difference in time between the two outputs negligible. The upper microphone system may be rotated 180° to provide any offset angle desired. Nine different directional patterns can be remotely selected for each of the two twin-diaphragm capsules. These patterns are identical as to their phase relationship and sensitivity and maintain their polar characteristics independent of frequency. The patterns are a/omni – directional, b/ cardioid and c/ figure-eight, plus 6 intermediary positions.

The stand connector is designed to facilitate rapid and accurate change-over from MS to XY stereo recording technique. A window indicates the symbol MS and upon rotating the stand connector by 45° counter-clockwise the symbol XY indicates the correct XY position.

The C-24 system consists of microphone preamplifier with two twin-diaphragm capsules, S-24 dual remote control pattern selector, N-24 a.c. power supply, MK-24/20 cable for connecting microphone and power supply, RL-24/10 cable to connect power supply with pattern selector plus NF-24 audio cable. The unit is being delivered with individual response curves for both capsules, recorded in the three basic patterns.

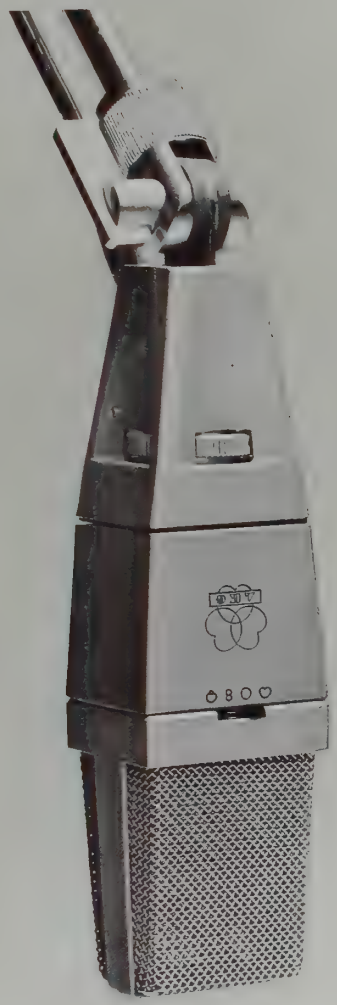
AKG C-414 condenser microphone system



C-414

DESCRIPTION

The AKG C-414 is a professional studio condenser microphone designed to meet the highest requirements in any recording application.

The microphone incorporates a 1" twin-diaphragm condenser microphone capsule which permits selection of polar patterns by means of a switch located on the microphone body.

The C-414 permits selection of four directional patterns:

1) Omni-directional
2) Cardioid
3) Hyper-cardioid
4) Figure-eight

The microphone preamplifier is also equipped with an output attenuation switch (-10dB).

In addition to the F.E.T. preamplifier the unit also incorporates a d.c. converter which provides the polarizing voltage for the twin—diaphragm capsule.

The microphone preamplifier may be powered via a phantom circuit directly off the input equipment's (console, tape recorder, etc.) amplifier B + supply (See Page 7 for complete details on powering techniques). Separate power supplies, such as the AKG N-46E or N-6E a.c. power supplies and the B-46E d.c. battery power supply, are also available.

The powering technique of the C-414 is identical to that of the C-451E.

The C-414 is being delivered with MK-17/20 anti-shock stand adapter with 66' of cable and XLR-type connector.

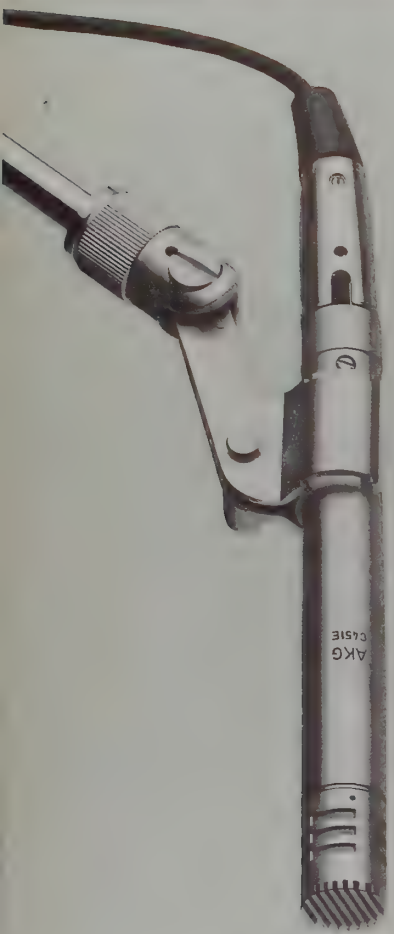
AKG C-451E modular condenser microphone system



C-451E
Combination

DESCRIPTION

The AKG C-451E Condenser Microphone Modular System (CMS) represents the most unique, practical and economical approach in keeping pace with current ever-changing requirements encountered in the Recording, Broadcast, Motion Picture and Sound Reinforcement Industries.

The CMS is based on the C-451E preamplifier, using audio frequency circuitry with Field Effect Transistors. A choice of high quality, matched condenser microphone capsules, each with a different type of response characteristic and pick-up pattern may be freely interchanged on the C-451E preamplifier (see following page).

A complete selection of components and accessories, such as attenuation pads, suspensions, windscreens, etc., further illustrates the broad flexibility of the CMS.

The C-451E preamplifier may be phantom powered directly off the B+ supply of the associated (mixing console, tape recorder, etc.) equipments amplifier (for details on phantom powering technique see opposite page). Separate power supplies, such as the N-46E or N-6E a.c. power supplies and B-46E d.c. battery power supply are also available.

powering technique

AKG C-414 and C-451E operate on voltage supplied by a phantom circuit. Standard low impedance, balanced microphone input receptacles are easily modified to simplex both operating voltage and audio output signal.

This unique powering feature offers several advantages in reduced cost and ease of condenser microphone operation.

1 Special, external power supplies and separate multiconductor cables formerly required with condenser microphones can be eliminated.

2 The B+ supply in associated recorders, audio consoles and commercial sound amplifiers can be used to directly power the C-414 and C-451E.

3 Dynamic, ribbon and condenser microphones can be used interchangeably on standard, low impedance, balanced microphone circuits.

4 Any recording, broadcast and commercial installation can be inexpensively upgraded to condenser microphone operation using existing, two-conductor microphone cables and electronics.

DIRECT AMPLIFIER POWERING

Phantom circuit use of C-414 and C-451 requires only that the microphone operating voltage be applied equally to pins #2 and #3 of the amplifier low impedance input receptacle. Pin #1 remains ground and circuit minus. The polarity of standard microphone cable wiring is not important except for the usual audio phasing requirement.

Dynamic, ribbon, and self-powered condenser microphones may be connected to the modified amplifier input without defeating the C-414 and C-451E operating voltage. Two equally effective methods of amplifier powering can be used.

1 Connect an amplifier B+ supply of 7.5 to 12 volts directly to the ungrounded center tap of the microphone input transformer. See DIAGRAM 1. A series dropping resistor is required for above 12 and up to 52 volts. See RESISTOR VALUE CHART 3. With a typical 24 volt B+ supply use a 4700 ohm 5% tolerance resistor for minimum current consumption.

2 A two-resistor, artificial center powering circuit is required when the microphone input transformer is not center-tapped, or input attenuation networks are used across the input transformer primary.

Connect a B+ supply of 7.5 to 12 volts directly to the artificial center of two 332 ohm, 1% tolerance percision resistors. Input transformer center tap is not grounded. See DIAGRAM 2 and RESISTOR VALUE CHART 3 for above 12 and up to 52 volts. Double chart resistor value. With a typical 24 volt B+ supply use two 9310 ohm precision resistors for minimum current consumption.

Any number of units may be powered by either method from a single B+ source according to the current available. Use of the largest resistor value shown (Rv max.) for various voltages in CHART 3 is recommended for minimum current consumption (J. min.). Current consumption (J min. to J max.) is shown in CHART 4.

When minimum current consumption is not a consideration note that an intermediate series resistor value will permit operating units from a wider range of B+ supply voltage. For example: 1000 ohms resistor with 13 to 15 volts; 1500 ohms with 14 to 18 volts; 2200 ohms with 17 to 26 volts; 3300 ohms with 20 to 46 volts; 4700 ohms with 24 to 52 volts. Double these values for both precision resistors when using the artificial center tap method.

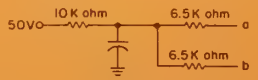
A-52 accessory IC powering module will conveniently modify any amplifier low impedance balanced input and will phantom feed one C-414 or C-451E.

A-52 module includes the two, 1% dropping resistors required for artificial center powering as in DIAGRAM 2. The input voltage lead connects to any amplifier B+ supply from 13 to 52 volts.

A-52 output leads are connected to pins #2 and #3 on the amplifier microphone input receptacle. Microphone transformer center tap is not grounded when using A-52.

One A-52 is required for each input modified to power C-414 or C-451E. Dynamic, ribbon and self-powered condenser microphones may be used interchangeably on inputs using A-52, as on all AKG phantom powering circuits.

In order to facilitate phantom feeding of AKG models C-414, C-451E and F.E.T. condenser microphones requiring 48v (+6v, −8v), a 50v tap is required and the following circuits should be employed:



The effective series resistance is 10 K ohm plus two 6.5 K ohm resistors in parallel, for a total of 13.25 K ohm. For microphones with a load current of 3 mA the voltage drop will be 39.75v, resulting in a microphone operating voltage of 10.25v, required for the AKG C-414 and C-451E.

For microphones with a load of 0.4 mA the voltage drop will be 5.3v, resulting in a microphone voltage of 44.7v, suitable to operate F.E.T. condenser microphones requiring 48v (+6v, −8v) operating voltage.

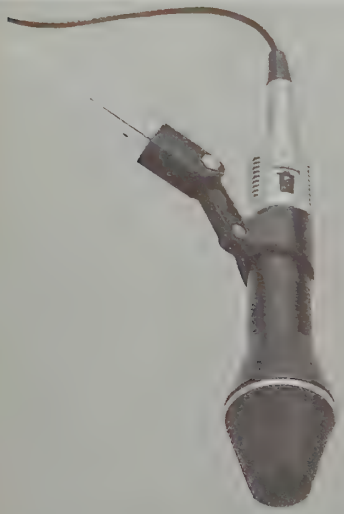
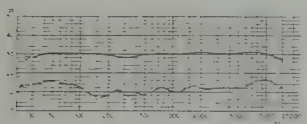
professional two-way cardioid dynamic microphones



D-202E



DESCRIPTION

The D-202E is the original cardioid dynamic microphone based on the two-way concept, described on the opposite page. Its frequency response is virtually flat and the 90° off-axis response approximately 4-6 dB lower in output, is parallel to the on-axis response, resulting in superb linear acceptance. The front-to-back discrimination is 20 dB over the entire range and offers maximum feedback cancellation. The unit is provided with two-step low frequency attenuation (—7 & —20 dB at 50 Hz). The D-202E is equipped with AKG's unique sintered bronze cap which functions as a windscreen and pop filter, is waterproof and protects the microphone system from iron particles and dust.

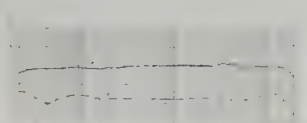
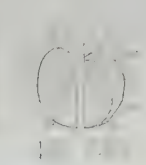
D-224E





DESCRIPTION

The D-224E is the studio version of the two-way cardioid dynamic microphones. In addition to all the features inherent in the two-way technique, the D-224E's noteworthy characteristic is its exceptionally wide and smooth frequency response, normally expected only from condenser microphones. Its linear acceptance, up to 90° off-axis, is of particular importance in recording applications since signals reaching the microphone off-axis will not be discriminated against. The low frequency response may be attenuated by an electrical, two position (—7 and —12 dB at 50 Hz) bass roll-off switch.

two-way concept

This AKG series of cardioid dynamic microphones is based on a new revolutionary concept — the two-way microphone system*, representing the most significant advancement in microphone development and audio engineering.

The communication field is growing at a rapid pace. Primarily the electro-acoustical engineer is concerned with transmitting a message, in our case a sound event, without deterioration and as faithfully as possible, including all its tangible and irrational components.

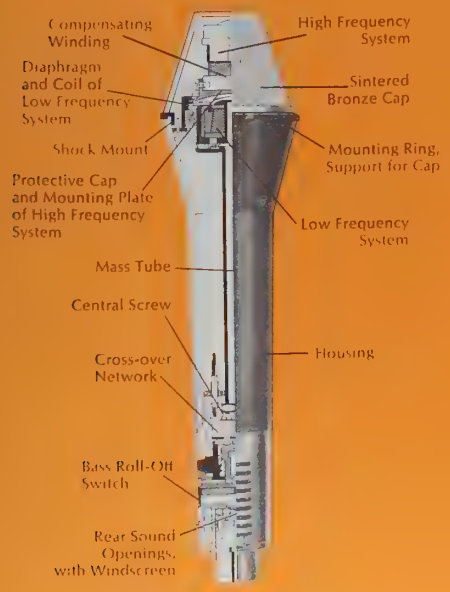
Usually acoustic message transmission begins with a microphone and ends with a loudspeaker. It is interesting to note that development engineers in the U.S. have concentrated primarily on loudspeaker improvement, whereas the microphone received greater attention in Europe. However, the first basic work on dynamic directional microphones was conducted in the U.S. and reported in 1933.

Because of its convenient and reliable operating characteristics, the dynamic microphone has found widespread applications in studio use – particularly in field work and public address installations. Compared to the condenser microphone its disadvantages have until now been considered to include its narrower frequency range, some irregularity in frequency response, lower sensitivity, susceptibility to magnetic stray fields and – especially in the case of directional microphones – directional characteristics that were not completely satisfactory and rather frequency-dependent.

Assisted by computer research findings it was found that it is not possible, even with complex acoustic networks, to significantly and concurrently increase frequency range, frequency response and uniform front-to-back discrimination of a cardioid dynamic microphone.

To aid in this research project, AKG's Research and Engineering Department developed an Analog-Computor (Simulator), unique in this field. The Simulator is capable of electronically imitating all acoustical-physical relations of electro-acoustical transducers.

A two-way cardioid dynamic microphone system evolved from this research. In a two-way microphone system, the total response range has been subdivided between a high frequency and a low frequency transducer, each of which is optimally adjusted to its specific range (similar to a two-way speaker system). The two systems are connected by means of a cross-over network with the cross-over frequency at 500 Hz.



This arrangement is depicted in the cross-section drawing shown at bottom of left column. The high frequency system is mounted on the protective cap of the low frequency system. The low frequency system is connected to a mass tube with apertures at the rear of the microphone. For maximum reduction of wind sensitivity at the rear sound openings, the aperture of the mass tube does not connect directly with the open air but instead leads to a chamber which communicates with the sound field via slotted openings covered with damping material.

The high frequency system is shock-mounted to reduce handling sensitivity and is provided with a compensating winding to eliminate the effects of magnetic stray fields.

The cross-over network is housed in the lower portion of the microphone. In the case of the D-202E and D-224, the output circuit of the microphone contains an electrical bass attenuator to permit a reduction in low frequencies.

This unique arrangement achieves a number of previously unobtainable performance characteristics for cardioid dynamic microphones:

Flat frequency response over the entire audible range. The low as well as the high frequency system is optimally adjusted to its specific frequency range and the cross-over point, at 500 Hz, is unnoticeable.

Linear off-axis response. Sound reaching the microphone 90° off-axis is reproduced naturally. No frequency discriminating characteristics, which commonly arise from dynamic microphones, are audible.

Uniform front-to-back discrimination. The two-way system maintains a front-to-back discrimination of at least 20 dB over its entire range, even in the critical low frequency and upper mid-range area. The polar pattern shows the directional characteristics of the microphone at 125 Hz, 1,000 Hz and 8,000 Hz as recorded with a polaroscope. For better graphic clarity, a different sound level was used for each pattern.

Proximity effect. A complete absence of proximity effect–the rise of low frequency response when microphone is used in close-up applications–is a distinguishing characteristic of the two-way system compared to other directional microphones.

These features offer several advantages in practical applications: The flat frequency response allows the most natural and faithful pick-up of the sound event for transmission during a recording application. In public address installations it permits control of feedback at any frequency.

The linear 90° off-axis response is of particular importance in recording applications whenever a number of microphones are used, since frequencies reaching the microphone ±90° off-axis (leakage from left or right of microphone, other instruments, etc.) are reproduced faithfully without discriminating characteristics. The same also applies to public address installations where a speaker may move to the left or right (off-axis) of the microphone.

Uniform front-to-back discrimination is of prime importance in public address installations since it virtually eliminates feedback and offers almost complete freedom in microphone and speaker placement. For instance, it was found that a gain of approximately 6 db could be achieved in a majority of sound systems. The exceptional front-to-back discrimination of this exclusive design offers better than average separation in recording applications.

D-124E

The D-124E is a studio recording microphone based on a small transducer of superb performance characteristics. Its small dimension and attractive, unobtrusive design fulfill the requirements of TV Broadcast and Public Address Systems engineers as well as those of professional performers.

The acoustical properties of the D-124E exceed those normally expected of cardioid dynamic microphones and it excells particularly in smoothness of response over a wide range, and a well maintained directional pattern at all frequencies. The unit is equipped with a recessed 10 dB bass attenuation switch to compensate for low frequency resonance or proximity effects.

D-900E

DESCRIPTION

In designing a highly directive (shot-gun) dynamic microphone, AKG combined the gradient and interference principles. The results, incorporated in the D-900E, are smooth on-axis response and an off-axis rejection which is maintained over the entire range, including the critical low frequencies. The D-900E is equipped with a two-position bass roll-off switch (—7 and —20 dB at 50 Hz) which permits use of the microphone in acoustically unfavorable environments and also eliminates the effects of low frequency boom rumble or wind noise.

The D-900E is slim in appearance and of light weight.

dynamic headphones and boom sets

K-2000

K-16TV

DESCRIPTION

Both are ultra lightweight headsets designed primarily for monitoring purposes. The K-16 is a dual headset while the K-2000 is a single headphone driver. Designed for use at home to listen to TV and Radio Broadcast without disturbing others, in schools, hospitals and various industrial application.

K-100

A stereo dynamic headphone combining AKG's traditional quality in high fidelity sound transmission with light-weight wearing comfort at an economic price. AKG's headphones are marked by high efficiency and permit universal impedance matching from 4 through 10,000 ohms.

K-150

Engineered to meet the requirements of the most critical music listener, the K-150 delivers extended bass, smooth mid-range and crisp uniform high end response while dispelling the theory that a truly fine headphone must be costly. The matchless K-150 stereo dynamic headphone is an expression of AKG's precision, craftsmanship and engineering excellence.

K-180

The most innovative development since the introduction of stereo dynamic headphones. By turning adjustment knobs the acoustic driver may be turned back and forth, thereby varying the auditory volume between ear entrance and driver. The driver in close proximity to the ear entrance will result in brilliant, presence sound. In the rearmost position the sound will be diffused, similar to concert hall sound characteristics. A truly unique experience.

K-108

An economically priced boom set combining the performance of the AKG K-100 headphone and D-58/D-558 noise-cancelling differential microphone. Designed for schools and industrial applications, the K-108 headphones are connected in series, with a low impedance dynamic microphone, wired unbalanced.

K-158

Both units are professional dynamic boom sets designed for use in Television and Radio Broadcast as well as various industrial applications. They are two-channel units, with separate leads to each headphone driver plus low impedance dynamic noise-cancelling microphone, connected balanced. The K-158/T-301 is equipped with transistor preamplifier for high (telephone) level output.

Studiomaster 8/4 Mixer

APPLICATIONS

- Studio 2&4 track
- Live P.A.
- Disco pre amplifier
- Keyboard mixer
- Hi-Fi pre amplifier

New from Studiomaster, a compact, comprehensive and highly innovative mixing desk with multiple uses. The 8/4 fits a standard 19" rack and has a distinctive wedge shape making it convenient to work with whether rack mounted or free standing. Size for size and feature for feature, it has no serious competitor.

Input is by professional XLR sockets or jack sockets. There is variable input gain plus a mic/Line switch to make the 8/4 compatible with just about any instrument, microphone, or audio equipment you might wish to use. Equalisation is parametric in the mid and bass ranges allowing you to select the exact frequency you wish to emphasise or curtail. There is a full 16dB cut-and-boost on treble, mid and bass ranges.

Special features include: four output sends per channel to position signals exactly within the four-track programme; phantom power for condenser microphones; one post fade and one switchable pre/post fade effects send on each channel; 'break jacks' on input channels for inserting extra effects; integral headphone amplifier to feed eight sets of 600 ohm 'phones or one set of eight ohm 'phones; and RIAA equalisation on the first four input channels for compatibility with magnetic cartridges.

The World's Most Versatile Compact Mixer

The Studiomaster 8/4 is a triumph of flexibility. This makes it ideal for the home studio. Today's home market demands professional specifications and the 8/4 is a true Studiomaster in this respect. It allows you to exploit the full creative potential of multi-tracking using sophisticated mixing, balancing, and effects patching techniques. It has monitoring from the individual channels or from the output groups, and use of the Pre Fade Monitor button enables the engineer to listen to any channel in isolation even when the mixer is actually recording

The 8/4 is also a useful PA mixer. It has advanced, reliable solid state circuitry and is ruggedly built. The equalisation system will cope with any acoustic environment and is ideal for many bands who now insist on studio features for stage equipment. The desk can also double as a sub-mixer for use with drums or other equipment. Just plug your kit mic's into the 8/4, feed the drum mix into the main mixer, and you free several channels of the main mixer for extra vocals or other sources.

Another role for the 8/4 is that of keyboard mixer. The flexibility of the inputs makes it ideal for use with multi-keyboard systems, either on stage or in a studio.

Finally, the 8/4 can be used with recorded music either as a disco mixer or with home hi-fi equipment. The RIAA equalisation makes it perfect for use with a record deck, and the multiple outputs can be used for playing or recording at the same time

Specification

Studiomaster 12/2B Mixer

The Studiomaster 12/2B is a compact mixing desk which forms the basis of a full-scale modular mixing system. Because many bands have discovered the advantage of thinking beyond their immediate needs when buying their first mixer, it is popular with musicians who have never owned a mixer before. Yet, in conjunction with four-channel add-on modules, it will admirably serve the purpose of almost any group. Designed to studio specification but also widely used by bands who want their PA mixer to double as a recording mixer, 12/2B is probably the most successful portable desk in the world.

The 12/2B as a First Mixer

The 12/2B is designed as a first mixer which may well be the only mixer you ever need. Its features are all planned for maximum versatility.

Each channel is equipped with adjustable input gain plus a 30dB 'pad'. This means that the 12/2B is compatible with any equipment you are ever likely to own. LED indicate when a channel is overloaded. Input can be balanced or unbalanced and is by professional XLR sockets or by Multicore socket, and outputs are also balanced XLR's.

A mixer should give complete control over amplified or recorded sound, and the equalization system is central to this control. The 12/2B has a gain control 16dB cut or boost applied to selectable frequencies in the Mid and Bass ranges. The parametric system means great precision of control. It is not only very helpful in attaining exact instrument sounds (and/or cancelling the effects of the room you're playing in) but it can be used to cut feedback-prone frequencies — a useful alternative to cutting overall volume to reduce feedback.

Effects, particularly echo, are almost invariably a part of recording work, and the 12/2B has two effects sends provided on each channel. The effects are Post Fade so that when the channel faders are moved the effect stays proportional. When each channel is equalised and has effects added, a stereo programme is created using the pan controls that select how much of the signal is to go to either output.

No matter how well equipped a desk, without effective monitoring good results are impossible. The 12/2B has a Foldback monitor send control on each channel and a Foldback Master send at the output stage to assess the final signal. The individual channels are also provided with very useful PFM (Pre-Fade Monitor) sends, so that you can listen to any channel without affecting the working status of the desk.

Flexibility in use, sophisticated equalisation, full effects and monitoring, professioanl capability — a balanced set of reasons why the 12/2B is first choice for mixing.

Studiomaster 16/4 & 16/8

These mixers differ only in the number of output channels they offer. They are designed expressly for the four-track or eight-track studio and because they are expandable they have been made to much higher specifications than is usual among compact mixers.

Eight or four track equipment is the basis of many small professional studios (particularly those that specialise in demo tapes) and nearly all home studios. A small but vigorous proportion of successful records comes from master tapes made on this kind of equipment. The advantages of mixing and recording at home are attracting more and more musicians. The equipment is reasonably priced so that overall costs can work out lower than with a hired studio, and in terms of convenience there is no contest. A home studio affords more scope for exploration and experiment because there is no limit on the time that can be spent finding exactly the right sound.

The numbers of musicians with home recording equipment is continually increasing and a Studiomaster 16/4 or 16/8 is the choice where professional results are the aim. They combine the most comprehensive creative facilities with a quality of electronics that is essential if the signal is to be processed and re-mixed several times.

Multitrack Versatility

The input stage, gain controls and eq systems on these desks have all the standard Studiomaster features such as parametric eq in Mid and Bass frequencies, balanced Lo-Z inputs plus pads, LED overload indicators, professional connections plus the Multicore option.

After each channel is adjusted, equalised and perhaps processed for effect in the normal way, it is routed to a group in the output stage, which functions as a comprehensive sub-mixer.

This stage of the mixer fully exploits the advantages of multi-tracking. Each of the four (or eight) groups can either be routed into the tape machine via the Line Out switch, or routed back for re-mix if adjustments are required to its component signals. Each group has its own level fader and by the re-mix process extra effects or equalisation can be introduced at this stage. Foldback monitor controls allow the engineer to listen to each group or to all of them together, and the PFM controls are used to listen to individual channels. A separate monitoring system allows the engineer to produce a monitor mix for his own convenience independently of what he may be sending into the tape machine.

When the 16/4 or 16/8 is interfaced with a tape recorder, it can be used to produce the 'multi-track tricks' that are a feature of 95% of modern recording. This allows you to build up a master tape gradually, laying down first rhythm tracks and basic instrumental work, and adding vocals, solos, or even improvisations later. The technique is simply to separate the various instruments or instrument sections into groups on the mixer, record and remix according to the instructions for 'mixing in the studio' later in this brochure. Note that at each remix, the full monitoring/equalization/effects system of the mixer is at your disposal should you wish to 'shape' the sound further. For a final stereo mix to produce a master tape, the first two Line Out faders double as master faders

Studiomaster 400C & 800C Power Amplifiers

Studiomaster power amplifiers are designed for use in recording, and are also robust enough to be taken out on the road. They are built to the same precise tolerances and full specifications as the mixing desks. They use XLR connectors, are rack mounted or free standing, and excel in protection circuitry, and provisions to dissipate the intense heat that any power amp generates. The best testimony to their sound is the fact that they are used by many top sound engineers all over the world.

The 800C

One of the safest, most reliable amplifiers around, the 800C delivers up to 600 watts per channel. A major feature is the four-stage protection system that ensures not only that the amplifier cannot damage itself, but that it cannot damage speakers. Instantaneous protection circuits protect the output stage from short circuits and inappropriate load conditions. On each channel there is a thermal cut-out so that if the temperature in either heatsink exceeds 100 degrees centigrade power is removed. It is automatically restored when the temperature drops to a safe level. Separate fuses are provided on each D.C. rail and there is an AC mains fuse in addition. Finally, in the unlikely event of a fault creating a DC condition in the output stage, a relay disconnects amplifier from speakers.

The 400C

Tough, reliable stereo power at 200 watts per channel into 4 ohms makes the 400C a leading choice for studio or for performances. Like the 800C, it has instantaneous protection circuits that cut in should the circuits be subjected to a potential they are not designed to handle. There are fuses on each DC rail and on the main power supply, and a relay disconnects the speakers if the output develops DC potential.

Mixing in the Studio

The basic recording instructions for any Studiomaster mixer are the same. Mixing means taking a number of different instrument and vocal signals and combining them ultimately to form a stereo 'image' in the desired proportions. Mixing is the stage at which many special effect are introduced, and at which the sounds you are working with are shaped and manipulated by 'equalisation'.

Stage one is input. You plug the source into the input stage of the mixer and refer to the VU meters and/or overload LED's to adjust the level by the gain control and possibly the 'pad' switch. Stage two is equalisation. By reference to the monitors (using the PFM button on the relevant channel) the signal is adjusted for bass and midrange tone (using the relevant gain pots plus the frequency selecting pots) and treble (gain pot only). Stage three on 2-channel mixers is to use the pan controls to route the signal from each channel to either one of the output channels: the creation of the stereo image. On multi-channel models signals are routed into groups corresponding to the tracks on a tape machine. Stage four will often be the adding of echo or effects. The influence of any effect on the signal in a channel can be gauged using the PFM monitor button to isolate that channel. The effects send(s) on each channel will route all or part of a signal through an effects unit. With multi-channel mixing, effects are often added with one of the groups set to 're-mix' because this way it is easier to gauge the amount of effect required.

Stage five (mixers for multi-track recording only) can be carried out when you've recorded all but one of the tracks on the tape machine. It is then possible to set the recorded tracks to re-mix and route them (with or without further effects or equalisation) into a single group. This can then be recorded on the remaining tape track leaving the other tracks available to record more material for a final mix. The process can be repeated several times: up to six or seven transfers are permissable depending on the kind of material recorded and the quality of the recording machine.

Note: when using a mixer and a tape recorder it is most important to align the mixer signal with the tape machine sensitivity. This is done by turning all monitor selectors to L.O. (Line Out) and adjusting the L.O. faders so that the meters read O VU. Then switch the tape machine to 'record', operate the alignment oscillator on your desk (or some other continuous signal) and adjust the record level so that the meters on the tape machine register their recommended level. To play back the recorded tone, switch to "re-mix" (routing to 1st 4 mic channels) and adjust playback level controls so that the meters on the desk read 0 VU again.

Expander Modules

All our mixers grow with the requirements and your budget. 'Add on' modules providing four channels at a time are available and this means that your desk is always ready to accept more inputs.

The modules are designed on a 'bolt on' basis, connecting instantly into the existing mixer circuit without the need for complex wiring adjustments.

RSD 12/2 Mixer

A sturdy, compact, general purpose mixer along the same lines as the Studiomaster 12/2B but without some of the features designed specifically for studio use. The 12/2 is the ideal first mixer for the band who believe they have a future. It's expandable of course — and takes four-channel Recording Studio Design add-on modules. It will cope with up to five such modules without loss of quality (making a full 32/2 desk available when used with R.S.D. external power supply) and will balance your sound for any venue from a wine bar to an open-air stage.

Everything for the Road

The 12/2 is a good traveller. It's highly portable, and it's reliable. The designers worked on the principle that a certain amount of punishment is inevitable for equipment used by a constantly gigging band, and a mixer that can't take it is just not a road mixer. Tested, high quality components and 'heavy-duty' internal connections are the rule for Recording Studio Design (and Studiomaster) products — and they pay dividends on a hard-working mixer like the 12/2.

The eq on the 12/2 desk is parametric on Mid and Bass frequencies and gives a powerful 16dB cut and boost. This means sound control whatever the venue. A high roof, a low roof, large flat surfaces, curtains and hangings, even a crammed auditorium can have a radical effect on acoustics, but the 12/2 will compensate easily. The parametric system is very exact, and allows you to maintain your characteristic sound in the most 'hostile' environment, or to cut feedback with a minimal effect on overall volume.

The versatility of the 12/2 has given it considerable popularity. It has a Post Fade effects system so that signals can be sent through external processors without the proportion of the effect varying when the channel fader is varied. It has Foldback monitoring for the engineer to assess the final signal, and a very useful PFM monitor system to listen to each channel individually. Monitor sends will route the signal to on-stage monitor amps for the band.

RSD 20/8 Monitor Mixer

It scarcely needs stating that if members of a band can't hear what they're doing, they can't hear what they're doing wrong. Since amplified music began, however, this obvious fact has probably ruined more performances than any other single cause.

The Recording Studio Design 20/8 monitor mixer represents the end of all problems associated with monitoring, whether due to band members 'losing' their own sound, to a bad monitor sound that favours some instruments at the expense of others, or to monitor feedback. In these days of modest back lines and powerful PA, efficient monitoring is essential. The 20/8 is not an expensive unit, but it was designed on the principle that the monitor mix is as important as the main mix to the end performance, and no corners have been cut on specification or features.

The purpose of monitoring is to allow every member of a band to hear what he sounds like in relation to the other members. However, everyone has his own ideas on how prominent his sound should be in the mix, and on which other instruments he should hear most. The 20/8 allows each output channel to contain a mix of any or all input channels in any proportion desired — and with any frequency bias. Thus the vocalist may favour a 'rhythm track' sound, the bass player would probably want a drum-dominated mix, and a keyboard man might wish to hear most from the lead instruments.

Feedback is a major problem of monitoring, and the 20/8 is very effective in eliminating it. Equalisation at two stages is provided so that feedback frequencies can be turned down without overall volume loss. First, each input channel has parametric eq on both bass and mid frequencies plus cut-and-boost control on shelving frequencies in the treble range. Second, there is overall parametric eq at the output stage. By careful use of both sets of controls each musician can have high-volume, personal monitoring without risk.

The attention to practical needs that characterises Recording Studio Design products makes the 20/8 a very convienient mixer to use. Sound engineers often complain that it's hard to hear exactly what is coming through individual monitors. The 20/8 has PFM switching so that each channel can be listened to in isolation. Lighting in the wings is usually poor. The 20/8 has colour coded control groupings for easy recognition. Many monitor mixers have only limited metering. The 20/8 has large VU meters for each output group plus an extra one to which any individual channel can be switched. Many monitor mixers have inadequate handling capability. If 20 channels ever seem too few, the 20/8 can be expanded with 4-channel add-on modules.

The 20/8 is wired in parallel with the main PA mixer. Most bands find in unnecessary to have a separate monitor engineer, although to get the best out of your 20/8 monitor mixing should be taken as seriously as PA mixing. It is often the key to a 'tight' professional sound

RSD 800B Power Amplifier

A 19" rack-mounted or free-standing Power Amp giving up to 600 watts per channel. Built to stand up to the toughness of life with the average working band and still deliver the power and sound quality of RSD at gig after gig. Offering exceptional signal-to-noise and distortion characteristics the 800B is the answer for anyone who wants performance and durability in a relatively light, convenient-to-handle package. For versatility there is a mono/stereo switch at the input stage so that 800B's inputs can be paralleled if required.

The RSD 800B also has to be one of the best protected PA amps in the business. It has full short-circuit protection, a thermal cut-out which operates should the heat-sink on either channel top 100 degrees centrigrade, and separate fuses on each DC rail, and the mains input.

Large, illuminated VU meters indicate the load on each channel.

The 800B is stable with all reactive loads.

RSD 3-way & 5-way Stereo Crossovers & Accessories

The RSD Electronic Crossovers are available in 3-way or 5-way versions to suit differing needs. They are designed as quality professional audio units and employ active circuitry to give maximum scope in frequency selection.

On the 3-way unit, the crossover frequency between the Bass and Middle outputs is continuously variable between 200Hz and 800Hz. Between the middle and the treble outputs, crossover frequency will adjust between 800Hz and 3.2kHz.

Separate gain controls are used on each channel, for fine adjustment on the balance.

On the 5-way crossover signals from the mixer or other source are split into five frequencies. This allows each frequency band to be amplified at different levels and reproduced by transducers designed to handle specific frequency ranges.

Once again, independent input gain controls are provided, and on the back of the crossover there is a 25-way connector for compatibility with a multicore system.

By using a 5-way or even a 3-way electronic crossover, the correct equipment for every frequency range can be selected, using lower power amps and higher frequency drivers as the signal frequency gets higher.

Recording Studio Design also produce value-for-money professional stage accessories. These include Multicore cable in drums of 50 metres, Multicore Mic Returns for connecting mics on stage, Stage Sends (from mixers to monitor amplifiers), and a D.I box. All units are made with balanced XLR connectors where appropriate.

Programming a sound future

Do you get everything you want from your mixer? And, what can be just as important, do you get anything you don't want in the form of crackles, hums, and other noises?

If you own a Studiomaster or a Recording Studio Design system, you probably answered 'yes' to the first question and 'no' to the second. But even these mixers can be improved and there is a continual programme of research and development to make sure that whatever science has put at the disposal of our engineers, we put at the disposal of our customers.

All our mixers are currently going over to a more refined system of sound control than ever. The Studiomaster 8/4 pioneers our third generation chips which give an appreciable boost to overall performance, from better signal-to-noise ratio and wider equalisation range, to greater reliability. Models of the 16/4 and 16/8 coming on to the market are also fitted with these circuit boards, and all Studiomaster and RSD mixers will feature the new technology.

New I/C's are the basis of our 'mixers for the future' but there are also mechanical improvements to favour greater reliability and easier maintenance. The 8/4 and the 16/4 and 16/8 already have a system of flexible Buss Bars with the circuit boards wired by means of a plug-in harness instead of conventional soldered connections. This system is to be introduced to all models.

The 8/4 and the 16-channel models are also the pattern for new metering options. There are plans for all mixers to offer an option of fast reacing L.E.D. display, since many musicians and engineers prefer the faster reaction time of the LED systems.

Studiomaster and Recording Studio Design lead the field in the production of professional quality portable mixing desks because we have always been responsive — to the users of desks on the one hand, and to the developments in electronics science on the other. That's why we make no predictions on how the ultimate Studiomaster or RSD desk may look — although we have a very definite immediate development programme. We can guarantee that each generation of mixers will take the art of making music a little nearer perfect. Because that's what our mixing desks are about: the music, the whole of the music, and nothing but the music.

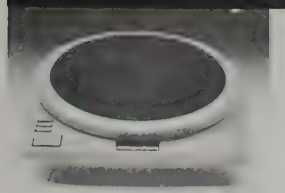
Technics SP-15



Quartz-Synthesizer Controlled Direct Drive Turntable

Quartz control provides virtually perfect speed accuracy, within ±0.002% of perfect speed. Quartz synthesizer pitch adjustment permits up to ±9.9% deviation from standard 33⅓, 45 and 78.26 rpm speeds, completely under quartz control. Speeds indicated by digital read-out, in 0.1% increments. High torque provides fast start up—0.4 second from standstill to 33⅓ rpm. 5.9 lb. platter sustains high 130 lb in² moment of inertia for superb immunity to transient load changes. Will withstand up to 2.2 lb in load drag without slow-down. Electromechanical braking system stops platter in 0.4 second. Diecast aluminum base with "TNRC" (Technics Non-Resonant Compound) on underside to resist vibration. Platter is rubber-damped on top, underside, and under rim for insulation against vibrations. Pulsed power supply avoids hum induction. Pitch-lock mechanism. Wow and flutter 0.025% WRMS. Rumble 78 dB DIN B.

SHOP TALK

Winter is almost over and once again it time for Spring cleaning and do we ever have alot of equipment we'd like to see cleaned out this Spring. Everything listed in the Bargain Box must go, you'd be surprised at just how low a price you can convince us to sell it for, so give us a call.

Please notice that the price of the Ampex ATR-700 still has not gone up from 1895.00, it's bound to go up pretty soon so be sure you think ahead and order today - tomorrow might be too late!

We have Many brand new Ashland drive motors in stock at 200.00 each, compared to the price that Ampex asks for the same motor this is a fantastic deal - these motors will work on Ampex 350 - 440 machines

If your in the market for an inexspensive cassette recorder please consider the Teac F-230 at 225.00 - see the ad on page 5

Did you notice the ad on the ECOPLATE in our last issue? at 5,000.00 this is a much wiser purchase than a used EMT at four to five thousand. If you want information on this unit just ask us for it, we'll be happy to send it out to you as well as any other information you might need.

We've got a good supply of Crown power amps in stock - they're not cheap but they're still about the most reliable amps available, we also have 2 2-Track & 2 Full Track Otari MX-5050B's in stock and 2 Scully 250 2-Tr.'s at very low prices - see Professional Recorders page 2.

Whatever you need we either have it in stock or can get it in a reasonable amount of time at a fair price so think of us the next time you're looking to buy.

THOUGHT for the MONTH

It is the Easter season. Commemorating for the Christian world the death and resurrection of Christ. Why did He die? And did He really rise from the tomb?If He was God the Son as He claimed to be, how could mortal men kill Him? If He was just a man, then as Paul said (1 Cor. 15) "if Christ did not rise your faith is futile and your sins have never been forgiven"- "those who have died believing in Christ are utterly dead and gone"- and "we should of all mankind, be the most to be pitied!"

Jesus in many passages of scripture claimed to be the Son of God, co-equal with the Father. He told Phillip "He that has seen me has seen the Father." He identified Himself to a large group of His countrymen as Jehovah, when He said "before Abraham existed, I AM" (this was a title of Jehovah God in the Old Testament, and the Jewish crowd knew it, and tried to stone Him to death for blasphemy.) In another instance he said, "I and my Father are one."

Although He established His credentials by many miracles, and was seen by many hundreds of people after His resurrection, He could not save Himself from death at the cross because, as He Himself said "For this cause came I into the world." God established blood sacrifice of animals in the Old Testament as a type to show that Christ must give Himself a sacrifice for sin so that He could forgive sinners. All men have sinned, and a just God could not overlook punishment for sin, but He could, and did, provide a substitute to pay the penalty so that He could then legally and justly pardon us guilty sinners. If Christ had used His power to avoid the cross or come down from the cross as He was taunted to do (If you are the Son of God, step down from the cross. He saved others, but He can't save Himself. If this is the King of Israel, why doesn't He come down from the cross now, and we will believe Him. He trusted in God... let God rescue Him if He will have anything to do with Him!- For He said 'I am God's Son.'" (Mat. 27), our redemption would not have been bought.

God the Father raised the Son from the tomb as a fulfillment of prophecy and as a vindication of the finished work of redemption- because Christ died, was buried, and rose again, I can be sure that right now, because of my surrender to Him as my Savior and Lord, I have eternal life and a wonderful heritage to look forward to. Share the Good News with me, and rejoice at this Easter season and forever!

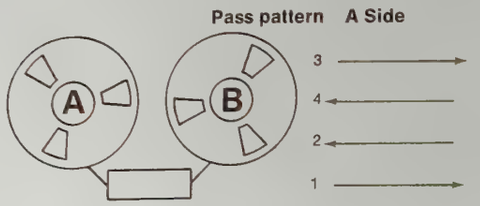
Metrotech

Professional Logging Recorders

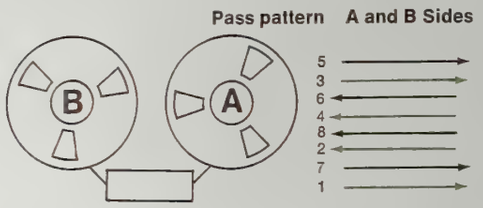
400 Series

A unique logging concept...

one that not only logs up to 200 hours of continuous information on a single 10.5" reel, but multiplexes a time-code on the same channel.



What's more, by simply flipping the reel, another 200 hours can be logged on the same reel. This is the new Metrotech 400 Series Logger.



Features

- Special time-code capability that preserves all channels for data. (Requires 4400 Time Code Generator/Reader.)
- Extremely long record time. 200 hours unattended, 400 hours with one reel flip. (Using .5 mil Double Play Tape.)
- Packing density cuts tape investment in half.
- Cue button and tape counter provide fast search feature.
- Optional Automatic Level Control and VOX capability.
- Offers both PASS and RECORD memory to help locate "last data" in event of power failure, and to restart recording on restoration of power.
- Rack-mount transport swings out for easy servicing. Electronics in sleeve-type drawer.

Description

The 400 packs more information on tape than most other logging recorders. Considering that a broadcast day will run about 18 hours, the 1-channel 4-pass monaural system provides for 11 days of broadcast logging, unattended. A simple flip of the tape reel provides for an additional 11 days. A 24-hour logging application can run 8 days unattended with the Metrotech 400.

What's the secret? Special head stacks and 4-track sequencing, using conductive tabs at each end of the tape, permit the maximum use of the tape medium. Even after 4 passes, there is room for 4 additional tracks. And by using a 4400 Time Code Generator to multiplex the time code with one of the information channels, there is no need to dedicate either electronics or tracks to the code. All tracks are used for program or other information.

To satisfy users who desire to log both channels of a stereo output, or wish to monitor up to 4 channels simultaneously, the 400 can be ordered to fit a given application. A special 4-channel 2-logger system is available. This system provides an automatic RECORD transfer in the event of a tape break or recording malfunction.

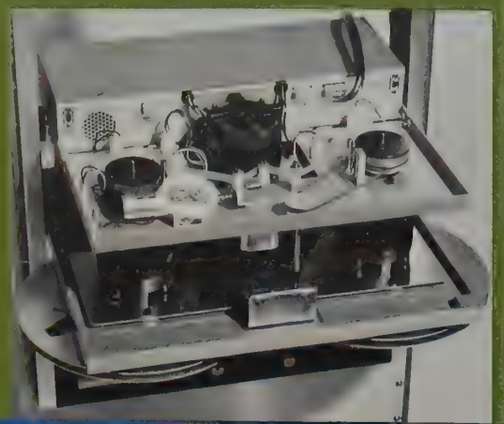
Play time in hours at various logging speeds

Tape	No. of Passes	15/16 in/s	15/32 in/s	5/16in/s
1 mil Extra Play 3600 ft.	1	12.8	25.6	38.4
	2	25.6	51.2	76.8
	4	51.2	102.4	153.6
	8*	102.4	204.8	307.2
.5 mil Double Play 4800 ft.	1	17.0	34.1	51.2
	2	34.1	68.2	102.4
	4	68.2	136.4	204.8
	8*	136.4	272.8	409.6
.5 mil Triple Play 7200 ft.	1	25.6	51.2	76.8
	2	51.2	102.4	153.6
	4	102.4	204.8	307.2
	8*	204.8	409.6	614.4

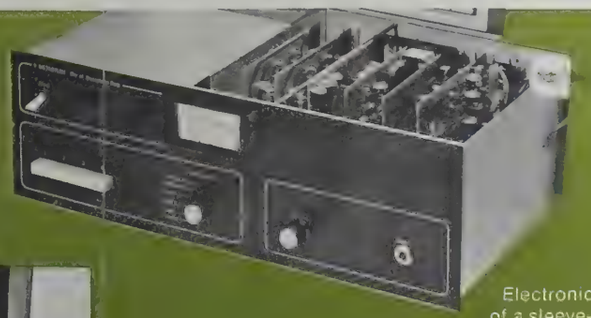
While 8 passes are accomplished by making 4 passes, turning the reel over and running 4 more passes, this same technique also doubles record time on 1 pass and 2 pass models. Four passes are maximum for unattended operation. 15/16 in/s speed is optional extra.*

Metrotech 400 Series Logger...details

Transport controls offer desirable features: In addition to standard motion controls, a PASS ADVANCE button is provided. Each PASS is also identified by lamp indication (restores itself after power failure). A FAIL lamp indicates an actual outage condition under power. The transport itself is a single-speed 3-motor unit. An hysteresis synchronous motor drives a high mass capstan flywheel for best wow and flutter performance. Reel motors are induction torque types. A single UNIBAND braking system is used. Tape motion sensing and tape break detection included.



Both the transport mechanism and the electronics can be serviced from the front of the rack. The tilt-out transport is operative even in the service position.

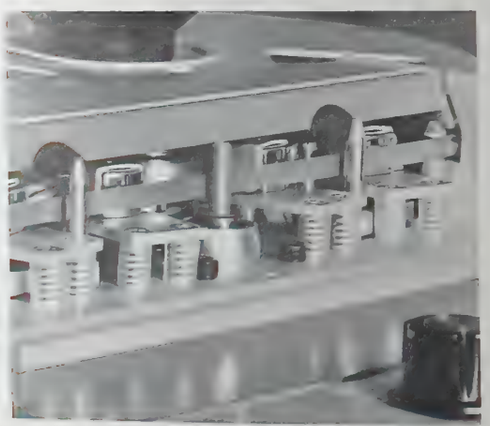


Electronics slide out of a sleeve-drawer for easy servicing or adjustment. A speaker-amplifier and phone jack are provided with the electronics. Special monitor pushbuttons permit putting one or all channels on the monitor line simultaneously.

This Time Code Generator—the Metrotech 4400—is used to generate and read an hour, minute, and seconds code in the 400 Logger. As an accessory, the 4400 not only generates the time code, but multiplexes the code with incoming information.

Field-proven...versatile...

For any recording job, or for long-play programming, the Metrotech 500 Series offers professional quality at a modest cost. Combining outstanding performance with many general utility features the 500 Series represents a solid investment for the broadcaster, background music service, educators, civil, and other governmental facilities.



1. Five different ¼" tape track formats: full track mono, half and quarter-track mono, and two-track and four-track stereo.

2. Bi-directional models provide for extended play time.

3. Auto-reverse (Quarter-track stereo models or half-track mono), or full-sequencing (quarter-track mono).

4. OPTAC* tape motion sensing and solid state logic prevent accidental tape spill, stretch or breakage.

5. Two-speed switch selectable. In the recorder/reproducer any two adjacent speeds are available: 15 in/s (381 mm/s) and 7.5 in/s (190.5 mm/s); 7.5 in/s and 3.75 in/s (95.2 mm/s); 3.75 in/s and 1.88 in/s (47.6 mm/s). Reproducer-only models: single-speed only (belt changeable).

6. 3-motor system for maximum performance in heavy-duty applications.

7. 3-mode Edit/Cue Control. Recorder/reproduce models offer: (1) Tape spill mode. (2) Tape lifter "defeat" for aural monitoring in FAST wind modes. (3) "PLAY-CUE" mode to release brakes for quick-cueing. Note: Edit/Cue not available in Reproducer only models.

8. Front panel set-up controls.

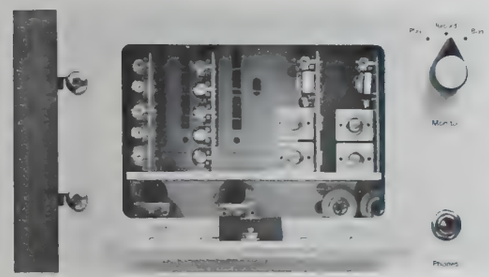
Functional simplicity characterizes both the transport and electronic control panels of the 500 Series. In addition to the clean styling, the design provides for ease of operation. Transport controls are clustered conveniently with all basic tape motion controls grouped in calculator keyboard style. Controls used less often are located in a second cluster at the opposite end of the control panel. Basic tape motion controls can be remoted for operator convenience.

The electronic control panel offers similar functional advantages. In dual channel units, separate vu meters are provided. Monitor selector switches and record level controls are logically grouped around the related vu meter. A simple RECORD CONTROL selector provides for recording on either or both channels with logic circuitry holding the channel not in the RECORD mode in the SAFE position.

*TM Metrotech, division of Dictaphone Corporation

Front-access to controls
A spring-loaded door conceals set-up and equalization controls located on printed circuit boards immediately accessible from the front.

Electronics are packaged in 19" wide modules and can be rack mounted or installed in the optional Metrotech console.



Operationally, 500 Series transports are the same as the familiar 500A—proven in installations around the world. In this 3-motor drive system, a hysteresis synchronous motor powers the capstan, with precision torque motors for supply and take-up reels. Tight flutter and wow specs are maintained by isolating the capstan motor from the capstan assembly thus avoiding the transmission of flutter elements. Motor generated power-field interference with heads is effectively shielded.

Recorder/Reproducer

Dual Speed Operation. 500 Series Recorder/Reproducers can be ordered with a choice of any two adjacent operating speeds. 15 in/s; 7.5 in/s; 3.75 in/s or 1.88 in/s.

Selectable Motor Torque. Front panel switch provides proper tension for 7" and 10.5" reel sizes.

Automatic Equalization. Proper equalization is automatically switched to match operating speed selected.

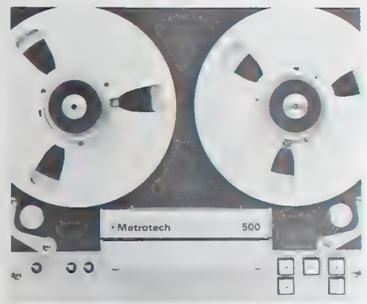
Interlocked Controls. Optac motion sensing and solid state logic prevents accidental tape spill by disabling new transport mode selection until transport is fully stopped. In the event of tape breakage, switches on tape storage arms stop transport.

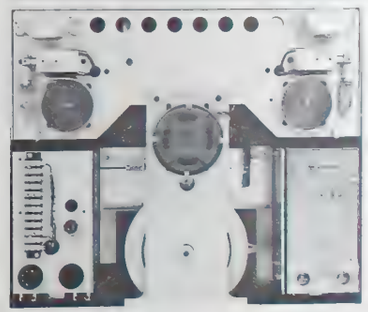
Rack or Console Mounting. Standard configuration is for 19" rack mounting. The Metrotech console is available as an optional extra.

EDIT/CUE Function
EDIT/CUE provides for three operations: (1) In "STOP" mode, pressing EDIT/CUE button spills tape for editing. (2) In the "PLAY" mode, pressing EDIT/CUE stops the tape and releases brakes, permitting operator to hand-cue tape precisely. (3) In "FAST" mode pressing EDIT/CUE defeats tape lifters so operator can hear program as tape is shuttled. Pushing "STOP" button defeats EDIT/CUE mode and puts system back to normal operation.

Bi-directional transport
The automatic reversing feature of Metrotech bi-directional transports offers extended play in two ways: First, in quarter-track stereo models, the auto-reverse provides double play time over non-reversing machines. Second, for monaural applications, two complete cycles provide automatic sequencing of four separate tracks, resulting in play time equal to four times the end to end length of the reel. Either way, users gain added convenience and enjoy tape savings. Automatic reversing is accomplished by foil tabs added to each end of the tape.

Reproducer only





Excellent playback only performance in a compact economical package. Electronics are self-contained in a shielded housing at the rear of the transport deck. Reproduce-only 500 Series units are essentially single-speed machines although speed changes can be effected by shifting belts. Equalization level must be manually changed when speed is changed. Designed primarily for background music service 500 Reproduce-only machines afford the operator excellent quality at a low price.

Professional Equipment for Broadcasting Professionals

Single-channel (full or half-track mono) and two-channel (half or quarter-track stereo) versions of the AG-600B are available. Both feature all-solid-state electronics. Each recording channel has allowance for one mike input and one line input, so that mixing capability is built into the machine. With an accessory plug-in preamplifier, the line input can be converted to a second mike input. For monitoring, an isolated output jack accepts both low and high-impedance headsets.

All of the AG-600B's setup controls are located on the front panel. A three-digit tape counter simplifies indexing.

The complete AG-600B system: AG-600B recorder/reproducer, AA-620 amplifier/speaker, and AM-10 mixer. They provide studio quality in a highly versatile field system.

Accessories

THE AA-620 SPEAKER/AMPLIFIER accessory includes a solid-state 15-watt amplifier and two speakers in a tuned enclosure. It offers essentially flat acoustic response; bass and treble equalization are adjustable ±6 dB. Available in portable case.

THE AM-10 STEREO/MONO MIXER accessory is a six-position, two-channel mixer, available in portable or rack-mount versions.

AG-600B Professional Portable Audio Recorder

Some Outstanding Advantages

- Rugged, time-proven construction
- Two switch-selectable speeds
- Automatically switched equalization
- Solid-state electronics
- Compact portable and rack-mount versions
- Stereo and mono versions
- Three-digit footage counter
- Accessory speaker/amplifier and mixer

As the current production model in a distinguished series, the Ampex AG-600B recorder/reproducer is a good thing made just a little better.

The predecessors of the AG-600B were the extremely popular 600 Series—a rugged, time-proved workhorse—and its equally popular successor, the original solid-state AG-600. Some 40,000 of these Ampex portables were delivered over the years. The AG-600B has kept their design and appearance with important refinements: One switch selects speeds and equalization.

The AG-600B changes speeds—3¾ or 7½ in/s—and equalization at the turn of an indexed switch. A two-speed motor has replaced the mechanical speed-change linkages of the 600 Series and the original AG-600. Equalization is automatic when recording speed is changed.

AG-600B: The professional's portable

Like the 600 and the original AG-600, the AG-600B has become the most highly regarded recorder/reproducer of its kind. It offers outstanding reliability; a convenient, compact design; and a rugged die-cast frame that absorbs the bumps of handling in the field.

The AG-600B provides the reliability of costly studio recorders in a compact, lightweight package. Accordingly, it serves ideally in the broadcast, industrial, educational, religious, medical, and government fields—any application, in fact, where professional results are needed but budgets are limited.

THE THREE FACES OF MC 701

AMPRO CARTRIDGE TAPE EQUIPMENT

A Broadcast Cartridge Tape Recorder Equivalent to the Finest Studio Reel to Reel Tape Machines.

Creative utilization of the latest linear and digital integrated circuit technology has enabled Ampro Cartridge Tape Equipment to achieve an increase in over all system reliability, reduced adjustment requirements and a significant reduction in size without sacrificing the rugged mechanical design necessary for long trouble free life.

Compact packaging allows convenient placement in studio and control rooms. With a low 5¼ inch profile, rack and desk enclosures are readily stackable for optimum space utilization in crowded operation centers.

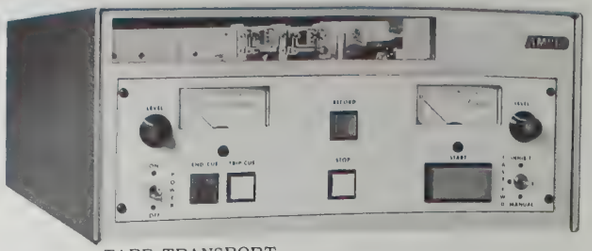
Front insertion rack enclosures, flip top desk cabinets, modular electronic assemblies and plug in rear panel audio and remote connectors all provide ready access for routine cleaning and maintenance. For ease of servicing, all equipment is fully operational even with all housing and external connectors removed.

Many features make Ampro Cartridge Equipment a valuable and lasting addition to your station.

Your on-air operators will appreciate the noise free, reliable operation, a human engineered panel design with rugged, quiet operating controls and nonslip shock absorber mountings.

Features like self timing cue tones, a logical interlocked control sequence, choice of flat or equalized record VU metering and automatic calibrated Record to Playback meter switching make production work a pleasure.

Engineering personnel will like the rugged, lock-down head mounts which maintain precise adjustment in spite of rough use, no adjustment cue and logic circuitry with a unique audio system which achieves the maximum possible performance levels.



TAPE TRANSPORT

The heart of any tape equipment is its transport mechanism. Dependability, simplicity and quiet operation are basic criteria embodied in the Ampro design. A massive die cast deck plate, tempered and ground for precise flatness, forms the foundation of a transport structure noted for its ruggedness.

A four inch, 600 RPM, "Beau" direct drive capstan Motor featuring permanently lubricated class seven instrument bearings for long, noise free life loafs along normal cartridge loading. The inverted rotor design which maximizes rotating momentum, the vapor honed, electrolized capstan shaft and the high torque capability of this motor combine to guarantee the best possible performance from even marginal cartridges.

An oversize, precision air damped solenoid provides positive, noise free automatic pressure roller engagement without the complications of preloading, cocking or release mechanisms.

A nonstretch chain linkage transmits the solenoid force to the pressure Roller mechanism. Three precision heavy duty oilite bearings maintain the Pressure Roller pivot shaft in precise alignment.

A protected sensing switch and precise cartridge guidance prevent damage due to "straight armed" cartridges.

HEAD ASSEMBLY

Professional grade, laminated core, hyperbolic metal face heads, custom designed to complement the design, consistently provide the finest possible audio quality with long life. The heads are mounted on a rugged 3/8 inch thick machined aluminum block which incorporates center line height and zenith adjustments with a non interacting, extended arm vernier azimuth setting. A positive lock prevents movement of the head mount due to rough handling without affecting the accuracy of adjustment.

Three independently mounted, close tolerance tape guides wrap around the face of the heads for maximum tape guidance.

Built in cartridge backstops assure correct cartridge insertion geometry and protect the face of the heads from damaging contact.

A dummy head mounted in the record head position on all Ampro Cartridge Tape Reproducers maintains optimum tape tension even on loosely wound cartridges.

REPRODUCE CIRCUITRY

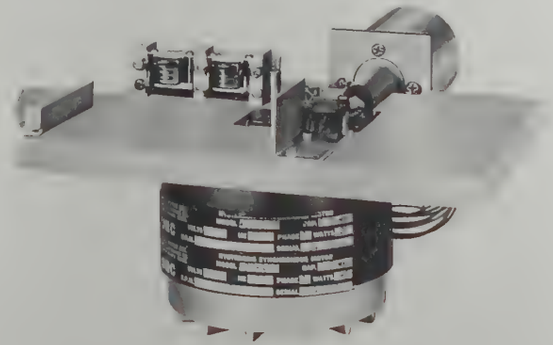
Use of proven, state of the art components in conservatively designed circuits, rugged construction and painstaking testing assure long term Ampro circuit reliability. All Electronic assemblies are constructed on plug in, military grade glass epoxy boards with heavy gold plating on connector areas.

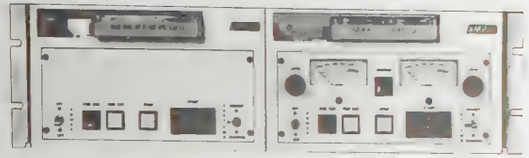
Control logic functions are implemented using digital integrated circuits with discrete input and output buffer stages for all remote switching and indications. All remote switching inputs accept a momentary contact ground signal and are insensitive to contact bounce.

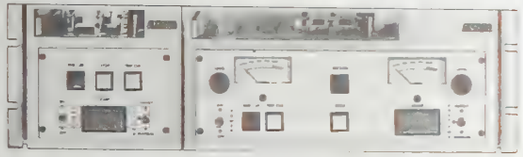
Power switching for the high voltage, inductive solenoid utilizes the latest opto-electronic devices and high voltage semiconductor switching to eliminate the noise and failure potential of arcing relay contacts.

Cue detectors use broadband digital integrated detectors with built in noise thresholds. The detectors are impervious to crosstalk and are capable of accepting an extremely wide range of audio input levels and frequencies. Cue output signals are self completing, fixed pulse width semiconductor switches. The cue detectors have no adjustments and require no routine maintenance.

An optimum combination of discrete and integrated circuit elements with a high output, well shielded playback head has resulted in a Reproduce Amplifier with a high signal to noise ratio and unusually low distortion. Adjustable high frequency response allows compensation for head wear. Low level FET audio switching permits the combination of more than 10 Reproducers into a common audio bus while maintaining specified noise performance.







RECORD CIRCUITRY

The completely integrated Record Amplifier features constant current head drivers, FET switching and balanced differential high level inputs. Switch selectable, equalized or flat record VU metering and automatic FET Record to Playback meter switching are valuable Production aids. A switchable Microphone High level input Record Amplifier is available as an optional accessory.

The bias oscillator avoids the use of bulky tunable inductors and transformers with a 100KHZ, extremely low distortion, automatic level controlled wein bridge circuit. Internally stabilized against voltage, temperature and aging variations, the bias oscillator uses a controlled build up FET switched, individually adjustable constant current driver for each channel. The high purity bias current waveform, maintained in spite of head saturation effects, guarantees the lowest possible recorded noise.

The integrated circuit generator for recorded cue tones produces a low distortion, constant amplitude sine wave using digital techniques. This scheme removes any need for bulky, temperature sensitive variable inductors with a further improvement in circuit reliability and the elimination of several frequency and level adjustments. Cue tones are internally timed to NAB specifications.

It is now twenty years since a completely unknown young man arrived in London from Venezuela to study harmony, composition and orchestration at the Royal Academy of Music. In 1937 few people anticipated what the future held or its significance, and the young music student from South America certainly had no inkling that he was to become the undisputed king of Latin American dance music in Europe and many other parts of the world.

Now, in 1958, there is no doubt that Edmundo Ros occupies this unique throne. During the space of twenty arduous, eventful years, he has scaled the heights of his chosen vocation, and today finds him the leader of a world-famous orchestra, the proprietor of a popular West End club which is a Mecca of entertainment for foreign visitors as well as Londoners, and a well-established success in spheres other than show business to boot.

Edmundo was born in Caracas, the capital of Venezuela, on December, 7th 1910. His mother was Venezuelan, his father Scottish-Canadian, and Edmundo was the eldest in a family of four children. His parents originally intended him to enter the legal profession, but it was eventually decided that he should embark on an Army career. Edmundo entered a military academy to study for this objective, and lost no time in joining the academy's military band as a percussionist to indulge his already keen musical inclinations.

The young embryo officer found that his activities with the academy band afforded as much satisfaction as his military curriculum, and, by the time his training period had expired, Edmundo was determined to make music his career. He secured the post of timpanist with the Venezuelan State Symphony Orchestra, thereby gaining a regular income and considerable opportunity to pursue his musical studies. He joined the Venezuelan Musicians' Union, and rose to become a member of its committee.

Prior to his spell at the academy, Edmundo had won a State scholarship without availing himself of its advantages: now he sought and obtained permission to utilize its financial benefits by journeying to London to complete his studies at the Royal Academy of Music, and thus began the road to his present eminence.

In common with most students of every generation, Edmundo soon discovered that the terms of his scholarship grant were insufficient to support him without another source of income. Consequently he joined Don Marino Barreto's pioneer Latin American group, which was seeking to establish authentic tropical rhythm as an integral part of the British entertainment scene. Progress was slow and disappointments numerous at first, but the Barreto band gradually won favor and support, especially after it was booked into the Embassy Club. Edmundo sang and drummed with the group until 1940 when he formed his own band for the first time.

He commenced by emulating the Barreto policy of playing and recording only genuine scores by Latin composers, but he quickly realized the limitations of such rigid authenticity. He evolved his present style of playing familiar and uncomplicated tunes and melodies in the various Latin rhythms with a genuine percussion section, and this compromise has paid handsome dividends ever since. His long association with famous West End night-spots advanced the cause of Latin American dance music as well as enhancing the reputations of the clubs and Edmundo and his orchestra, and also obliged him to conclude his Academy studies through pressure of work.

This album provides an excellent example of Edmundo's policy as well as demonstrating the precision and proficiency of his orchestra. Twelve varying tunes are presented, each arranged in one of the colorful rhythms of the south. Spain has exerted a considerable influence on the music and culture of Latin America, and the selection opens appropriately with a paso doble, Marquina's Spanish Gypsy Dance, with its vivid suggestions of fiesta and the bull-ring. This is followed by a perennial Viennese favorite making what must be its first appearance on record as a valse creole. The Blue Danube loses none of its charm by this innovation, for the Latin waltz bears the closest affinity with its Viennese counterpart, and adds an attractive degree of syncopation to the old melody. The third track gives a baiao presentation of Offenbach's Barcarolle which is in perfect accord with the mood of the tune. Rhythmically speaking, we remain in Brazil for La Maxixe, which evokes the Rio Carnival spirit with its gay marcha beat. Then comes an example of Edmundo's constant regard for the more authentic composition as trumpeter Jack Bassett goes through his virtuoso paces in Capullito de Aleli (Little bud of the aleli flower). First he plays the melody line of this son rumba, and then gives forth with some fluent obbligato work, splendidly supported by the rest of the orchestra including some bright timbales playing and cencerro (cowbell) fill-ins from drummer Ronnie Lord. The first side ends with a mambo arrangement of Ernesto Lecuona's Siboney, containing some more excellent trumpet contributions—this time from a veteran Ros sideman, Buzz Trueman—and an oblique tribute to one William May in the voicing of the saxophone team.

The second part of the album commences with a cha-cha-cha arrangement by Ros pianist Eric Spencer of the old faithful, Isle of Capri, with some realistic growls from the brass and a nimble double-tempo interlude beaten in by the timbales. Then comes the well-known Colonel Bogey, abandoning his usual march in favor of the merengue for this occasion. The national dance of Dominica, with its characteristic drum figure in the second half of each second bar, suits this crusty old gentleman admirably. Listeners who have seen service with the British forces will no doubt be able to provide their own lyrics for this famous tune. The mood is still gay and lively on the third track as the Ros orchestra plays a samba adaptation of an old German melody, with pandeiro (tambourine) player Roy Shelton crisply punctuating the beat. An accordion lends its individual touch in Caminito, a graceful tango from the Argentine, and Buzz Trueman's muted trumpet enhances the melody line of the bolero version of Marta. The album closes on a sparkling, vivacious note as the orchestra plays Cachita. This number was associated with the Lecuona Cuban Boys in pre-war days, and receives a first-class revival here. The precision of the brass section is superlative throughout this piece, and the orchestra generally creates a terrific atmosphere. Edmundo evidently approves, judging by his delighted "Oooh!" before Eric Spencer's piano break.

Here, then, are twelve rhythms of the south for your enjoyment and delectation. Whether you dance or listen, we feel confident of your satisfaction, for the music of Edmundo Ros possesses universal appeal which is unequalled in this sphere of entertainment, and we anticipate that toes will soon be tapping from Texas to Timbuctoo.

reach down inside
some things are beyond me
like birds flying high
I can't see that far away
my vision is blinded
grounded in a deep dark whole of myself
maybe like that poet
no maybe like something else
reach all the way down to my inside
reach all the way down feel my inside

throw a rock in the water watch the life expand
is the water too cold
maybe its ice will it melt in your hand
stand on a mountain all covered in snow
waiting for the heat
after the springtime the water will flow
reach all the way down to my inside
keep on going don't let go
now I have swallowed you whole

sunset
these are only dreams
lonely you make me listen
about holding hands and things
twist my fingers into knots
I tried to let go once
only you wouldn't listen
a whisper in my ear
soft sound keeps me here
you gave me all your thrills
I spent them all too freely
stacks of hundred dollar bills
burned in a bonfire rage
I tried to wipe you out
a plague of despair makes the ghosts run
boiling your witches brew
now I'm scared of you
paint me a bright sunset
tinted red and glazed with sweat
like your heat of the moment
frame it so I won't forget

knocking
isn't it funny bees make honey
I can see something sweet on your lips
sounds like goodby that explains why
bees are buzzing swarming all over your lips

heard your heartbeat blood red and dirt cheap
pounding in your sleep knocking on wood
how far can you go pretend I don't know
I can feel it knocking on wood
heard your heartbeat pounding in your sleep
blood red and dirt cheap knocking on wood
what is it this time excuses laced with lime
lemon and honey taste so sweet and so good

isn't it funny bees make honey
I can see something sweet on your lips
sounds like goodbye that explains why
bees are buzzing swarming all over your lips
door is open watch you going honey drips smile so sweet on your lips
now I know why birds and bees fly
honey sticks taste so sweet on my lips

I'm gone
I'm gone I'm gone
black heart black soul black clad down into a big black hole
I'm gone
fade away before your eyes
from the very first compromise
said by so many felt by so few how could you make me say what I could never do

don't sit by the window don't count the days
don't light any candles they'll only burn away
flames flicker and die flames flicker and die
like a cigarette burning slow I'm gone
hot ash before you know
I'm gone the mockingbird has flown cheap imitations
of feelings I've never known
I'm gone write my epitaph
I can smile the hyena can laugh
I'm gone

don't sit by the window don't count the days
don't light any candles they'll only burn away
flames flicker and die flames flicker and die
I won't look through your window
lies have sealed my fate
shiver in the shadows cold and hollow I'll wait
for those pair of eyes that won't compromise

time bomb set to despise from the very first compromise said by so many felt by so few how many times
must I say this to you
I'm gone

hanging
hanging, rotting in a corner waiting for the moon
I hope the dark will warn her, don't come back too soon
I'm not living in a house but in an hourglass with the sand coming down too hard and too fast
I'm borrowing time and I can't pay it back words are no good and good deeds I lack

rotting in a corner watching anger take shape
a familiar performer with my hands and face
now I'm playing in this introspective comedy
and the lines aren't funny not at all to me
I'm sick of this joke this inactivity
I want to get out but I'm hanging upside down

please don't be around to hear the sound
when my head hits the ground
I might rip you apart I might pull you down or forgive it
all and play the clown
but seriousness this chronic malady throws stones at these bones and is always all around

weather
you put something in my head
the wind blew it right through me
it came down like the crashing rain
a sharp splash then up again
I say the weather is the main thing
and it blew it right through me
I say the weather is the main thing
it came down like the crashing rain

I'm changing fast as the season
your happy look gives me reason
may be your smile or the way you stand
that knowing laugh or the touch of your hand
on my arm, on my face, cuts through the words and says, everything in this place

there are things I don't know how to say
but in an offhand or trivial way
I really need some kind of touch
to show how words don't mean that much
to have you know to have you feel

come back tomorrow touch me again
and in that time when there's nothing to say
speak to me anyway
tell me all that there is to know about the weather and about your soul

always wanting
always wanting something it can't be that hard
all the balloons with hot air
rising up to the stars

there you were in a moment
filling that something space
here I am for a moment
hating everything I say

too hard too high tight wire you and I

always wanting something
I know you all too well
your surface is sparkling underneath there's a rotten smell

we're still in this moment
filling this something space
pouring truckloads of cement
foundation has found its place
you bring me down I built the guillotine
you lead me 'round
you're so good for excuses
you bring me down I put the rope up
you slipped it 'round
take my time and my abuses

always wanting something
looking for that kick
feel the fatness of nothing
slip and slide roll around in it

too hard too high tight wire you and I

pigeons
I see you coming with a storm in your eye
you can send me away I'll say that's okay
to pick up the pieces put them back in place
when the storm dies down I'll be around

when I saw you hiding with a tear in your eye
was that a speck of sand or a genuine cry
it doesn't really matter I've set the place
tears or sand are fine they go with the wine

if you want to let pigeons pick us apart
I won't raise a hand
you know I'm not half that smart
when it comes to the pack
I let them chew on my back
if you choose their way I'll say that's okay

hide and seek faces looking for an oasis
your on bone dry land I'll lend a hand
I'll put up you shut up I can count to ten
I found you once I'll find you again

daydreaming
standing on the curbside
wondering how the streets too wide
just wants to fill a page or just a little space
standing on the curbside wondering
why the streets too wide hot and black

standing on the curbside running from the landslide
terror turning into hate thoughts fly by now its too late
in the shade of the streetlight shoving away the sticks and stones
a pearl of wisdom
in a broken hand among the broken bones

step down big machines moving fast
daydreams at rush hour never last hold my hand out grab it fast
catch me while I'm moving

standing sterile
a sprinkle of sweat before the rain
heat adds to the peril
like a twisted knife adds to the pain
said like an angel a flash of light in an empty head
looking forward to sleeping
baked hot black on a concrete bed

leave me out
there's some confusion I know
the body leads but the heart won't follow
you're an illusion I know
from sterile seeds only dust can grow

lock me in a room
watch the days go by
at least this is my right
to sit and wonder why
leave me out

just then
got my tongue in my mouth chewing on gristle can't spit it out
hair on fire smoke in my eyes
I'm surrounded short back and sides
got my head on this road
drag my body down these white lines
feel the skin peel
tire tracks are running up and down my spine
and then there was a hand on the wheel
just then she puts her hands on the wheel

got my tongue in your mouth
chewing and chewing don't spit me out sweat hair and fire eyes dripping desire
I'm surrounded

time on my hands
time on my hands
I read it on my tombstone
blood on my hands
guilty of waiting far too long
time on my hands
slips through my fingers
dirt on my hands
digging deep to join the sleepers

I have wasted so much pennies from heaven
jingle jangle turn to rust
I have wasted so much looking for the right way in lost and found collecting dust

not interested
I have seen most everything to see
what if I said I'm not interested
in photo albums postcards or museums

I have felt most everything to feel
what if I said I'm not interested
in long walks hot talks hypnotized romance

I have seen you at every time worth seeing borrow a shirt go to bed start reading
soon wet with sweat stop look up at the ceiling
get up tiptoe wash up and come back
what if I said I'm not interested
in watching your hair curl
making coffee or sleeping

I have seen most everything to see
I have felt like most everything to be what if I said
I'm not interested
what if I said
I'd rather watch the fishtank move
what if I said
I don't think that this is love

FUTURE

JACKPOT!

SWIRL HAPPY Nice (Swirling, 1001 Page St., Box 27, San Francisco, CA 94117/415-567-4393)—"Psychedelic" is a term used to describe at least a half-dozen rock epochs, and SF'ers Swirl Happy fall in a league not with the Grape or the Dead or even Jellyfish and the Ophelias, but with the late '70s/early '80s British movement. Their paisley-patterned music is of a darker hue, flashbacks from LPs like Crocodiles and Pass The Paintbrush Honey dancing in one's head after just one song. This is most immediately attributable to John Hamilton's baritone and its extravagent similarity to those of The Cult's polysyllabic days. Also, for a lighter and brighter contrast, the guitar, bass and drums are mixed into one inextricable, Creation-like cotton-candy arrangement, avoiding a too-heavy trip. Lifting from ponderous influences (like Echo & The Bunnymen) ends up a dire mistake in most hands, but Swirl Happy inhabits their own puffy cloud and are quite capable of weaving (in frightfully ornate patterns for a mere three instruments) their own pretty-but-ominous trances. Beating most of the paisley-goth relics at their own game, Swirl Happy mixes their darks and lights best on "Reach Down Inside," "Just Then," "Pigeons" and "Sunset."

THE STORY

Would you believe that a British agent, working skillfully inside the Kremlin walls and privy to Moscow's most important secrets which he relays back to London, is a dog—an English bulldog named Disraeli?

Incredible as it seems, Operation Bandylegs, the brilliant brainchild of an otherwise incompetent employee of M.I.5 (British Counter Intelligence) is entirely successful. Red agents are rounded up all over England and spy rings are broken. It's completely successful, that is until the miniature microphone-transmitter with which Disraeli is "bugged" begins to pick up and transmit only the dog's loud respiratory wheezes. If the Russians attempt to operate on the dog, the plot will doubtless be discovered, and . . .

This is only one of the many complications in Joseph E. Levine's rollicking new color comedy THE SPY WITH A COLD NOSE, which stars Laurence Harvey, Daliah Lavi and Lionel Jeffries, and co-stars Eric Sykes, Eric Portman and Denholm Elliott, with special guest star Paul Ford. A handsome veterinarian, a sultry double agent and a belly dancer are importantly involved in the action, in addition to the well-meaning but bumbling originator of Operation Bandylegs — and, of course, the bulldog Disraeli himself.

THE COMPOSER

The thoroughly delightful score for THE SPY WITH A COLD NOSE is the work of Riz Ortolani, one of today's busiest and most gifted composers. He was a violin prodigy at the age of four in Pesaro, Italy, and later studied intensively at the famed Rossini Conservatory. In his twenties—at the same time he was starred on Radio Televisione Italiana conducting his own Jazz Symphony Orchestra — Ortolani began composing scores for motion pictures. Soon, his conspicuous talents were called upon for stage musicals, as well as for additional film and television assignments. Then, he extended his operations to Mexico, where for two-and-a-half years he composed original music for Stan Kenton and Les Baxter's orchestras.

It was Riz Ortolani's provocative score for "Mondo Cane," and the theme from that film, "More," that brought him international acclaim. Hollywood nominated the song for an Academy Award, and to date it holds the enviable reputation of having been recorded in 232 different versions. Since then, Ortolani has been in constant demand to write and conduct scores for some of the most popular film successes of recent years: "The Seventh Dawn," "Women of the World," "The Easy Life," "The Glory Guys," "Maya" and "The Yellow Rolls-Royce," which contained another worldwide hit, "Forget Domani." The latter was accorded a Golden Globe award by the Hollywood Foreign Correspondents Association as 1965's "Best Original Song."

Ortolani approached his present assignment for THE SPY WITH A COLD NOSE with a motion-picture composer's specialized philosophy: "Music for the screen must always stress the specific personality of the film it is intended to enhance. And the music should be modern in concept."

That Riz Ortolani speaks from a profound knowledge of the technical as well as the aesthetic demands of the film-composing medium is immediately apparent in his jaunty, infectious score for THE SPY WITH A COLD NOSE.

The Serious Side Of

BILLY CHOATE

Bisbee Records

THE SERIOUS SIDE OF BILLY CHOATE

Billy Choate is known to most people as a comedian and rightly so. However, this is the serious side of Billy and after listening to this record you can appreciate his versatility. Born and raised on his father's show, he started doing juvenile parts at an early age. He was with the Third Army in Europe during World War Two and received the Purple Heart and Bronze Star for Distinctive Heroism. After the war he took up his show business career and joined Bisbee's Comedians and was a protege of Mr. J. C. Bisbee. His comedy timing came from Rod and Boob Brasfield, whom he worked with for years.

He has been in almost every phase of show business; theatres, tent theatres, night clubs and did a tour playing school and college assemblies. Side number one is a tribute to Billy's son, Welby Charles, and all the other fine American boys who have served their country so faithfully in Vietnam.

This is the first serious recording by Billy Choate. Both sides have a message and we are sure you will play this record over and over again.

It is now twenty years since a completely unknown young man arrived in London from Venezuela to study harmony, composition and orchestration at the Royal Academy of Music. In 1937 few people anticipated what the future held or its significance, and the young music student from South America certainly had no inkling that he was to become the undisputed king of Latin American dance music in Europe and many other parts of the world.

Now, in 1958, there is no doubt that Edmundo Ros occupies this unique throne. During the space of twenty arduous, eventful years, he has scaled the heights of his chosen vocation, and today finds him the leader of a world-famous orchestra, the proprietor of a popular West End club which is a Mecca of entertainment for foreign visitors as well as Londoners, and a well-established success in spheres other than show business to boot.

Edmundo was born in Caracas, the capital of Venezuela, on December, 7th 1910. His mother was Venezuelan, his father Scottish-Canadian, and Edmundo was the eldest in a family of four children. His parents originally intended him to enter the legal profession, but it was eventually decided that he should embark on an Army career. Edmundo entered a military academy to study for this objective, and lost no time in joining the academy's military band as a percussionist to indulge his already keen musical inclinations.

The young embryo officer found that his activities with the academy band afforded as much satisfaction as his military curriculum, and, by the time his training period had expired, Edmundo was determined to make music his career. He secured the post of timpanist with the Venezuelan State Symphony Orchestra, thereby gaining a regular income and considerable opportunity to pursue his musical studies. He joined the Venezuelan Musicians' Union, and rose to become a member of its committee.

Prior to his spell at the academy, Edmundo had won a State scholarship without availing himself of its advantages; now he sought and obtained permission to utilize its financial benefits by journeying to London to complete his studies at the Royal Academy of Music, and thus began the road to his present eminence.

In common with most students of every generation, Edmundo soon discovered that the terms of his scholarship grant were insufficient to support him without another source of income. Consequently he joined Don Marino Barreto's pioneer Latin American group, which was seeking to establish authentic tropical rhythm as an integral part of the British entertainment scene. Progress was slow and disappointments numerous at first, but the Barreto band gradually won favor and support, especially after it was booked into the Embassy Club. Edmundo sang and drummed with the group until 1940 when he formed his own band for the first time.

He commenced by emulating the Barreto policy of playing and recording only genuine scores by Latin composers, but he quickly realized the limitations of such rigid authenticity. He evolved his present style of playing familiar and uncomplicated tunes and melodies in the various Latin rhythms with a genuine percussion section, and this compromise has paid handsome dividends ever since. His long association with famous West End night-spots advanced the cause of Latin American dance music as well as enhancing the reputations of the clubs and Edmundo and his orchestra, and also obliged him to conclude his Academy studies through pressure of work.

This album provides an excellent example of Edmundo's policy as well as demonstrating the precision and proficiency of his orchestra. Twelve varying tunes are presented, each arranged in one of the colorful rhythms of the south. Spain has exerted a considerable influence on the music and culture of Latin America, and the selection opens appropriately with a paso doble, Marquina's Spanish Gypsy Dance, with its vivid suggestions of fiesta and the bull-ring. This is followed by a perennial Viennese favorite making what must be its first appearance on record as a valse creole. The Blue Danube loses none of its charm by this innovation, for the Latin waltz bears the closest affinity with its Viennese counterpart, and adds an attractive degree of syncopation to the old melody. The third track gives a baiao presentation of Offenbach's Barcarolle which is in perfect accord with the mood of the tune. Rhythmically speaking, we remain in Brazil for La Maxixe, which evokes the Rio Carnival spirit with its gay marcha beat. Then comes an example of Edmundo's constant regard for the more authentic composition as trumpeter Jack Bassett goes through his virtuoso paces in Capullito de Aleli (Little bud of the aleli flower). First he plays the melody line of this son rumba, and then gives forth with some fluent obbligato work, splendidly supported by the rest of the orchestra including some bright timbales playing and cencerro (cowbell) fill-ins from drummer Ronnie Lord. The first side ends with a mambo arrangement of Ernesto Lecuona's Siboney, containing some more excellent trumpet contributions—this time from a veteran Ros sideman, Buzz Trueman—and an oblique tribute to one William May in the voicing of the saxophone team.

The second part of the album commences with a cha-cha-cha arrangement by Ros pianist Eric Spencer of the old faithful, Isle of Capri, with some realistic growls from the brass and a nimble double-tempo interlude beaten in by the timbales. Then comes the well-known Colonel Bogey, abandoning his usual march in favor of the merengue for this occasion. The national dance of Dominica, with its characteristic drum figure in the second half of each second bar, suits this crusty old gentleman admirably. Listeners who have seen service with the British forces will no doubt be able to provide their own lyrics for this famous tune. The mood is still gay and lively on the third track as the Ros orchestra plays a samba adaptation of an old German melody, with pandeiro (tambourine) player Roy Shelton crisply punctuating the beat. An accordion lends its individual touch in Caminito, a graceful tango from the Argentine, and Buzz Trueman's muted trumpet enhances the melody line of the bolero version of Marta. The album closes on a sparkling, vivacious note as the orchestra plays Cachita. This number was associated with the Lecuona Cuban Boys in pre-war days, and receives a first-class revival here. The precision of the brass section is superlative throughout this piece, and the orchestra generally creates a terrific atmosphere. Edmundo evidently approves, judging by his delighted "Oooh!" before Eric Spencer's piano break.

Here, then, are twelve rhythms of the south for your enjoyment and delectation. Whether you dance or listen, we feel confident of your satisfaction, for the music of Edmundo Ros possesses universal appeal which is unequalled in this sphere of entertainment, and we anticipate that toes will soon be tapping from Texas to Timbuctoo.

SYMPHONIC TECHNIQUES FOR BAND AND ORCHESTRA

Technical Studies and Chorales Designed for the Development of Ensemble Technique

Claude T. Smith

While conducting clinics with his two acclaimed warm-up and scale methods, Claude T. Smith spoke to directors from throughout the country about their problems and needs of band and orchestras. Based on these discussions and suggestions, he developed a creative ensemble techniques method that gives you everything you need to warm-up your band and orchestra, systematically improving the musicality of your ensemble.

A section of over 125 studies based on 32 carefully designed technical exercises is the core of this powerful resource. Each exercise is articulated with the most common patterns needed to assist in teaching common literature and all of them feature a variety of dynamic shadings to insure that technique is never divorced from expressive playing.

In addition, SYMPHONIC TECHNIQUES FOR BAND AND ORCHESTRA includes:

- Varied Meters and works in all major and minor keys
- A long-tone version of the major and minor scale preceding each exercise
- A wide variety of styles
- A special section featuring 13 chorales in a full range of keys

. . . And of course, each exercise is full of the creativity of one of the world's most respected composers.

reach down inside
some things are beyond me
like birds flying high
I can't see that far away
my vision is blinded
grounded in a deep dark whole of myself
maybe like that poet
no maybe like something else
reach all the way down to my inside
reach all the way down feel my inside

throw a rock in the water watch the life expand
is the water too cold
maybe its ice will it melt in your hand
stand on a mountain all covered in snow
waiting for the heat
after the springtime the water will flow
reach all the way down to my inside
keep on going don't let go
now I have swallowed you whole

sunset
these are only dreams
lonely you make me listen
about holding hands and things
twist my fingers into knots
I tried to let go once
only you wouldn't listen
a whisper in my ear
soft sound keeps me here
you gave me all your thrills
I spent them all too freely
stacks of hundred dollar bills
burned in a bonfire rage
I tried to wipe you out
a plague of despair makes the ghosts run
boiling your witches brew
now I'm scared of you
paint me a bright sunset
tinted red and glazed with sweat
like your heat of the moment
frame it so I won't forget

knocking
isn't it funny bees make honey
I can see something sweet on your lips
sounds like goodby that explains why
bees are buzzing swarming all over your lips

heard your heartbeat blood red and dirt cheap
pounding in your sleep knocking on wood
how far can you go pretend I don't know
I can feel it knocking on wood
heard your heartbeat pounding in your sleep
blood red and dirt cheap knocking on wood
what is it this time excuses laced with lime
lemon and honey taste so sweet and so good

isn't it funny bees make honey
I can see something sweet on your lips
sounds like goodbye that explains why
bees are buzzing swarming all over your lips
door is open watch you going
honey drips smile so sweet on your lips
now I know why birds and bees fly
honey sticks taste so sweet on my lips

I'm gone
I'm gone I'm gone
black heart black soul black clad
down into a big black hole
I'm gone
fade away before your eyes
from the very first compromise
said by so many felt by so few how could you
make me say what I could never do

don't sit by the window don't count the days
don't light any candles they'll only burn away
flames flicker and die flames flicker and die
like a cigarette burning slow I'm gone
hot ash before you know
I'm gone the mockingbird has flown cheap imitations
of feelings I've never known
I'm gone write my epitaph
I can smile the hyena can laugh
I'm gone

don't sit by the window don't count the days
don't light any candles they'll only burn away
flames flicker and die flames flicker and die
I won't look through your window
lies have sealed my fate
shiver in the shadows cold and hollow I'll wait
for those pair of eyes that won't compromise

time bomb set to despise from the very first compromise
said by so many felt by so few how many times
must I say this to you
I'm gone

hanging
hanging, rotting in a corner waiting for the moon
I hope the dark will warn her, don't come back too soon
I'm not living in a house but in an hourglass with the sand coming down too hard and too fast
I'm borrowing time and I can't pay it back
words are no good and good deeds I lack

rotting in a corner watching anger take shape
a familiar performer with my hands and face
now I'm playing in this introspective comedy
and the lines aren't funny not at all to me
I'm sick of this joke this inactivity
I want to get out but I'm hanging upside down

please don't be around to hear the sound
when my head hits the ground
I might rip you apart I might pull you down or forgive it
all and play the clown
but seriousness this chronic malady
throws stones at these bones and is always all around

weather
you put something in my head
the wind blew it right through me
it came down like the crashing rain
a sharp splash then up again
I say the weather is the main thing
and it blew it right through me
I say the weather is the main thing
it came down like the crashing rain

I'm changing fast as the season
your happy look gives me reason
may be your smile or the way you stand
that knowing laugh or the touch of your hand
on my arm, on my face, cuts through
the words and says, everything in this place

there are things I don't know how to say
but in an offhand or trivial way
I really need some kind of touch
to show how words don't mean that much
to have you know to have you feel

come back tomorrow touch me again
and in that time when there's nothing to say
speak to me anyway
tell me all that there is to know about the weather and about your soul

always wanting
always wanting something
it can't be that hard
all the balloons with hot air
rising up to the stars
there you were in a moment
filling that something space
here I am for a moment
hating everything I say

too hard too high tight wire you and I

always wanting something
I know you all too well
your surface is sparkling
underneath there's a rotten smell

we're still in this moment
filling this something space
pouring truckloads of cement
foundation has found its place
you bring me down I built the guillotine
you lead me 'round
you're so good for excuses
you bring me down I put the rope up
you slipped it 'round
take my time and my abuses

always wanting something
looking for that kick
feel the fatness of nothing
slip and slide roll around in it

too hard too high tight wire you and I

pigeons
I see you coming with a storm in your eye
you can send me away I'll say that's okay
to pick up the pieces put them back in place
when the storm dies down I'll be around

when I saw you hiding with a tear in your eye
was that a speck of sand or a genuine cry
it doesn't really matter I've set the place
tears or sand are fine they go with the wine

if you want to let pigeons pick us apart
I won't raise a hand
you know I'm not half that smart
when it comes to the pack
I let them chew on my back
if you choose their way I'll say that's okay

hide and seek faces looking for an oasis
your on bone dry land I'll lend a hand
I'll put up you shut up I can count to ten
I found you once I'll find you again

daydreaming
standing on the curbside
wondering how the streets too wide
just wants to fill a page or just a little space
standing on the curbside wondering
why the streets too wide hot and black

standing on the curbside running from the landslide
terror turning into hate
thoughts fly by now its too late
in the shade of the streetlight
shoving away the sticks and stones
a pearl of wisdom
in a broken hand among the broken bones

step down big machines moving fast
daydreams at rush hour never last
hold my hand out grab it fast
catch me while I'm moving

standing sterile
a sprinkle of sweat before the rain
heat adds to the peril
like a twisted knife adds to the pain
said like an angel a flash of light in an empty head
looking forward to sleeping
baked hot black on a concrete bed

leave me out
there's some confusion I know
the body leads but the heart won't follow
you're an illusion I know
from sterile seeds only dust can grow

lock me in a room
watch the days go oy
at least this is my right
to sit and wonder why
leave me out

just then
got my tongue in my mouth
chewing on gristle can't spit it out
hair on fire smoke in my eyes
I'm surrounded short back and sides
got my head on this road
drag my body down these white lines
feel the skin peel
tire tracks are running up and down my spine
and then there was a harid on the wheel
just then she puts her hands on the wheel

got my tongue in your mouth
chewing and chewing don't spit me out
sweat hair and fire eyes dripping desire
I'm surrounded

time on my hands
time on my hands
I read it on my tombstone
blood on my hands
guilty of waiting far too long
time on my hands
slips through my fingers
dirt on my hands
digging deep to join the sleepers

I have wasted so much
pennies from heaven
jingle jangle turn to rust
I have wasted so much
looking for the right way in lost and found collecting dust

not interested
I have seen most everything to see
what if I said I'm not interested
in photo albums postcards or museums

I have felt most everything to feel
what if I said I'm not interested
in long walks hot talks hypnotized romance

I have seen you at every time worth seeing borrow a shirt go to bed start reading
soon wet with sweat stop look up at the ceiling
get up tiptoe wash up and come back
what if I said I'm not interested
in watching your hair curl
making coffee or sleeping

I have seen most everything to see
I have felt like most everything to be
what if I said
I'm not interested
what if I said
I'd rather watch the fishtank move
what if I said
I don't think that this is love

FUTURE

JACKPOT!

SWIRL HAPPY Nice (Swirling, 1001 Page St., Box 27, San Francisco, CA 94117/415-567-4393)—"Psychedelic" is a term used to describe at least a half-dozen rock epochs, and SF'ers Swirl Happy fall in a league not with the Grape or the Dead or even Jellyfish and the Ophelias, but with the late '70s/early '80s British movement. Their paisley-patterned music is of a darker hue, flashbacks from LPs like Crocodiles and Pass The Paintbrush Honey dancing in one's head after just one song. This is most immediately attributable to John Hamilton's baritone and its extravagent similarity to those of The Cult's polysyllabic days. Also, for a lighter and brighter contrast, the guitar, bass and drums are mixed into one inextricable, Creation-like cotton-candy arrangement, avoiding a too-heavy trip. Lifting from ponderous influences (like Echo & The Bunnymen) ends up a dire mistake in most hands, but Swirl Happy inhabits their own puffy cloud and are quite capable of weaving (in frightfully ornate patterns for a mere three instruments) their own pretty-but-ominous trances. Beating most of the paisley-goth relics at their own game, Swirl Happy mixes their darks and lights best on "Reach Down Inside," "Just Then," "Pigeons" and "Sunset."

PRESS RELEASE

ENCLOSED IS THE LP NICE, THE PREMIER RELEASE FROM SWIRL HAPPY. NICE IS THE DEBUT ALBUM FROM SWIRL HAPPY ON THE NEW INDEPENDENT SAN FRANCISCO LABEL SWIRLING DISCS. SWIRL HAPPY IS A NEW SAN FRANCISCO BAND FORMED IN LATE 1989, COMPOSED OF JOHN HAMILTON (GUITARS, VOCALS) ; DAVE BALDINI (BASS); AND SCOTT CHRISTY (DRUMS).

NICE IS A MAGNIFICENT, HAUNTING AND POWERFUL FIRST OFFERING, AN INSPIRING SYNTHESIS OF POWER AND POP SENSIBILITIES. SWIRL HAPPY DOES NOT WALLOW IN THE DREGS OF SELF-PITY AND SUFFERING, NOR DO THEY SHOUT FROM THE ROOFTOPS WITH JOY. THEY PRIMARILY EXPRESS A STRONG EMOTIONAL BLEND OF FRUSTRATION, ANXIETY, AND CONFUSION WITH MIRACULOUS MOMENTS OF ELATION.

THE STORY

Would you believe that a British agent, working skillfully inside the Kremlin walls and privy to Moscow's most important secrets which he relays back to London, is a dog—an English bulldog named Disraeli?

Incredible as it seems, Operation Bandylegs, the brilliant brainchild of an otherwise incompetent employee of M.I.5 (British Counter Intelligence) is entirely successful. Red agents are rounded up all over England and spy rings are broken. It's completely successful, that is until the miniature microphone-transmitter with which Disraeli is "bugged" begins to pick up and transmit only the dog's loud respiratory wheezes. If the Russians attempt to operate on the dog, the plot will doubtless be discovered, and . . .

This is only one of the many complications in Joseph E. Levine's rollicking new color comedy THE SPY WITH A COLD NOSE, which stars Laurence Harvey, Daliah Lavi and Lionel Jeffries, and co-stars Eric Sykes, Eric Portman and Denholm Elliott, with special guest star Paul Ford. A handsome veterinarian, a sultry double agent and a belly dancer are importantly involved in the action, in addition to the well-meaning but bumbling originator of Operation Bandylegs — and, of course, the bulldog Disraeli himself.

THE COMPOSER

The thoroughly delightful score for THE SPY WITH A COLD NOSE is the work of Riz Ortolani, one of today's busiest and most gifted composers. He was a violin prodigy at the age of four in Pesaro, Italy, and later studied intensively at the famed Rossini Conservatory. In his twenties—at the same time he was starred on Radio Televisione Italiana conducting his own Jazz Symphony Orchestra — Ortolani began composing scores for motion pictures. Soon, his conspicuous talents were called upon for stage musicals, as well as for additional film and television assignments. Then, he extended his operations to Mexico, where for two-and-a-half years he composed original music for Stan Kenton and Les Baxter's orchestras.

It was Riz Ortolani's provocative score for "Mondo Cane," and the theme from that film, "More," that brought him international acclaim. Hollywood nominated the song for an Academy Award, and to date it holds the enviable reputation of having been recorded in 232 different versions. Since then, Ortolani has been in constant demand to write and conduct scores for some of the most popular film successes of recent years: "The Seventh Dawn," "Women of the World," "The Easy Life," "The Glory Guys," "Maya" and "The Yellow Rolls-Royce," which contained another world-wide hit, "Forget Domani." The latter was accorded a Golden Globe award by the Hollywood Foreign Correspondents Association as 1965's "Best Original Song."

Ortolani approached his present assignment for THE SPY WITH A COLD NOSE with a motion-picture composer's specialized philosophy: "Music for the screen must always stress the specific personality of the film it is intended to enhance. And the music should be modern in concept."

That Riz Ortolani speaks from a profound knowledge of the technical as well as the aesthetic demands of the film-composing medium is immediately apparent in his jaunty, infectious score for THE SPY WITH A COLD NOSE.

The Serious Side Of

BILLY CHOATE

Bisbee Records

THE SERIOUS SIDE OF BILLY CHOATE

Billy Choate is known to most people as a comedian and rightly so. However, this is the serious side of Billy and after listening to this record you can appreciate his versatility. Born and raised on his father's show, he started doing juvenile parts at an early age. He was with the Third Army in Europe during World War Two and received the Purple Heart and Bronze Star for Distinctive Heroism. After the war he took up his show business career and joined Bisbee's Comedians and was a protege of Mr. J. C. Bisbee. His comedy timing came from Rod and Boob Brasfield, whom he worked with for years.

He has been in almost every phase of show business; theatres, tent theatres, night clubs and did a tour playing school and college assemblies. Side number one is a tribute to Billy's son, Welby Charles, and all the other fine American boys who have served their country so faithfully in Vietnam.

This is the first serious recording by Billy Choate. Both sides have a message and we are sure you will play this record over and over again.

Well, Conway, old friend, here we are! Every country hit parade or chart I see lately has one of your Decca records or albums on it; and knowing how much you love country music, I know how happy you are about it.

I remember back some years ago when we met. You had just had a multi-million seller called It's Only Make Believe and many other pop and rock-and-roll hits, and when you sat me down and sang me all those fine little country songs you had written, and talked about how much you dug Ray Price and George Jones, and how you wished you could be a country artist, it really knocked me out. Later on I heard many times where you and your band had driven hundreds of miles out of your way to catch a country show, and, in fact, I was there once and sat out front with you, and saw how much you enjoyed our down-to-earth type of music.

With all these thoughts in mind, it was no problem to go to Owen Bradley at Decca Records and play him some of your country demos; and Owen, being a very sharp individual, heard what I heard, and felt like I did, that the country fans and disk jockeys would welcome you with open arms. And it has come to pass.

It is a great feeling to make a plan that works and have a dream that comes true. I know you are much more thrilled with your success nowadays than you ever were before; and knowing how many country songs you used to do on your shows before, I know you haven't even had to change your programming, except to add your own country hits.

To you fans out there, give this young man a close listen; he has soul, he is real, and he is a welcome addition to our little community. One of these days, when he appears in your neighborhood, go and see him. You'll be glad you did. Also, say howdy to "The Lonely Blue Boys," Joe E. Lewis, bass and tenor singer; Tommy (Pork Chop) Markham, on drums; Lew Houston, steel, and Denny Rice, on piano... they're a fine little group who give their all to entertain and will send you home with that 'money's worth' feeling.

Welcome home, Conway. You took the long way around, but you're here now; and you can spend the rest of your life writing and singing what you really like, very successfully. So, go get 'em,old buddy!

YOUR FRIEND,
HARLAN HOWARD

Hank Snow

Here and now in this striking album set you have a delightful and definitive cross section of country music, as performed by Hank Snow. In this day of labels and tags—some people are just plain uncomfortable if they can't identify things with a catchword—many phrases have been written about country music that fill the bill, partly.

Perhaps the best approach is to think of it as music "of the people, by the people, and for the people." Its adherents will devoutly add to this, "shall not perish from this earth." Hank Snow, himself, fits most comfortably into the "people" definition. He has known and adapted to the swift, shifting scenes in this nation's day-to-day life. He can reach back into his early youth and recapture on record the flavor of those days, the sound of a highball locomotive's shrill, imperious shriek cutting through the cricket chirps of a sticky summer night.

You feel his command and can hear the train wheels being hurled ahead on endless steel tracks as he first presents I'm Movin' In, a railroad number in the classic tradition. From this high-paced style, Hank eases into the timeless story of a troubled wanderer, brilliantly accented in the break with his guitar and an insistent blues piano figure, still holding out hope somehow that things will clear up for his Tangled Mind. This country boy can travel to exotic lands and Hank offers a mighty acceptable reason—giving due apology to Tennessee girls—with Panamama. From a sultry flight of fancy with a dark-eyed, pepper-pot beauty, Hank returns to My Blue Eyed Jane, an endearing number first sung by the legendary Jimmie Rodgers. Next, an exceptional guitar treatment of Under the Double Eagle displays another bright facet of his instrumental artistry, followed by the purest ballad form of a rejected heart that remains faithful, Paving the Highway with Tears.

Starting off Side 2, Hank rolls into more great guitar magic and weaves another of the late Jimmie Rodgers' trainman's slice-of-life tales with The Southern Cannonball. There's a desperate urgency that builds in Let Me Go, Lover!—the mood of being trapped and lost, captured by Hank's flawless sensitivity to the lyric. This quickly brightens with the deft telling of When Mexican Joe Met Jole Blon, a rollicking and short-lived romance in a Texas border town with two unlikely but very believable entrepreneurs.

About as old as the Mississippi bottom lands is the folk-styled talking blues, revered from the Greenwich Village coffee house to, well, the bottom land itself. Hank exemplifies this art form with the hilarious woes of a man who has real Trouble, Trouble, Trouble. Country music is an honest music in that the words and thoughts have integrity, reaching for and finding a common denominator. Listen closely to Hank's noble humility and faith in love itself as he sings the plaintive There Wasn't an Organ At Our Wedding. There's a bright and happy ending to this album, however reluctantly we must conclude, in The Boogie Woogie Flying Cloud, a prime example of the quick-step sort of lyric delivery that Hank has branded as his own.

As with all long-lived by-products of a vital culture, country music assimilates and changes with the life of the times. It strikes basic human emotions and responds within the framework of the song—usually with vivid pictures, some contemporary and others ageless. Whatever country music is today, it can only be better because of the understanding and loving contribution given it by Hank Snow.

Hank's own life pretty well sums up the essence of his music. He has traveled by car, bus, train, boat, truck, plane . . . and shoe leather . . . throughout North America and beyond. He has entertained in backwoods school houses as well as on coast-to-coast television and radio shows. There was a Korean tour to perform for servicemen at the time bullets and shells were directed in anger. There have been rodeo days when his show included fancy and dangerous riding with his trick horse, Shawnee.

Wherever the people are, Hank can be found in song and spirit. Listen once more and you will hear and know and find yourself very much with Hank Snow.

3 COUNTRY GENTLEMEN

Here's a likely teaming of talent that adds up to an all-star country music show, and you can enjoy it right in your living room by pressing the start switch on your phonograph. Three standout artists, each a hitmaker in his own right, join hands to bring you some of their own best offerings.

Faron Young is a Louisianan who loves his country heritage. His father operated a huge dairy farm in Shreveport, and friends say Faron first developed his lungs with their amazing sing-power, right on the farm calling the cows home. It was one of his daily chores. The talent for Faron developed early, far ahead of the schedule of most of his contemporaries, for he actually became a member of the regular Saturday night troupe on Nashville's Grand Ol' Opry at the tender age of 19. The Young Sheriff, as he is frequently called, went on from there to become one of the best-loved of all country singers, and progressed to the stage where his own interests required a major corporate structure, known as Faron Young Enterprises.

Claude King, another of the extremely young veterans of the country music business, comes from the same management group, namely Louisiana's Tillman Franks, as that of the late Johnny Horton. Some of Claude's fine song material bears a reminiscent touch to some of Horton's best-known song constructions. His most recent big hit, and he has hit paydirt many times, was the intriguing song, "Wolverton Mountain." The success of this was underscored with the appearance of an answer song in the form of a girl's vocal recording of "I'm the Girl from Wolverton Mountain."

Third in this special talent line-up is a young man who has frequently been likened to Elvis Presley. In fact, Carl Perkins is more properly identified as a "rockabilly" singer rather than a straight country artist. It's interesting to note too, Carl's own roots as a recording artist. He was discovered and first recorded under the knowledgeable eye (and ear) of Sun Records owner, Sam Phillips, in Memphis, Tennessee. Memphis, often called the heartland of the blues, seems to spill its blues heritage over onto all the artists who develop there, and Perkins is no exception. His biggest disking, and one of his earliest, was "Blue Suede Shoes," but this was followed by a generous assortment of good sellers with the same general blues lineage.

There's your talent line-up. Three country gentlemen indeed, and three of the topnotch performers in the music business today. Each one of them offers you four of his best and most typical stylings, for a real living room country music hoedown and jamboree. Here's to good listening all the way!

I thought it was a once-in-a-lifetime feeling when my first song was recorded by a major artist. That wasn't true. Every time Connie Smith sings one of my songs, that beautiful feeling comes back. When she sings "I've Got My Baby On My Mind," it's as if someone has suddenly shined a light on a darkened stairway. From the beautiful "You'll See Jesus" to the happy "Loving You (Has Changed My Whole Life)" this album proves that Connie can capture the mood of any type song. If you're happy at the moment, you'll find your song on this album. Me? "I Got A Lot Of Hurtin' Done Today." The beautiful singing of Connie Smith and fine production of Ray Baker will take you to your mood.

JIMMY & DOTTIE

...Singing Very Well and Having a Great Time Working Together

I have worked with Jimmy for a long time and ever since I can remember he has wanted to record an album with Dottie West; however, wanting to do it and getting it done are two different things when you are working with artists who are constantly traveling.

Well, they finally accomplished it. Recording schedules were set, material was selected, and Jimmy and Dottie began rehearsing in Nashville for what has turned out to be not so much an album as a "Musical Barn Raising." Everyone involved hit a lick or two under the watchful eye and steady guidance of producer Jerry Bradley. Grady Martin, Charlie McCoy, The Jordanaires, Buddy Harman and a host of other talented people all contributed during a week of sheer joy, making music. Above all, there were Jimmy Dean and Dottie West, two of the finest performers in our business, singing very well indeed and just having a great time working together.

Come to think of it, I had a better time than anyone. All I had to do was sit back, listen, and enjoy.

And that's my prescription for you. Sit back, listen, and enjoy two of the finest people I know. I think you'll find that they sing well, too.

IT TAKES faith to carry out even as simple and everyday a task as crossing the street. For if we didn't believe that we'd get to the other side safely, we'd have a world of useless, panic-stricken people huddled on street corners.

Jimmie Davis' entire life has been based on faith... a faith so strong it carried him in dignity and triumph from the poverty of a sharecropper's cabin to the Governor's mansion in Louisiana. And this faith is beautifully reflected in the songs he sings.

In this album, Jimmie Davis' latest and perhaps most inspiring, he sings such familiar and touching songs as My Lord Will Lead Me Home, That Glad Reunion Day, When The Saints Go Marching In, and many others.

There is probably no American social tradition quite as heartwarming and genuinely friendly as the country dance. It has always been—and still is—a reason for young and old to gather, after the chores, to enjoy the music that expresses their lives. Lusty or wistful, comic or sentimental, it is music with a gaiety, sadness or loneliness that is distinctly rural.

To Faron Young, as a boy in his native Shreveport, La., the country dance was the nearest thing at hand to the New York Palace. Not only was it the center of entertainment, it was a social event at which real life dramas took place, such as were told about in the songs. People met, fell in love and fell out of love at the country dances. Emotions came into play that were never felt during the workday in the fields. For some the dance was a beginning, for others it was to be a painful memory.

Country music was the center of entertainment–a social event at which real life dramas took place.

(Webb Pierce—Myrna Freeman), Hill And Range Songs, Inc., (BMI) . . . 2:57

In COUNTRY DANCE FAVORITES, Faron has recorded an album of songs that comprise a fitting repertoire for any country dance and, at the same time, relate the personal stories of joy and sorrow that are born there. Faron presents them as soliloquies, compelling and touching, in the heartfelt lyricist style that has endeared him to lovers of song everywhere. His instinct for phrasing and his ability to slip unaffectedly into the spoken word at critical moments give his renditions a rare emotional edge. Most importantly, he makes the songs ring true.

THE LAST WALTZ is, at one and the same time, a dance tune in country tempo and a poignant expression of a suffering heart; while SAVE THE LAST DANCE FOR ME, with its hint of south-of-the-border rhythms and the delights of Faron's vocal innuendoes, is a semi-novelty about an unhappy fellow who's worried about his girl being the belle of the ball.

YOU DON'T KNOW ME becomes a sensitive revelation of unrequited love resulting from a man's shyness; DANCE HER BY ME ONE MORE TIME the lament of a lad who pines for the girl who used to be his; while the evergreen TILL I WALTZ AGAIN WITH YOU is a happy declaration of love with a dread of parting at the dance's end.

Not all the tales of heartache and loneliness are set specifically at a country dance, but any of them might take place there as well as anywhere, and the scene is set. FADED LOVE, SHE THINKS I STILL CARE, I CAN'T STOP LOVING YOU and AM I THAT EASY TO FORGET all are songs of yearning, each with its own kind of sadness. RELEASE ME (And Let Me Love Again) suggests an illicit romance, not a pleasant story but an honest one, and it is this kind of realism that typifies country music.

No country program is ever complete without a comedy number, and Faron offers HONKY TONK SONG with whimsical flair. Rounding out this dance set is the western classic SAN ANTONIO ROSE, which he does beautiful things to, giving it the appropriate lilt but also the airy freshness of a new tune.

Love, heartache, humor, earth realism and the joy of life—all that make up country life and country music—are here. All these and Faron Young too.

The Gentle Pleasures of "The Golden Years"

Nowadays most records are made for kids. I have no quarrel with this. After all, most records are bought by kids, and anyway, I used to be one myself.

Still, it's nice to see that some records are being made for the older folks. This is one of them.

So, if you are looking for wild, psychedelic sounds, move on friend–they are not in this album. But if you have a craving for something sweeter, something meant to express the more gentle pleasures of the September years, go no farther. You have found it here.

Archie Campbell is well known for his ability to make people laugh with a joke or comic song. What is not so well known is his ability to sing a ballad so beautifully or to extract the meaning of a philosophical recitation so movingly, as he does here. In this album you will discover a new Archie, one who we hope will lend more meaning and enjoyment to your golden years.

BOB NOLAN—The Sound of A Pioneer. He wrote two of the greatest western standards of all-time, "Cool Water" and "Tumbling Tumbleweeds," as well as hundreds of others. He possesses one of the most unique voices ever put on record and was one of the founding members of the Sons of the Pioneers. He is a true western music legend.

BOB NOLAN—The Sound of A Pioneer The spirit of the American West has been captured in many ways. On film, it is the heroic image of a John Wayne or Gary Cooper. In art, it is the colorful canvas of a Remington or Russell. In music, it is a Bob Nolan song.

More than a songwriter, Nolan wields the pen of a poet and master storyteller. His haunting melodies tell of blue prairies and tumbling tumbleweeds . . . of cool water and lands touched by the hand of God. It is impossible to hear a Bob Nolan composition and not know who wrote it. Like his own distinctive voice, his style of writing is unmistakable.

Simply put, the man is a legend.

His association with the American West began when he moved to Arizona after being born and raised in the Canadian backwoods. The abrupt change of environment had a tremendous impact on the impressionable fourteen year old. He was awed and captivated by the expanse of desert and prairie, which, though apparently desolate, actually teemed with life and beauty. He would often spend hours alone in the desert fascinated by its sights and sounds.

His love for nature's beauty began to manifest itself in western poems Bob wrote for his school newspaper. Later, many of these works became the Nolan songs. Though he decided to pursue a musical career as early as 1929, it wasn't until 1931 that he met with success. He became part of Rocky Mountaineers hillbilly group along with another young man, Leonard Slye. Later, Slye formed another group with Bob and a third member, Tim Spencer, called The Pioneer Trio, which eventually became The Sons of the Pioneers.

Throughout the 1930s, 40s and 50s, the Pioneers became the group singularly most associated with the western song. And with good reason, for aside from the unforgettable Bob Nolan compositions, Tim Spencer and other members penned songs as memorable and melodious today as they were forty years ago. The Pioneers also performed as musical minstrels in over seventy westerns providing songs and accompaniment for such cowboy heroes as Gene Autry, Charles Starrett, Monte Hale and former member, Leonard Slye, better known as Roy Rogers. And, usually, Bob was featured prominently in the screenplay, often in roles assuming the status of co-star. In addition, the Pioneers had their own weekly radio program and made thousands of personal appearances.

In 1949, at the peak of success, Bob Nolan left the Sons of the Pioneers to retire, though he periodically recorded with the group until 1957. Essentially a loner, he was unhappy with the constant pressure forced upon him by his success. At times, he would be home only a few days out of the year, while spending the rest of the year either working in films or on tour. The film work, while offering security and a steady income, often forced Bob to write songs in a single day to fit a shoot-em-up scenario. Worse still, he became disenchanted with himself and his work.

Since leaving the Pioneers, Bob has continued writing. His most recent compositions, while still reflecting his poetic qualities, have an almost transcendental feeling.

Though Bob Nolan had not recorded in over twenty years, THE SOUND OF A PIONEER must rank as one of his finest efforts. The selections in this album give full range to the distinctive Nolan voice. From his own classics, "Cool Water" and "Tumbling Tumbleweeds," to more contemporary country and western songs like "That Old Outlaw Time" and "Can You Hear Those Pioneers," Bob is letter perfect on each song. It is simply hard to believe that the voice you hear belongs to a seventy-one year old man.

It was fascinating to see Bob at work during the recording sessions. Quiet and soft spoken, he rarely blew a take. And between takes, he would lie down in a corner of the studio to rest, his portable tape recorder playing the sounds of a gentle spring rain or the rippling waters of a mountain stream, while some of the most beautiful and poetic music ever written – his music – played back in the studio.

This is Bob Nolan . . . the sound of a pioneer.

"A ballad," Roy Drusky once told me, "is a simple song that has a very important truth to tell. Each of the great ballads that I've heard has a story that you could write a whole book about. I love to listen to ballads and I love to sing them."

Roy's feelings for the ballad will be obvious to you when you hear this album. After putting you in a listening mood with the fast-paced White Lightnin' Express, he turns to eleven of his favorite songs, ballads of course, and sings them in the smooth, gentle style that has made him one of the most famous country and western artists of our time.

Roy's love of the song that speaks the truth dates back to the very first time he picked the strings of a guitar. He was in the Navy then, aboard the USS Toledo, sailing in the Pacific Ocean thousands of miles away from his Georgia home. His only enjoyment during the long days at sea came from listening to the ship's band. Once, on impulse, he spent $19.95 for an old guitar and decided that he too would become a musician. From then on the ship's band performances became even more important to Roy. He watched the leading guitar player night after night, and then went to his own bunk where he patiently tried to imitate the things he had seen the guitarist do. It was the hard way to learn, and it took time. But Roy had a talent that could not be denied; by the time he left the Navy in 1950 he was already composing his own songs. Upon discharge, Roy returned to his career as a minor league baseball player, but after two months he decided to quit the sport. Music had become a serious part of his life and he was determined to concentrate on it from then on.

Now, of course, Roy Drusky is a great recording star and songwriter. He is a full-fledged member of the Grand Ole Opry and one of the leading vocalizers of the famous Nashville Sound. Despite these successes, however, Roy has never forgotten those long hours on board ship when he had turned to a guitar for companionship. And it is not surprising that even today the ballad—the song in remembrance of things past, the song of love and happiness, loss and sadness—is most beautiful of all to Roy Drusky.

The songs for this album were chosen by Roy himself. He considers them to be among the greatest ballads of recent years, and he sings them like no one else can. His special adaptation of the great rhythm and blues hit, Take Me Back, for example, makes you wonder if the song hadn't really been meant for a country and western style in the first place.

Just as an artist like Roy is able to bring out the particular beauty of a song, so is a song sometimes able to demonstrate the unique quality of the artist. It is hard to choose just one number from this album that best shows Roy's greatness. For me, perhaps, it is his soft but moving rendition of the beautiful Green Green Grass Of Home. His clear, straightforward delivery shows the extent of the deep emotional qualities inherent in Roy's mellow voice. The strong feeling that he has for this song is portrayed without any fancy frills. Roy is too honest to use effects that he does not truly feel, and his voice is so good that he needs no such tricks to help him bring out the best in the song. It seems like Green Green Grass Of Home and Roy's talent were made for each other.

Any one of these twelve songs might easily become your favorite. No matter which one you like best, however, you will enjoy hearing all of them time and again.

My congratulations to Roy for another excellent album. It is typical of the highest performance standards that all of us have come to expect from him.

ROY DRUSKY

COUNTRY MUSIC ALL AROUND THE WORLD

Ladies are supposed to have intuition, not men. So I don't know what you'd call this . . . just put any handle you care to that would describe the "I know this boy has got it" feeling I had the first time I ever met Roy Drusky. It was 1958. Roy Drusky came up here to Nashville from Atlanta for his first appearance on the WSM GRAND OLE OPRY.

Now, I've been tramping those boards backstage at the Grand Ole Opry . . . under a good many different titles but they all add up to the same job . . . stage manager . . . since 1935. I've seen the biggest stars of them all. I've seen 'em come and I've seen them fall by the wayside. But when Roy Drusky walked out there the first time, I said to myself, "Vito, that boy is going places!"

I wasn't the only one. Ott Devine, he's general manager of the Opry, told me that Saturday night in 1958, "I'll bet my money on this boy."

Roy Drusky has got something alright.

The quality of his voice is clear and sincere; he's a fine musician; he's a leader who is able to tell his men what he wants in a manner they understand. He's a man who knows what he wants . . . and a man who seems to know what the public wants. When he takes a song to record, you just know it will be a hit by the thoroughness of his selectiveness. He's businesslike. When he's waiting in the wings to go on, he's not thinking about me; he's not thinking about you. . . he's thinking about that song he's going to do.

I guess I am most impressed by the way he handles himself on the stage.

I guess I'm pretty impressed by the way he handles himself off the stage, too

To me, he's one of the finest, clean cut gentlemen I know. I've never heard a person who didn't speak of him in terms of admiration . . . as a man and as a performer with a great ability to sing a song.

Roy is a mature, established star now. He always has a song or two on the hit parade and he has built a legion of fans who are very aware of his fine ability. They know he's not tied to a fad or limited to a gimmick.

But I think this particular album gives Roy more of a chance to show how we he can handle different types of songs.

There's a lot more to be said about this guy Roy Drusky. He's a fellah that was once a disc jockey and almost a baseball player . . . incidentally, Ott Devine made him quit playing baseball after he hit star status . . . Roy was in the Navy, he flies airplanes, raises pet poodle dogs, plays piano and used to play drums in his own band a long time ago. He's strictly family. Loves his wife Bobbye and their two boys, "Twig" and "Tad." I think two of his biggest breaks were marrying Bobbye and getting Hubert Long for a manager (Hubert was tutored by the famed Colonel Tom Parker).

Roy has been on network TV many times on shows like ABC's Jimmy Dean Show, Dick Clark's Bandstand and Jubilee, USA, and he guest stars on all the big C&W shows around the country like the Louisiana Hayride, the Big "D" Jamboree and the Wheeling Jamboree.

He is a big star. A great star

But most of all, he's a good neighbor and one of my best friends

This MERCURY record is the result of the most modern recording techniques in the phonograph industry.

In STEREO — The 12" vinyl disk on which the sound is recorded is cut with two separate but synchronized recordings, one for each channel. The two channels must then be played back with identical characteristics in order to reproduce the original performance. To achieve this, every stereophonic phonograph cartridge is calibrated to the RIAA standard.

In MONO — The master tapes are transferred directly through the finest Ampex 300 series tape machine to a specially designed power amplifier which drives the RIAA standard cutting head. Here, too, the most exacting recording techniques, quality listening on either stereo or monaural phonographs is assured.

In monaural or stereo, your MERCURY record will give you the finest possible reproduction of the artist's art!

Praise The Lord

Almost everything that anyone could desire to have happen to them, has happened to Wanda Jackson. Wanda has been a popular recording star since the age of fourteen, had many hit records, traveled around the world several times, thrilled thousands of audiences, put smiles on many sad faces and songs in many unhappy hearts. What else good could happen to anyone? Well, it is my privilege and pleasure to tell you that something new did happen to Wanda Jackson, and she is a new person; as any of her friends can tell you. Wanda wrote a song in this album entitled "My Testimony," it explains how she became a new and more beautiful person.

It is with a thankful heart to have been present and to have had a small part in seeing Wanda Jackson and Wendell Goodman, her husband and manager, give their lives to the Lord!

Wendell has written a song about the man who changed his life. Wanda sings it here in the album; a really great tune called "He's the Man." Their children, Gina 9, and Greg 7, have written a song entitled "About Jesus" which they sing at some of their mother's personal appearances.

Wanda is always glad to sing at her home church, South Lindsay Baptist, whenever she is asked; which is often to say the least. Wendell and Wanda are very active in their church; considering a busy schedule of concerts, fairs, television, and recording dates, along with their revivals and church rallys. They have a steady stream of requests coming in for Wanda to sing, and she and Wendell give their testimonies at churches across the country.

So, as Wanda's pastor, it is a thrill to hear the songs in this album. I personally enjoyed "Didn't He Shine" so much that I have written a sermon based on that title. Wanda has been asked many times when she was going to record a religious album, and she so truthfully answered, "How could I sing about a person that I did not really know?"

When you listen to this album you will surely say "Praise The Lord."

With a humble heart

David Houston is widely regarded as one of the most promising of the new crop of young country artists now coming along. Although still in his twenties, he has already enjoyed considerable success with a series of single recordings. His "Almost Pursuaded" was the greatest country hit during 1966. He comes to the music business through the auspices of his God-father, the famous recording star of the '20s and '30s, Gene Austin, who taught him to sing. David plays piano and guitar, sings, has been in Little Theater plays in his home area of Shreveport, Louisiana, and has been seen in such movies as "Horse Soldiers," "Carnival Rock" and "Teen Age Kisses." His personal manager is the veteran, Tillman Franks, who brought to prominence such great names as Claude King and the late Johnny Horton.

Alabaman Sonny James is known for his busy personal appearance schedule, heavy bookings in television and for a successful and sustained recording career which includes his all time top hit, "Young Love," which sold close to 2,000,000 copies on Capitol Records. Sonny can trace his first important break in the songwriting-singing business to veteran Nashville guitarist — a. & r. man, Chet Atkins, who introduced him to Ken Nelson, the country records head at Capital Records. Nelson worked with Sonny on "Young Love," which was responsible for his prominence at the top of the heap in the record business not only in country, but in the pop music field as well. He has starred in mediums ranging from New York's famed Palace vaudeville theater to the Ozark Jubilee TV show.

When new acquaintances discover that I do a daily radio show on Nashville's famed "Music Row," I am bombarded with questions about particular entertainers. It seems everyone has a favorite singer who records in Nashville.

One name that pops up frequently is David Houston. I seldom have to answer questions about David, because his fans know more about him than I do.

To prepare these notes, I attempted a little survey to explain why a David Houston fan is a David Houston fan. Being a fan myself, the results were not startling to me, but they were interesting. Although David's fans like him for a variety of reasons, I think they can be narrowed to his distinctive voice quality, his choice of song material, his lyric interpretation and his ability to get the listener involved in his songs.

Billy Sherrill, David's producer and one of Nashville's most prolific songwriters, has assisted in the selection of songs for this album that aptly displays the versatility of David's voice. Some of them have already reached the top of the nation's popularity charts, but the Houston-Sherrill treatment makes it very hard to remember the names of the original performers. You can also enjoy two of David's successful hits: I Do My Swinging At Home and Wonders Of The Wine.

I had an advance copy of this album, and, for a while, I felt pretty important, because I knew something David Houston fans didn't know—the great job he does in this album!

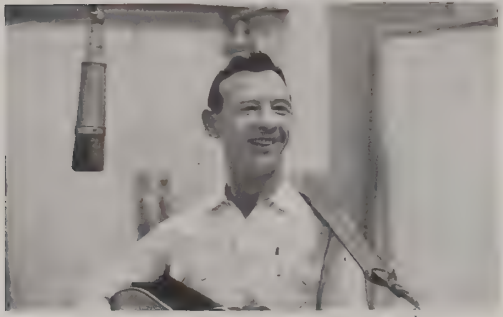
"...bring back thoughts of special people, places and things."



Souvenirs are those keepsakes which bring back thoughts of special people, places and things. They may be intangibles—perhaps memories—or they may be real articles on a shelf reserved for special things. Too, they may be tied with a ribbon and kept in a private place. Some are meaningful only to an individual while others are treasured by many of us. For the many, we present this second collection of Hank Snow souvenirs. It is tied with the bright ribbon of song and intended for your shelf of very special things.

The songs selected represent memorable highlights of Hank's long tenure with RCA Victor records. Among the titles you will no doubt find many of your own favorite songs. Perhaps you will be surprised that any one singer can be responsible for such a long list of hits. Truth is, Hank has had success with so many songs that it is difficult to limit the selections to but one album.

Much of his success may be attributed to the remarkable way he has with any song. He can elicit utmost feeling from a ballad; his story songs are spellbinders, and he is undisputed master of the novelty tongue twister. There is a generous sampling of each type among these souvenirs.

DYNAGROOVE

Dynagroove records are the product of RCA Victor's newly developed system of recording which provides a spectacular improvement in the sound quality.

CHARACTERISTICS

1. Brilliance and clarity – the original sound in startling definition
2. Realistic presence – sound projected in "photographic" perspective
3. Full-bodied tone – even when you listen at low level
4. Surface noise virtually eliminated
5. Inner-groove distortion virtually eliminated

To solve these old and obstinate problems in disc recording, highly ingenious computers "electronic brains"—have been introduced to audio for the first time. These remarkable new electronic devices and processes grew out of an intense research program which produced notable advances in virtually every step of the recording science.

The final test of any record is in the listening experience, the sound of Dynagroove recordings!

Faron Young

Through a series of mutually favorable circumstances, Faron Young somehow managed to be born in Shreveport, Louisiana. That was fortunate indeed for Faron, since it enabled him to begin at an early period in his life with his chosen career of country music-making, thanks to the presence in Shreveport of one of the most famous country music stations of all, KWKH, home of the renowned Louisiana Hayride Show. Right out of high school, Faron won a featured role on the show.

In another sense, his Shreveport birthplace was fortunate not only for Faron himself, but for that whole legion of country music fans, for whom Faron has come to mean, over the years — the true image of country music as it should be sung. For where else indeed might such a talent have attained such quick recognition and a chance to perform on a major country music showcase?

Nowhere else, probably, but Nashville, Tenn., home of the Grand Ole Opry, to which Faron eventually found his way. The Opry beckoned, quite simply, because youthful Faron Young, age 19, had come up with a series of important record hits like "Tattle Tale Tears," "Have I Waited Too Long," "Live Fast, Love Hard, Die Young," and "If You Ain't Loving, You Ain't Living."

Since 1951, Faron has been an Opry star of the first magnitude, taking only enough time out to serve from 1952 to 1954 with Uncle Sam. His musical talent won for Faron an Army talent show on ABC-TV, and he soon found himself on a two-year junket entertaining troops around the world. Faron also picked up an Army recruiting show on radio, which ran on 2,000 stations across the land.

Songwriter and singer, Faron has also been active in motion pictures. At one point his handsome face and persuasive country singing style could be seen and heard with Bruce Bennett in "Daniel Boone," and with Ferlin Husky and Zsa Zsa Gabor in "Country Music Holiday."

Today, Faron is a happy homebody, or at least he comes as close to being that as any internationally successful country music star is ever likely to be. At home and off the road, Faron enjoys just being with his family and an occasional flurry of hunting and fishing, all of which simply reflects his rural background.

Born in February 1932, Faron was exposed to country ways almost from the start. His father acquired a dairy farm soon after Faron's birth and Faron recalls the cattle in the fields as his very first audience, whom he haltingly picked out the first chords he ever learned on a guitar. In Shreveport's Park High School, Faron formed his own band in which he played guitar and sang, and soon became the best known new young performer in the whole area. His strong local reputation earned him his spot on the KWKH Hayride Show and later he became the featured singer with Webb Pierce's band as it toured throughout the South.

That briefly, is the Faron Young story. But in a larger sense, he tells his own story in the great songs he sings. Here are some of the best performances of all by Faron Young, songs with meaning and sincerity, delivered in the talented tones of the one and only, the truly distinctive and distinguished country music star, Faron Young!

The Best Of GLENN BARBER

Ah, that elusive, effervescent, intangible thing called "Stardom." What is it that sets one singer from another, what quality of talent or voice causes one performer to be worshipped and idolized by millions while another performer is condemned to perpetually display his talents in the obscurity of the local tavern.

If I could truly analyze those etheral nuances of talent that allow a singer to be a star, if I could reduce to a mathematical formula the components that go into a recorded song that makes it a "hit" song, I would be so wealthy you would have to have an appointment to write me a letter.

No, I don't know what it is. But, whatever it is, Glenn Barber has it.

Is it just that he can sing better than most? He can. Is it just that he is an excellent musician? He is. Does his dark hair, handsome face, and sturdy build have anything to do with it? I don't know, but he has all that.

Is it, perhaps, his enlightened understanding of people, his insight into their motives, emotions, loves, hates and hurts, that give Glenn Barber the necessary attributes to be a big star. I suspect this has something to do with it, and he certainly has all that, too.

Whatever it is, Glenn Barber has it and you'll hear it in this album. Try it and see.

HYMN TIME

From a share cropper's cabin to the Governor's mansion of Louisiana, such is the success story of colorful Jimmie Davis.

One of a family of eleven children from the red hills of North Louisiana, he became the Governor of Louisiana; the composer of such national song hits as "You Are My Sunshine," "Nobody's Darlin';" the star of a fabulous Hollywood picture "Louisiana;" and a top recording star in the musical world.

Jimmie's first love is singing, and he prefers the Gospel and Sacred songs. Not only has he appeared in singing concerts, TV and radio programs all over the nation, but he has enjoyed speaking to church audiences of all faiths throughout the country. A lifetime would not give him enough days to respond to the calls he has to sing and speak at various churches. He considers these invitations among the greatest personal compliments he has ever received.

JIMMIE DAVIS

Having grown up as a poor farm boy, an experience of which he is proud, Jimmie says he never wants to be removed too far from that atmosphere. He owns and operates a Louisiana farm and ranch in which he is always very interested. Along with his farming, personal appearances and musical interests, he considers outdoor recreation very vital to his health and takes time out to do a certain amount of hunting and fishing.

Ever since his graduation from Louisiana State University, Jimmie has made his home in Shreveport, where he lives with his wife Alvern and their son Jim. He says that his greatest regret is that he can't spend every day at home with his family.

Here is "Hymn Time," a group of Sacred and Gospel songs that Jimmie Davis has recorded for the first time. He sings them with a devotional sincerity and straightforwardness that will touch every heart.

The average person's chances of becoming a top star in the world of entertainment are about a million to one. The odds on becoming Governor of any one of our fifty states are almost as slim. And the probability of a man striving for either one of these far off goals, not to speak of both, without sacrificing any of his devotion to God or his family, is almost zero.

James Houston Davis, twice Governor of Louisiana; Jimmie Davis, singer, song-writer and one of the most popular recording stars in the country; Jimmie Davis, loving husband and father... all one man, believe it or not.

And Jimmie Davis can explain it all in one surprisingly simple word, faith... the same kind of comforting and strengthening faith that gives his performance of these wonderful songs such meaningful power and inspirational beauty.

Much of Jimmie Davis' career mirrors the traditional American dream. The "rags to riches" theme; the poor farm boy who became Governor of the state of Louisiana, is part and parcel of the Jimmie Davis story. What is perhaps all the more remarkable, however, is that Jimmie Davis rose to eminence in more than one field. In addition to his talent as a singer, being one of the nation's outstanding recording artists, he has also been notably successful as a songwriter.

How does one reach the top in these varied endeavors? To state that Davis had manifold abilities is one answer. But he had, and continues to have, something else: faith. And, it is this faith in matters of the spirit, this belief in man and his essential religious nature, that shines out in his songs and makes his recorded performances touch the hearts of all who hear them.

Born in Quitman, Louisiana, he grew up close to the soil and early in life developed a passion for singing. The songs he loves best are the sacred and gospel songs—a preference which is reflected in the many albums he has recorded for Decca, such as Hymn Time, Songs Of Faith, Someone Watching Over You—and now Beyond The Shadows.

Jimmie Davis has given numerous concerts, radio and television performances, and he has appeared as a singer and speaker before many church groups.

As a songwriter too, he has reached the hearts of the people with such notable compositions as "You Are My Sunshine" and "Nobody's Darlin' But Mine."

For an insight into the heart and mind of Jimmie Davis, we offer this album, with its moving performances of "When The Morning Comes," "Until Then," "Take The Hand Of A Pilgrim" and other songs of devotion and faith.

They call it "Ingredients for a Nervous Breakdown." Take a family of 35 or so members. Pile them into a plane or bus. Add complete wardrobes (four or five costumes per person) plus regular luggage (adding up to about 150 pieces). Stir in ten or fifteen staff members (key musicians, wardrobe handlers, electricians and sound engineers, transportation experts, publicity men and program salesmen). Arrange for hotel accommodations for this large a group for a Summer tour of twelve to fifteen weeks. Figure out how to feed them . . . and you become a candidate for battle fatigue.

Of course, there are assorted side problems, too. How to find overnight diaper service on one-nighters. What to wear when an airlines strike makes it impossible to get wardrobe trunks out of Denver for three days, and the Family's appearing in Connecticut. How to set up efficient quarantine facilities when Chicken Pox hits the bus. And who sings the melody when the one who's supposed to missed the plane in Vancouver and it's opening night in Atlanta.

That's a brief glimpse of The King Family on tour. But somehow at the last minute, they are on stage, ready to go, and in the last two years have appeared in almost half of the states in this country. Perhaps you've been one of those who have seen them. If so, you will recognize this album, which shows them "on location." It's subtitled "In The Round," because that's where they seem to show off best . . . perhaps because there are so many of them that they can circle the complete stage holding hands.

Obviously, The King Family can't put its entire two-and-a-half hour performance on one album. They've tried to select songs and dialogue that form the highlights. Some of the other songs performed on stage are included in other King Family albums. Among these songs are "The Square," "When Are You Going to Learn," "When the Saints Come Marching in," "Love at Home," and several others. They can be located in the following Warner Bros. albums: The King Family Show (W/WS 1601); The King Family Album (W/WS 1627); Christmas with The King Family (W/WS 1627); Sunday with The King Family (W/WS 1633)

A few special notes: One of the real show-stoppers on tour is Bob Clarke's recitation of "The Men in My Little Girl's Life." It includes quite a cast of girls from the family in telling the story. In order of performance, they are Laurette, Susannah, Xan, Carol, Cathy, and Candy.

If you think, when you hear The King Cousins' version of "The Telephone Hour" (from Bye, Bye Birdie) that you've heard them do it before, you're right. Several of The Cousins sang on the soundtrack of the motion picture.

In this album, you get an entire act by both Alvino Rey and by The King Sisters. With Alvino, you hear not only his regular guitar but also his steel-talking guitar, and then finally his banjo.

The King Sisters talk and sing their way through almost fifteen minutes of their stage presentation, starting with "Yesterday" (from The Beatles repertoire) down through solos by Vonnie and Alyce, and ending with the fabulous imitations by Marilyn on "Everything's Coming Up Roses," where she treats you to versions by Ethel Merman Lena Horne, Sarah Vaughan, Carol Channing, Judy Garland, and Louis Armstrong (right near the end she throws in a few bars of singing and whistling by Mrs. Miller.) Incidentally, Marilyn's husband, Ken Larsen, is featured on trombone along with The King Sisters in their version of "Lassus Trombone." If you think you've heard this arrangement before, you may have: it's based on the famous Warren Barker arrangement for ten trombones on the Warner Bros. album, "Power-Packed Trombones" (W/WS 1272)

And so you have it. America's first musical family . . . at their most alive . . . singing, talking, playing "in the round." It's a show that's broken attendance records from California to Maine. It could do the same on your own phonograph.

THE TALENT THAT IS CONNIE SMITH

In this writer's opinion, Connie Smith is the greatest female artist in country music today. In the studio, outlined against a background of perforated soundproof walls, the talent that is Connie Smith comes to life in every recording session. This collection of songs from Connie's past sessions is bound to be a favorite of yours — as it is of mine.

Actually, the first thing to establish about Connie Smith is — if there really is one! She is country music's answer to the Cheshire cat in "Alice in Wonderland." That's the cat whose grin kept getting bigger and bigger until it obliterated the cat itself. If you can imagine a grin with no earthly emanation, you have some idea of Connie Smith's voice. It is so strong, so resonant, so vibrant that there is a tendency to feel that it, too, has obliterated its earthly source. The only thing this leaves us with, then, is a heavenly source. Like, say, an angel.

Connie Smith has cornered the market on talent to such a point that I'm told the trustbusters are investigating her. She's country music's equivalent to AT&T. She's liable to get in trouble on the thievery docket, too, for "stealing" hearts. (For instance, when Connie sings I'll Be There (If You Ever Want Me), you try not to lose your heart to her. She'd wind up in jail for grand larceny if it weren't for one thing. Nobody will press charges.

Furthermore, your emotions are in danger when the Smith girl takes off on a song. Her solid emotion-packed delivery on selections like Ain't Had No Lovin' and Two Empty Arms will leave you breathless.

Besides having a tremendous emotional appeal going for her, Connie Smith's range is truly remarkable. Her high notes are — I think the expression is "out of sight." And low notes? Connie handles them without so much as a sign of stress or strain. What's more, she doesn't just sing these notes. She explodes them. It's as if this lovely lady swallowed gunpowder — followed by a chaser of nectar! Clarity? Pealing bells envy our Connie.

Emotion, range, explosiveness, clarity — these are only a few of the facets of Connie Smith's sparkling talent. While I could go on forever I know you'd rather listen to Connie than read me! So I have to draw the line somewhere in my praise of her talents, and I'll draw it by saying this: if, by some chance, I were never to hear another singer, I could always say that I had heard Connie Smith. To me that is sufficient.

JAZZ is a feeling rather than statement. An unmistakable feeling of self expression, of independence, of the individual speaking and living in harmony with his fellow men. This is a feeling which can be communicated.

Jazz appreciation is not limited to social or economic groups. Jazz is for everybody, for everyone who will listen.

The scope of jazz has widened as it has spontaneously developed contrapuntal melodies. Jazz has an important story to tell; as such innovators as 'John Lewis, Charlie Parker, Thelonious Monk and John "Dizzy" Gillespie' have all given to its telling—a structure, an intellectual appeal rivaling its emotional impact. Their contributions have made jazz a rich and fertile music, exciting, alive and stimulating, to the mind as well as to the heart. The contributions to jazz did not stop with the aforementioned, but you will find it to be ever increasing.

Young men and women are improvising, drawing from many sources, blending and putting into jazz something that was not there before . . . but never losing the source, the blues.

The young man today most qualified of the above mention is . . . Ramsey E. Lewis Jr. who was born in Chicago just 26 years ago. Ramsey has a background most musicians envy.

His studies started at the tender age of six. He continued to equip himself at De Paul University where he also became a student of the classics and thus the leader of the Ramsey Lewis Trio was born.

This trio (and I might add, is the most popular in the country today) consists of bass and cello player extraordinary, Eldee Young, who is also from Chicago.

The brilliant drummer, from Rosedale, Mississippi, raised in Chicago, is Isaac "Red" Holt. Three of the most brilliant minds ever applied to jazz.

The Ramsey Lewis Trio find themselves in a setting not familiar to some but one which find the group right at home, with the blues—and a little country feeling added for flavor.

Here, Ramsey has the assistance of strings and voices, under the leadership of Lew Douglas, and a very unique brass section lead by none other than Oliver Nelson. The "treatments" you will find to be indescribably beautiful. String and voices may lead you to believe that the group doesn't swing . . . quite the contrary . . . Ramsey is in full charge all the way and SWINGS. The group swings extra hard on "My Bucket's Got A Hole In It", making for smooth dancing and very commercial. Another highlight of the set is the trio's confession of "I Just Want To Make Love To You". The trio is into a great groove with Eldee on Cello and out front all the way.

This is Ramsey Lewis utilizing Country and Blues, as a truly soulful music to underline a variety of musical situations as only Ramsey Lewis can do it, BEAUTIFUL.

Sweet Dixie

Carl Jackson

I've lived a lot of life
I'll bet there's not a place I haven't been
And if heaven's here on earth
Then I know without a doubt
That the sweet sunny south is where it's at

Sweet Dixie I'm a comin' home to you
I can't tell ya' how I've missed you from the start
There's not another place on earth
I know I'd rather be
So Dixie I'm a headin' for your heart

There's nothin' quite the same
As fishin' with a cane
And wanderin' in at dusk with your catch
Then hungry as a hound
At the table you'd sit down
To sink your teeth in biscuits from the scratch

At night they'd gather 'round
I rom in and out of town
And Daddy'd gladly get his guitar out
And still when things are quiet
[illegible]

I can hear that Martin ringing through the south

Livin' With The Past

Carl Jackson

By the side of the road
Bout six miles out of town
Stood a house in need of repair
And in the evenings 'bout four
When I got in home from school
Without fail he'd be sitting there

And all the townfolks said he'd lived there for years
To me he always seemed so sad
And a growin' boy wondered how
[illegible]
Why that's enough to drive you mad

My mind used to wander
Back and forth with ideas
Like the pace of his old rocking chair
And at dusk when I'd see him
Get up and go inside
I knew that my answer must be there

So I crept beside the front room window
And I carefully looked in through the glass
And a growin' boy found out how [illegible]
He was livin' with the past

He sat there for awhile
Just starin' at the wall
A thousand memories in his glare
And then he reached to take
A faded picture from its place
It almost seemed that someone else was there

The likeness was a lady
As beautiful as life
Her presence almost was real
And as he held her picture
A tear came to his eye
I knew just what he must feel

[illegible]

Ever and ever's the way I thought it would be Lovin' like livin' as far ahead as I could see
I never thought it would end
And I'd sell my soul to be with you again
Forever and ever and ever and evermore

Never no never would you be doin' me wrong
I took you for granted you changed the name
[illegible] of that song
I never thought it could be
Then all at once you put the hurt on me
Forever and ever and ever and evermore

You leavin' took me completely by surprise
I wish to God you'd found a better way
[illegible]

Ever and ever's the way I thought it would be Lovin' like livin' as far ahead as I could see
I never thought you would go
And now I know that I'll be missin' you so
Forever and ever and ever and evermore

I Never Thought I'd Wake (To Find Her Gone)

[illegible]

Last night was the same old thing again
'Two hours late and she's wonderin' where I'd been
I gave my usual story I've been giving for so long
'Cause I never thought I'd wake to find her gone

Now dear, you know the work is just stacked upon
my desk
It's so hard to get a minute's rest
I said the line was busy when I tried to telephone
'Cause I never thought I'd wake to find her gone

I'd heard her say she couldn't take no more
And I guess she proved it to me
When she walked right out the door

It seems my story was worn out
I'd used it for so long
Still I never thought I'd wake to find her gone

Anyone Is No One

Carl Jackson and T. J. Kuenster

Someone's not holding me tonight
No words or touch to make it right
Someone would be here if I phoned
I don't have to spend the night alone

A smile would be right over
But I would see right through
Anyone is no one after you

Someone would be here if they knew
I'm so alone and feeling blue
They'd surely bring me comfort
But soon I'd face the truth
Anyone is no one after you

SIDE TWO

Old Friends

Carl Jackson

I've been lookin' back in time
At a place so near to me
Yesterday
And I've been searchin' for the lines
That would carry me back
For just a day

And I would plunge
Into the deep end of the river
I'd trade my fortune for a dime
Just to gather in the big house on the corner
And spend a little time
With those old friends of mine

I've been wantin' you to know
That I can understand
What has to be
And I know it's gone but even so
I'm still wondering
If you ever think of me

I've been thinking lately of them
I wonder if they ever think of me

Mom let's go
I can't wait any longer
They're all countin' on me
Ya know yesterday I hit a homer
I never thought it would end
But it did
I'll never clear those bases again,
Again, never again

Well they're gone, yes they're gone
Yes they're gone forever
Oh they're gone, yes they're gone,
[illegible]

What I Was Before

Carl Jackson

Your questionnaire from miles away
Is still ringing in my ears
I'd almost talk again
But just can't lift the phone
The pressure of your constant doubt
Is building more and more
And your voice searchin' for a lie
Has wore me to the bone

I'd like to take you back again
And give it one more try
But nothing goes past the point of no return
If we could roll back time
Then maybe this could all be changed
But ya' know we all are meant
To spend some time to learn

This could be the last time
No sweet heat from me
This guy may not hold what you're lookin' for I'll be touchin' down to happiness
Wherever it may be
I'll be headin' back to what I was before

If we could do it all again
Then maybe it would change
A little bit of trust could go a long way
'Cause Atlantic City looks
Will always turn my head around
But no jealous beauty queen
Will ever make me stay

Footprints In The Snow

Kerry Hatch

Now some folks like the summertime
When they can walk about
Strolling through the meadow green
It's pleasant there's no doubt
But just give me the wintertime
When the snow is on the ground
For I found her when the snow was on the ground

I traced her little footprints in the snow
I found her little footprints in the snow
Lord, I bless that happy day
That Nellie lost her way
For I found her when the snow was on the ground

From in and out of town
And Daddy'd gladly get his guitar out

It was May of 1964 and I was working a show at Anderson, South Carolina. We were booked at the local fairgrounds and the show starred the Wilburn Bros., Loretta Lynn, who was still in the up-and-coming category, and Bill Anderson and the Po Boys. With the Bill Anderson Show was a new girl singer, who since coming into my life, has become one of my treasured friends.

Bill introduced me to Connie Smith, a diminutative girl singer he had discovered at a Country Music park near Columbus, Ohio. I was then to introduce her to the audience at the show. I am a "show study" and so for her debut in professional Country Music show business I said, "Ladies and Gentlemen . . . a real pretty little girl from Ohio (etc.), Miss Carol Smith."

I blew Connie's introduction and her performance blew my mind!

This was just before she recorded "ONCE A DAY" in July of 1964.

She was the Cinderella gal of the year. The record was so hot it went No.1, and at the Fall Convention in Nashville, Connie was given the award for being "Most Promising Girl Singer of the Year."

In the past ten years, Connie has proved time and again that she has the talent and the songs that people keep wanting to hear.

From my vantage point in Nashville, there have been two singers that seemed from the very beginning to have the talent to be big stars. The first was Connie Smith and the second was the recent entry into the field of Country Music by Johnny Rodriguez. Both were instant stars. (A Ralph Emery opinion and I shouldn't leave out Tanya Tucker, so let's make it three.)

Most of you know Connie and her dynamic way with a song.

She is in real life Mrs. Marshall Haines and very happily married with a brand new baby girl to be baby sister to Connie's two older boys.

Connie is deeply religious; the only time I've seen her a "little shook" on stage was when she had to perform in front of Rev. Billy Graham at the National Prayer Breakfast in Washington. Her religion is very real.

This album is full of Connie Smith "jewels." I recommend Harlan Howard's old song, "THE KEY'S IN THE MAILBOX," Warner Mack's evergreen "I'LL STILL BE MISSING YOU," and I'm sure Connie would want you to listen to "I WISH WE'D ALL BEEN READY."

In all these years of being called Connie's friend, this is my first opportunity to do her liner notes which gives me the personal pleasure of again introducing Connie Smith to the world. I love you Connie . . .

12 GREAT HITS

TOM DOOLEY – Here is another victim of love's eternal triangle. He is hanged for shooting his rival.

HE'S GOT THE WHOLE WORLD IN HIS HANDS – This is a happy, hand-clapping gospel tune which assures us the Lord has, you and me brother, the little bittie birdie, the little tiny baby and even the whole wide world in his hands.

OLD SHEP – I'd like to dedicate this ballad to everyone who has known the love and devotion of a dog. To those of you who have not had this experience, this story might be confusing, but listen to it anyway.

SIXTEEN TONS – A coal miner relates, "You load 16 tons and what do you get, another day older and deeper in debt." This one is from the magic pen of Merle Travis and was one of the biggest and fastest selling records of all time when recorded by Tennessee Ernie Ford.

I'M MOVING ON – Written and made very famous by a truly great artist, Hank Snow In this song the fellow is fed up with the triflin' ways of his girl friend so he's movin' on.

THE FOOL – This ole boy is drinking a toast to himself 'cause too late he realizes he is the fool that just told his baby good-bye.

THE BALLAD OF DAVY CROCKETT – Davy Crockett is a name that is as American as country ham and red-eye gravy. Davy was born in Tennessee, raised there and fought Indians there. He eventually wound up at the Alamo where he was killed. Here is his life story in song

DARLING NELLY GRAY – Perhaps the only full length version of the age old favorite. It tells the heart breaking story of parted lovers. One small consolation – even death cannot destroy their love.

THE OLD LAMPLIGHTER – He walks down the street with a smile on his face to hide his lonely heart. If there are sweethearts in the park he leaves the lamp dark, for he recalls when dreams were new, he loved someone who loved him, too, who walks with him in memory.

RUNNING BEAR – The young Indian Brave and Indian maiden have a love so strong, they attempt to swim the raging river which separates them, and as their lips meet, the current pulls them down and at last they are together in the Happy Hunting Ground.

EL PASO – The great western classic, written and first made popular by Marty Robbins, tells of the plight of a young cowboy who killed a man while making a bid for the love of the Mexican dancer Felina. He escapes, but his love for her brings him back and he is shot by the posse and killed.

THE THREE BELLS – This great hit of French origin tells in three verses the story of the birth, love, marriage and death of Jimmy Brown.

Dorsey Burnette, voted the "Most Promising Male Newcomer of 1973" by the Academy of Country Music, offers more than just the promise of good music, he produces good music. He is the composer of more than 600 songs, including his gold singles "Tall Oak Tree," "Hey Little One" and "Big Rock Candy Mountain."

Dorsey is also responsible for a string of million sellers he wrote for Ricky Nelson during the height of his recording career. Along with Rick Nelson, many other performers have enjoyed major chart successes with Burnette songs, including Glen Campbell, Stevie Wonder, Brook Benton, Brenda Lee and Waylon Jennings.

A native of Memphis, Tennessee, Dorsey broke into the music business with his brother Johnny on the "Ted Mack Amateur Hour" where they won top honors four consecutive times. They formed the Johnny Burnette Trio in the late 50's, recording several albums which are now considered collector's items.

Dorsey launched his solo career in the 1960's with "Tall Oak Tree," the first ecology song to be recorded. "Magnificent Sanctuary Band" is another one of his major chart successes since the start of his solo career.

This album, "The Golden Hits of Dorsey Burnette" contains all the favorites that you will be sure to enjoy forever.

EDDY ARNOLD

In the dozen or so years since Eddy Arnold got his first taste of national fame as the "Tennessee Plowboy," his relaxed, easy singing style has taken him from the field of country music—in which he started and where he won quick acclaim as an unchallenged top talent—to a position in which he can now only be categorized, without any qualifying limitations, as simply "a singer." He is still the unusually sensitive interpreter of country songs that he was at the start but he is now just as much at home with the pop tunes that are not usually associated with country singers, with rhythm songs, with novelties and even with songs for children.

His ability to spread out in this fashion is due partly to the fact that he has a "natural" voice.

"He just naturally sings right," says Steve Scholes, an RCA executive who has guided most of Arnold's recording sessions. "It's an unusual quality. Caruso had it and so has Bing Crosby, but they're the only ones I can think of besides Eddy."

Natural talent is only one element contributing to Eddy's success. He is a notoriously hard worker. When he has a recording date coming up, he literally goes into training. For at least two weeks beforehand he refuses all bookings, gets up early to work on his farm outside Nashville where he lives in a modest rambling house with his wife and two children, and is in bed every night by nine.

He is equally painstaking about the material he records. He insists that a song must be exactly right or he won't use it.

"I like a simple ballad where the lyrics lay it right on the line," he once said. "I want it to move me. And I'll admit that sometimes I'm pretty hard to move."

He recorded one tune five times over a period of seven years before he got a "take" that satisfied him. This meticulousness is reflected in the songs he has chosen for this collection. Four of them—That's How Much I Love You, Wabash Cannon Ball, Kisses Sweeter Than Wine and Singing the Blues—are well established parts of his repertory. But rather than depending on old versions of these hits, as he might have, he recorded them in new versions in June, 1958, especially for this RCA Camden album.

That's How Much I Love You is, of course, the song that started Eddy on the road to success. It was his first big recorded hit when he originally made it in 1946 for RCA. In its first year it sold 650,000 copies, a very impressive sale for a newcomer at a time when million sellers were still so infrequent that they were looked on with genuine awe. It was this tune that, unbeknownst to everyone at the time, pointed the direction in which Eddy Arnold would grow and develop, for That's How Much I Love You was one of the very first country tunes to be picked up and recorded by most of the top singers in the pop field.

In the years that followed, Eddy continued to turn up songs that were taken up by pop singers—Eddie Fisher got his theme, Anytime, from an Arnold recording. At the same time Arnold's own records were finding an audience far beyond what was usually considered the market for country singers. In 1955, Eddy took an obvious step—he added material from the pop repertory to all the other kinds of songs he sings, and he proved immediately that the "natural" voice which had done so well in other types of music was equally serviceable on pop material.

Most of the other songs in this collection are recordings by Arnold which have never before been made available. They offer an illuminating cross-section of the varied kinds of tunes he sings—the lively humor of Take a Tiger by the Tail, the toe-tapping, swinging beat in How Did You Know, the essentially pop type of song such as Do You Miss Me, the blue but philosophical What a Way to Die and the country-styled morality song represented by The Mills of the Gods. Beyond this they show how astute Eddy is in picking his tunes—in picking the ones that suit his own down-to-earth, unpretentious style.

This down-to-earth quality is one of the clues to Eddy Arnold's ability to cover so wide a scope. From the very start, he has never pretended to be anything that he is not. He is, quite literally, a "Tennessee Plowboy." He was brought up on a small farm in western Tennessee. His father, a fiddle player who also sang bass in the church choir, was a dirt farmer. It was to get away from the family plow that Eddy got a job on a Jackson, Tennessee, radio station, "singing and banging a guitar," as he says. Since then, he has never put on airs of any kind. In his early days he avoided the flashy costumes worn by many country singers; he sang in a straightforward, natural voice instead of developing attention-getting mannerisms, and he has grown from there with the unaffected honesty of the true artist. He lives with sincerity and sings with sincerity—a sincerity that makes his songs true and real to everyone who hears them.

An RCA Victor Statement
about RCA Camden Records
by G. R. Marek, Vice-President and General Manager
RCA Victor Record Division

"We are proud of the opportunity to make great music by great artists available to millions by virtue of the low prices of RCA Camden Records. Were it not for the co-operation of artists such as the late Arturo Toscanini, Guy Lombardo, the Boston Pops and Symphony Orchestra, Leonard Bernstein, Count Basie, Hugo Winterhalter, Henri René, Perry Como and many, many others, RCA Camden Records could not be . . . for it is only in their willingness to have their music available at these prices that RCA Camden can exist.

"It is the desire of RCA Victor that the public be assured that the same high standards used in the production of RCA Victor Records have also been used in the manufacture of RCA Camden Records."

Bill Anderson has been on top in the music business for more than fifteen years…as a disc jockey, as a songwriter, and as a recording artist and performer.

His records have sold in the millions…his compositions recorded by everybody from Bing Crosby to Aretha Franklin…from Lawrence Welk to Jerry Lee Lewis…from Wayne Newton to The Osborne Brothers.

He's been the star of his own syndicated television show for nine years and has guested on every show from Captain Kangaroo to Dinah Shore…from The Today Show to Hee-Haw.

He's toured the world, shaken hands with Presidents, and has appeared in person at virtually every "cake-walk, county fair, and goat-ropin'" in existence.

When people try to figure out what makes him run…what makes him tick…they only need to look at his birth-date to find the answer. He was born on November 1st.

That makes Bill Anderson a Scorpio.

Scorpio, you know who you are. You are the sexiest sign in the Zodiac. (alright!)

You have a way of recharging your battery that provides you with an inexhaustible supply of energy, light, and power. (especially on a bus around 3 am)

Scorpio…of all the signs of the Zodiac…is the healer. You have the power to shape destiny…to turn liability into asset…to conquer all adversity. You are self-directed with a will of steel. Nothing can interfere with your master plan. If things look grim up ahead…or even hopeless…you still go bravely ahead. (now that comes in handy)

For only you know that beyond the cocoon the butterfly emerges and flies free. (ain't that wonderful)

Few people ever called Bill Anderson the greatest singer in the world. But few can deny his charisma…the soulful way he interprets a lyric…and no one can deny his success.

Buddy Killen first saw the potential in Bill Anderson and brought him to the attention of Decca (now MCA) Records. Killen was highly instrumental in the label signing Anderson to a one-year contract…a pact that now extends through 1981.

In 1976, Killen became Anderson's record producer and immediately scored with two smash hits…"Peanuts & Diamonds" and "Liars One — Believers Zero".

This is his first complete album as Bill's producer…and it's DYNAMITE!

Bill and Buddy work hand-in-hand in the studio…sometimes until the morning sun rises over the Tennessee countryside.

Buddy is the President of Nashville's largest music publishing company…Tree International.

He doesn't need to be in the studio all day and all night producing Bill Anderson's (or anybody else's) records. His pockets are full and his future is secure.

Why does he do it?? His birthday is November 12th. That makes him a Scorpio. Need we say more??????

WHAT IS ARRANGERS' PUBLISHING COMPANY?

Basically, we're a couple of former band directors who, over the years, have had our share of problems finding good marching charts. During a temporary lapse of sanity, we decided to go into publishing, seeking out the best arrangements, by the most talented arrangers, and making them available to bands around the country.

Next, we decided to produce the highest quality recording in the business, enjoyable to listen to, with clear, realistic representations of each tune.

Our arrangers receive the most generous royalties in the industry. We're proud of this, because we feel that in the marching band arena, the arranger is still the hero.

Our concept of publishing one copy per part has met with wide approval. This year we have reduced our prices, to allow for your cost of multiple copying. We include specific written permission for you to reproduce parts for your band's exact needs. We think this is the fairest, most sensible way to publish band music, because it acknowledges the basic fact of life: ALL BANDS DO NOT HAVE THE SAME INSTRUMENTATION.

For your convenience, we will be happy to cooperate with your local dealer in any way possible. You may still call or write us to order, and be assured of immediate delivery.

Thanks to your suggestions, we now publish bari sax parts, and all parts are 1 or 2 pages maximum whenever possible. Solos are written out, and often cross-cued.

As always, your comments and thoughts are most welcome. Have a great year, and we hope you enjoy the records.

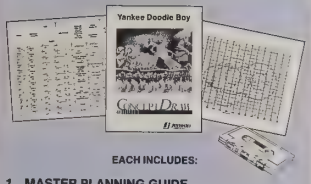
Series

DRILL CREATION PACKS

The easiest way to get a clean, contemporary look for your drills . . . let "Chops" do the difficult part. These are drills that truly maximize the visual potential of our music, and are carefully constructed for ease of charting, teaching and performing.

HOW DOES HE DO IT?

After designing the drills for texture, color and musical flow, Gary draws all formations and shapes to a medium scale on Jenson State of the Art Drill Design Paper. All moves are precisely timed to counts in the music. He then records the Audio Tape Tutorial, guiding you step-by-step through the final charting of the drill, which you may do manually or by computer. At this point, shapes can be expanded or reduced to fit your instrumentation.



EACH INCLUDES:

1. MASTER PLANNING GUIDE
   Complete syllabus with counts, timing, interpretation of textures and voices to be presented
2. FLOW CHARTS
   Medium-scale drawings of each shape, featuring clear designs for the motion and direction of transitions. Easy to adjust for your size of band
3. AUDIO TAPE TUTORIAL
   A count-for-count explanation to assist you in problem-free charting of the drills, either by hand or by computer. Also, methods for teaching it to your students.

Dear Crew Member,

I am a firm believer that the strength of McDonald's is our crew. That is why I wanted to be personally involved in the production of this specially recorded Soundsheet. It was created just for you and contains a message from me plus a lot of great music that will become a very important part of McDonald's image.

When you finish listening to the Soundsheet, I am certain that your role as a member of a McDonald's crew will take on greater significance for you. I really believe that nobody has a crew like McDonald's.

Sincerely yours,

Well, Conway, old friend, here we are! Every country hit parade or chart I see lately has one of your Decca records or albums on it; and knowing how much you love country music, I know how happy you are about it.

I remember back some years ago when we met. You had just had a multi-million seller called It's Only Make Believe and many other pop and rock-and-roll hits, and when you sat me down and sang me all those fine little country songs you had written, and talked about how much you dug Ray Price and George Jones, and how you wished you could be a country artist, it really knocked me out. Later on I heard many times where you and your band had driven hundreds of miles out of your way to catch a country show; and, in fact, I was there once and sat out front with you, and saw how much you enjoyed our down-to-earth type of music.

With all these thoughts in mind, it was no problem to go to Owen Bradley at Decca Records and play him some of your country demos; and Owen, being a very sharp individual, heard what I heard, and felt like I did, that the country fans and disk jockeys would welcome you with open arms. And it has come to pass.

It is a great feeling to make a plan that works and have a dream that comes true. I know you are much more thrilled with your success nowadays than you ever were before; and knowing how many country songs you used to do on your shows before, I know you haven't even had to change your programming, except to add your own country hits.

To you fans out there, give this young man a close listen; he has soul, he is real, and he is a welcome addition to our little community. One of these days, when he appears in your neighborhood, go and see him. You'll be glad you did. Also, say howdy to "The Lonely Blue Boys," Joe E. Lewis, bass and tenor singer; Tommy (Pork Chop) Markham, on drums; Lew Houston, steel; and Denny Rice, on piano... they're a fine little group who give their all to entertain and will send you home with that 'money's worth' feeling.

Welcome home, Conway. You took the long way around, but you're here now; and you can spend the rest of your life writing and singing what you really like, very successfully. So, go get 'em,old buddy!

YOUR FRIEND,
HARLAN HOWARD

Hank Snow

Here and now in this striking album set you have a delightful and definitive cross section of country music, as performed by Hank Snow. In this day of labels and tags—some people are just plain uncomfortable if they can't identify things with a catchword—many phrases have been written about country music that fill the bill, partly.

Perhaps the best approach is to think of it as music "of the people, by the people, and for the people." Its adherents will devoutly add to this, "shall not perish from this earth." Hank Snow, himself, fits most comfortably into the "people" definition. He has known and adapted to the swift, shifting scenes in this nation's day-to-day life. He can reach back into his early youth and recapture on record the flavor of those days, the sound of a highball locomotive's shrill, imperious shriek cutting through the cricket chirps of a sticky summer night.

You feel his command and can hear the train wheels being hurled ahead on endless steel tracks as he first presents I'm Movin' In, a railroad number in the classic tradition. From this high-paced style, Hank eases into the timeless story of a troubled wanderer, brilliantly accented in the break with his guitar and an insistent blues piano figure, still holding out hope somehow that things will clear up for his Tangled Mind. This country boy can travel to exotic lands and Hank offers a mighty acceptable reason—giving due apology to Tennessee girls—with Panamama. From a sultry flight of fancy with a dark-eyed, pepper-pot beauty, Hank returns to My Blue Eyed Jane, an endearing number first sung by the legendary Jimmie Rodgers. Next, an exceptional guitar treatment of Under the Double Eagle displays another bright facet of his instrumental artistry, followed by the purest ballad form of a rejected heart that remains faithful, Paving the Highway with Tears.

Starting off Side 2, Hank rolls into more great guitar magic and weaves another of the late Jimmie Rodgers' trainman's slice-of-life tales with The Southern Cannonball. There's a desperate urgency that builds in Let Me Go, Lover!—the mood of being trapped and lost, captured by Hank's flawless sensitivity to the lyric. This quickly brightens with the deft telling of When Mexican Joe Met Jole Blon, a rollicking and short-lived romance in a Texas border town with two unlikely but very believable entrepreneurs.

About as old as the Mississippi bottom lands is the folk-styled talking blues, revered from the Greenwich Village coffee house to, well, the bottom land itself. Hank exemplifies this art form with the hilarious woes of a man who has real Trouble, Trouble, Trouble. Country music is an honest music in that the words and thoughts have integrity, reaching for and finding a common denominator. Listen closely to Hank's noble humility and faith in love itself as he sings the plaintive There Wasn't an Organ At Our Wedding. There's a bright and happy ending to this album, however reluctantly we must conclude, in The Boogie Woogie Flying Cloud, a prime example of the quick-step sort of lyric delivery that Hank has branded as his own.

As with all long-lived by-products of a vital culture, country music assimilates and changes with the life of the times. It strikes basic human emotions and responds within the framework of the song—usually with vivid pictures, some contemporary and others ageless. Whatever country music is today, it can only be better because of the understanding and loving contribution given it by Hank Snow.

Hank's own life pretty well sums up the essence of his music. He has traveled by car, bus, train, boat, truck, plane . . . and shoe leather . . . throughout North America and beyond. He has entertained in backwoods school houses as well as on coast-to-coast television and radio shows. There was a Korean tour to perform for servicemen at the time bullets and shells were directed in anger. There have been rodeo days when his show included fancy and dangerous riding with his trick horse, Shawnee.

Wherever the people are, Hank can be found in song and spirit. Listen once more and you will hear and know and find yourself very much with Hank Snow.

3 COUNTRY GENTLEMEN

Here's a likely teaming of talent that adds up to an all-star country music show, and you can enjoy it right in your living room by pressing the start switch on your phonograph. Three standout artists, each a hitmaker in his own right, join hands to bring you some of their own best offerings.

Faron Young is a Louisianan who loves his country heritage. His father operated a huge dairy farm in Shreveport, and friends say Faron first developed his lungs with their amazing sing-power, right on the farm calling the cows home. It was one of his daily chores. The talent for Faron developed early, far ahead of the schedule of most of his contemporaries, for he actually became a member of the regular Saturday night troupe on Nashville's Grand Ol' Opry at the tender age of 19. The Young Sheriff, as he is frequently called, went on from there to become one of the best-loved of all country singers, and progressed to the stage where his own interests required a major corporate structure, known as Faron Young Enterprises.

Claude King, another of the extremely young veterans of the country music business, comes from the same management group, namely Louisiana's Tillman Franks, as that of the late Johnny Horton. Some of Claude's fine song material bears a reminiscent touch to some of Horton's best-known song constructions. His most recent big hit, and he has hit paydirt many times, was the intriguing song, "Wolverton Mountain." The success of this was underscored with the appearance of an answer song in the form of a girl's vocal recording of "I'm the Girl from Wolverton Mountain."

Third in this special talent line-up is a young man who has frequently been likened to Elvis Presley. In fact, Carl Perkins is more properly identified as a "rockabilly" singer rather than a straight country artist. It's interesting to note too, Carl's own roots as a recording artist. He was discovered and first recorded under the knowledgeable eye (and ear) of Sun Records owner, Sam Phillips, in Memphis, Tennessee. Memphis, often called the heartland of the blues, seems to spill its blues heritage over onto all the artists who develop there, and Perkins is no exception. His biggest disking, and one of his earliest, was "Blue Suede Shoes," but this was followed by a generous assortment of good sellers with the same general blues lineage.

There's your talent line-up. Three country gentlement indeed, and three of the top-notch performers in the music business today. Each one of them offers you four of his best and most typical stylings, for a real living room country music hoedown and jamboree. Here's to good listening all the way!

I thought it was a once-in-a-lifetime feeling when my first song was recorded by a major artist. That wasn't true. Every time Connie Smith sings one of my songs, that beautiful feeling comes back. When she sings "I've Got My Baby On My Mind," it's as if someone has suddenly shined a light on a darkened stairway. From the beautiful "You'll See Jesus" to the happy "Loving You (Has Changed My Whole Life)" this album proves that Connie can capture the mood of any type song. If you're happy at the moment, you'll find your song on this album. Me? "I Got A Lot Of Hurtin' Done Today." The beautiful singing of Connie Smith and fine production of Ray Baker will take you to your mood. —Whitey Shafer

JIMMY & DOTTIE

...Singing Very Well and Having a Great Time Working Together

I have worked with Jimmy for a long time and ever since I can remember he has wanted to record an album with Dottie West; however, wanting to do it and getting it done are two different things when you are working with artists who are constantly traveling.

Well, they finally accomplished it. Recording schedules were set, material was selected, and Jimmy and Dottie began rehearsing in Nashville for what has turned out to be not so much an album as a "Musical Barn Raising." Everyone involved hit a lick or two under the watchful eye and steady guidance of producer Jerry Bradley. Grady Martin*, Charlie McCoy, The Jordanaires, Buddy Harman and a host of other talented people all contributed during a week of sheer joy, making music. Above all, there were Jimmy Dean and Dottie West, two of the finest performers in our business, singing very well indeed and just having a great time working together.

Come to think of it, I had a better time than anyone. All I had to do was sit back, listen, and enjoy.

And that's my prescription for you. Sit back, listen, and enjoy two of the finest people I know. I think you'll find that they sing well, too.

IT TAKES faith to carry out even as simple and everyday a task as crossing the street. For if we didn't believe that we'd get to the other side safely, we'd have a world of useless, panic-stricken people huddled on street corners.

Jimmie Davis' entire life has been based on faith... a faith so strong it carried him in dignity and triumph from the poverty of a sharecropper's cabin to the Governor's mansion in Louisiana. And this faith is beautifully reflected in the songs he sings.

In this album, Jimmie Davis' latest and perhaps most inspiring, he sings such familiar and touching songs as My Lord Will Lead Me Home, That Glad Reunion Day, When The Saints Go Marching In, and many others.

Here are SONGS OF FAITH... sung by a man whose achievements are living proof of what faith can do.

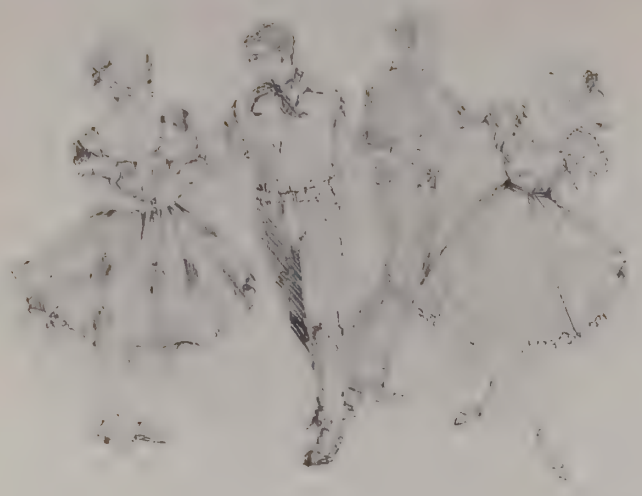
MERCURY HI-FIDELITY MG 20931



There is probably no American social tradition quite as heartwarming and genuinely friendly as the country dance. It has always been—and still is—a reason for young and old to gather, after the chores, to enjoy the music that expresses their lives. Lusty or wistful, comic or sentimental, it is music with a gaiety, sadness or loneliness that is distinctly rural.

To Faron Young, as a boy in his native Shreveport, La., the country dance was the nearest thing at hand to the New York Palace. Not only was it the center of entertainment, it was a social event at which real life dramas took place, such as were told about in the songs. People met, fell in love and fell out of love at the country dances. Emotions came into play that were never felt during the workday in the fields. For some the dance was a beginning, for others it was to be a painful memory.

Country music was the center of entertainment–a social event at which real life dramas took place.

In COUNTRY DANCE FAVORITES, Faron has recorded an album of songs that comprise a fitting repertoire for any country dance and, at the same time, relate the personal stories of joy and sorrow that are born there. Faron presents them as soliloquies, compelling and touching, in the heartfelt lyrical style that has endeared him to lovers of song everywhere. His instinct for phrasing and his ability to slip unaffectedly into the spoken word at critical moments give his renditions a rare emotional edge. Most importantly, he makes the songs ring true.

THE LAST WALTZ is, at one and the same time, a dance tune in country tempo and a poignant expression of a suffering heart; while SAVE THE LAST DANCE FOR ME, with its hint of south-of-the-border rhythms and the delights of Faron's vocal innuendoes, is a semi-novelty about an unhappy fellow who's worried about his girl being the belle of the ball.

YOU DON'T KNOW ME becomes a sensitive revelation of unrequited love resulting from a man's shyness; DANCE HER BY ME ONE MORE TIME the lament of a lad who pines for the girl who used to be his; while the evergreen TILL I WALTZ AGAIN WITH YOU is a happy declaration of love with a dread of parting at the dance's end.

Not all the tales of heartache and loneliness are set specifically at a country dance, but any of them might take place there as well as anywhere, and the scene is set. FADED LOVE, SHE THINKS I STILL CARE, I CAN'T STOP LOVING YOU and AM I THAT EASY TO FORGET all are songs of yearning, each with its own kind of sadness. RELEASE ME (And Let Me Love Again) suggests an illicit romance, not a pleasant story but an honest one, and it is this kind of realism that typifies country music.

No country program is ever complete without a comedy number, and Faron offers HONKY TONK SONG with whimsical flair. Rounding out this dance set is the western classic SAN ANTONIO ROSE, which he does beautiful things to, giving it the appropriate lilt but also the airy freshness of a new tune.

Love, heartache, humor, earth realism and the joy of life—all that make up country life and country music—are here. All these and Faron Young too.

The Gentle Pleasures of "The Golden Years"

Nowadays most records are made for kids. I have no quarrel with this. After all, most records are bought by kids, and anyway, I used to be one myself.

Still, it's nice to see that some records are being made for the older folks. This is one of them.

So, if you are looking for wild, psychedelic sounds, move on friend–they are not in this album. But if you have a craving for something sweeter, something meant to express the more gentle pleasures of the September years, go no farther. You have found it here.

Archie Campbell is well known for his ability to make people laugh with a joke or comic song. What is not so well known is his ability to sing a ballad so beautifully or to extract the meaning of a philosophical recitation so movingly, as he does here. In this album you will discover a new Archie, one who we hope will lend more meaning and enjoyment to your golden years.

DYNAGROOVE

Dynagroove records are the product of RCA Victor's newly developed system of recording which provides a spectacular improvement in the sound quality.

CHARACTERISTICS:

1. Brilliance and clarity – the original sound in startling definition
2. Realistic presence—sound projected in "photographic" perspective
3. Full-bodied tone – even when you listen at low level
4. Surface noise virtually eliminated!
5. Inner-groove distortion virtually eliminated!

To solve these odd and obstinate problems in disc recording, highly ingenious computers – "electronic brains" – have been introduced to audio for the first time. These remarkable new electronic devices and processes grew out of an intense research program which produced notable advances in virtually every step of the recording science.

BOB NOLAN—The Sound of A Pioneer. He wrote two of the greatest western standards of all-time, "Cool Water" and "Tumbling Tumbleweeds," as well as hundreds of others. He possesses one of the most unique voices ever put on record and was one of the founding members of the Sons of the Pioneers. He is a true western music legend.

BOB NOLAN—The Sound of A Pioneer The spirit of the American West has been captured in many ways. On film, it is the heroic image of a John Wayne or Gary Cooper. In art, it is the colorful canvas of a Remington or Russell. In music, it is a Bob Nolan song.

More than a songwriter, Nolan wields the pen of a poet and master storyteller. His haunting melodies tell of blue prairies and tumbling tumbleweeds . . . of cool water and lands touched by the hand of God. It is impossible to hear a Bob Nolan composition and not know who wrote it. Like his own distinctive voice, his style of writing is unmistakable.

Simply put, the man is a legend.

His association with the American West began when he moved to Arizona after being born and raised in the Canadian backwoods. The abrupt change of environment had a tremendous impact on the impressionable fourteen year old. He was awed and captivated by the expanse of desert and prairie, which, though apparently desolate, actually teemed with life and beauty. He would often spend hours alone in the desert fascinated by its sights and sounds.

His love for nature's beauty began to manifest itself in western poems Bob wrote for his school newspaper. Later, many of these works became the Nolan songs. Though he decided to pursue a musical career as early as 1929, it wasn't until 1931 that he met with success. He became part of Rocky Mountaineers hillbilly group along with another young man, Leonard Slye. Later, Slye formed another group with Bob and a third member, Tim Spencer, called The Pioneer Trio, which eventually became The Sons of the Pioneers.

Throughout the 1930s, 40s and 50s, the Pioneers became the group singularly most associated with the western song. And with good reason, for aside from the unforgettable Bob Nolan compositions, Tim Spencer and other members penned songs as memorable and melodious today as they were forty years ago. The Pioneers also performed as musical minstrels in over seventy westerns providing songs and accompaniment for such cowboy heroes as Gene Autry, Charles Starrett, Monte Hale and former member, Leonard Slye, better known as Roy Rogers. And, usually, Bob was featured prominently in the screenplay, often in roles assuming the status of co-star. In addition, the Pioneers had their own weekly radio program and made thousands of personal appearances.

In 1949, at the peak of success, Bob Nolan left the Sons of the Pioneers to retire, though he periodically recorded with the group until 1957. Essentially a loner, he was unhappy with the constant pressure forced upon him by his success. At times, he would be home only a few days out of the year, while spending the rest of the year either working in films or on tour. The film work, while offering security and a steady income, often forced Bob to write songs in a single day to fit a shoot-em-up scenario. Worse still, he became disenchanted with himself and his work.

Since leaving the Pioneers, Bob has continued writing. His most recent compositions, while still reflecting his poetic qualities, have an almost transcendental feeling.

Though Bob Nolan had not recorded in over twenty years, THE SOUND OF A PIONEER must rank as one of his finest efforts. The selections in this album give full range to the distinctive Nolan voice. From his own classics, "Cool Water" and "Tumbling Tumbleweeds," to more contemporary country and western songs like "That Old Outlaw Time" and "Can You Hear Those Pioneers," Bob is letter perfect on each song. It is simply hard to believe that the voice you hear belongs to a seventy-one year old man.

It was fascinating to see Bob at work during the recording sessions. Quiet and soft spoken, he rarely blew a take. And between takes, he would lie down in a corner of the studio to rest, his portable tape recorder playing the sounds of a gentle spring rain or the rippling waters of a mountain stream, while some of the most beautiful and poetic music ever written – his music – played back in the studio.

This is Bob Nolan . . . the sound of a pioneer.

"A ballad," Roy Drusky once told me, "is a simple song that has a very important truth to tell. Each of the great ballads that I've heard has a story that you could write a whole book about. I love to listen to ballads and I love to sing them."

Roy's feelings for the ballad will be obvious to you when you hear this album. After putting you in a listening mood with the fast-paced White Lightnin' Express, he turns to eleven of his favorite songs, ballads of course, and sings them in the smooth, gentle style that has made him one of the most famous country and western artists of our time.

Roy's love of the song that speaks the truth dates back to the very first time he picked the strings of a guitar. He was in the Navy then, aboard the USS Toledo, sailing in the Pacific Ocean thousands of miles away from his Georgia home. His only enjoyment during the long days at sea came from listening to the ship's band. Once, on impulse, he spent $19.95 for an old guitar and decided that he too would become a musician. From then on the ship's band performances became even more important to Roy. He watched the leading guitar player night after night, and then went to his own bunk where he patiently tried to imitate the things he had seen the guitarist do. It was the hard way to learn, and it took time. But Roy had a talent that could not be denied; by the time he left the Navy in 1950 he was already composing his own songs. Upon discharge, Roy returned to his career as a minor league baseball player, but after two months he decided to quit the sport. Music had become a serious part of his life and he was determined to concentrate on it from then on.

Now, of course, Roy Drusky is a great recording star and songwriter. He is a full-fledged member of the Grand Ole Opry and one of the leading vocalizers of the famous Nashville Sound. Despite these successes, however, Roy has never forgotten those long hours on board ship when he had turned to a guitar for companionship. And it is not surprising that even today the ballad—the song in remembrance of things past, the song of love and happiness, loss and sadness—is most beautiful of all to Roy Drusky.

The songs for this album were chosen by Roy himself. He considers them to be among the greatest ballads of recent years, and he sings them like no one else can. His special adaptation of the great rhythm and blues hit, Take Me Back, for example, makes you wonder if the song hadn't really been meant for a country and western style in the first place.

Just as an artist like Roy is able to bring out the particular beauty of a song, so is a song sometimes able to demonstrate the unique quality of the artist. It is hard to choose just one number from this album that best shows Roy's greatness. For me, perhaps, it is his soft but moving rendition of the beautiful Green Green Grass Of Home. His clear, straightforward delivery shows the extent of the deep emotional qualities inherent in Roy's mellow voice. The strong feeling that he has for this song is portrayed without any fancy frills. Roy is too honest to use effects that he does not truly feel, and his voice is so good that he needs no such tricks to help him bring out the best in the song. It seems like Green Green Grass Of Home and Roy's talent were made for each other.

Any one of these twelve songs might easily become your favorite. No matter which one you like best, however, you will enjoy hearing all of them time and again.

My congratulations to Roy for another excellent album. It is typical of the highest performance standards that all of us have come to expect from him.

ROY DRUSKY

COUNTRY MUSIC ALL AROUND THE WORLD

Ladies are supposed to have intuition, not men. So I don't know what you'd call this . . . just put any handle you care to that would describe the "I know this boy has got it" feeling I had the first time I ever met Roy Drusky. It was 1958. Roy Drusky came up here to Nashville from Atlanta for his first appearance on the WSM GRAND OLE OPRY.

Now, I've been tramping those boards backstage at the Grand Ole Opry . . . under a good many different titles but they all add up to the same job . . . stage manager . . . since 1935. I've seen the biggest stars of them all. I've seen 'em come and I've seen them fall by the wayside. But when Roy Drusky walked out there the first time, I said to myself, "Vito, that boy is going places!"

I wasn't the only one. Ott Devine, he's general manager of the Opry, told me that Saturday night in 1958, "I'll bet my money on this boy."

Roy Drusky has got something alright.

The quality of his voice is clear and sincere; he's a fine musician; he's a leader who is able to tell his men what he wants in a manner they understand. He's a man who knows what he wants . . . and a man who seems to know what the public wants. When he takes a song to record, you just know it will be a hit by the thoroughness of his selectiveness. He's businesslike. When he's waiting in the wings to go on, he's not thinking about me; he's not thinking about you. . . he's thinking about that song he's going to do.

I guess I am most impressed by the way he handles himself on the stage.

I guess I'm pretty impressed by the way he handles himself off the stage, too.

To me, he's one of the finest, clean cut gentlemen I know. I've never heard a person who didn't speak of him in terms of admiration . . . as a man and as a performer with a great ability to sing a song.

Roy is a mature, established star now. He always has a song or two on the hit parade and he has built a legion of fans who are very aware of his fine ability. They know he's not tied to a fad or limited to a gimmick.

But I think this particular album gives Roy more of a chance to show how well he can handle different types of songs.

There's a lot more to be said about this guy Roy Drusky. He's a fellah that was once a disc jockey and almost a baseball player . . . incidentally, Ott Devine made him quit playing baseball after he hit star status . . . Roy was in the Navy, he flies airplanes, raises pet poodle dogs, plays piano and used to play drums in his own band a long time ago. He's strictly family. Loves his wife Bobbye and their two boys, "Twig" and "Tad." I think two of his biggest breaks were marrying Bobbye and getting Hubert Long for a manager (Hubert was tutored by the famed Colonel Tom Parker).

Roy has been on network TV many times on shows like ABC's Jimmy Dean Show, Dick Clark's Bandstand and Jubilee, USA, and he guest stars on all the big C&W shows around the country like the Louisiana Hayride, the Big "D" Jamboree and the Wheeling Jamboree.

He is a big star. A great star.

But most of all, he's a good neighbor and one of my best friends.

This MERCURY record is the result of the most modern recording techniques in the phonograph industry.

In STEREO—The 15° cutter slant angle is utilized, the latest development in the art of disc recording. The vertical-tracking-angle between cartridge and groove greatly reduces intermodulation distortion and gives the utmost reproduction of the original sound through its dynamic depth control and reliable stylus tracking. To protect your stereo recording, play only on a phonograph with stereo reproducing cartridge according to the RIAA standards.

In MONO—The master tapes are transferred directly through the finest Ampex 300 series tape machine to a specially designed power amplifier which drives the BBC Grampian Feedback Cutting Head. Because of the simplicity of our new recording techniques, quality listening on either stereo or monaural phonographs is assured.

In monaural or stereo, your MERCURY record will give you the truest possible reproduction of the original sound.

Praise The Lord

Almost everything that anyone could desire to have happen to them, has happened to Wanda Jackson. Wanda has been a popular recording star since the age of fourteen, had many hit records, traveled around the world several times, thrilled thousands of audiences, put smiles on many sad faces and songs in many unhappy hearts. What else good could happen to anyone? Well, it is my privilege and pleasure to tell you that something new did happen to Wanda Jackson, and she is a new person; as any of her friends can tell you. Wanda wrote a song in this album entitled "My Testimony," it explains how she became a new and more beautiful person.

It is with a thankful heart to have been present and to have had a small part in seeing Wanda Jackson and Wendell Goodman, her husband and manager, give their lives to the Lord!

Wendell has written a song about the man who changed his life. Wanda sings it here in the album; a really great tune called "He's the Man." Their children, Gina 9, and Greg 7, have written a song entitled "About Jesus" which they sing at some of their mother's personal appearances.

Wanda is always glad to sing at her home church, South Lindsay Baptist, whenever she is asked; which is often to say the least. Wendell and Wanda are very active in their church; considering a busy schedule of concerts, fairs, television, and recording dates, along with their revivals and church rallys. They have a steady stream of requests coming in for Wanda to sing, and she and Wendell give their testimonies at churches across the country.

So, as Wanda's pastor, it is a thrill to hear the songs in this album. I personally enjoyed "Didn't He Shine" so much that I have written a sermon based on that title. Wanda has been asked many times when she was going to record a religious album, and she so truthfully answered, "How could I sing about a person that I did not really know?"

When you listen to this album you will surely say "Praise The Lord."

With a humble heart

David Houston is widely regarded as one of the most promising of the new crop of young country artists now coming along. Although still in his twenties, he has already enjoyed considerable success with a series of single recordings. His "Almost Pursuaded" was the greatest country hit during 1966. He comes to the music business through the auspices of his God-father, the famous recording star of the '20s and '30s, Gene Austin, who taught him to sing. David plays piano and guitar, sings, has been in Little Theater plays in his home area of Shreveport, Louisiana, and has been seen in such movies as "Horse Soldiers," "Carnival Rock" and "Teen Age Kisses." His personal manager is the veteran, Tillman Franks, who brought to prominence such great names as Claude King and the late Johnny Horton.

Alabaman Sonny James is known for his busy personal appearance schedule, heavy bookings in television and for a successful and sustained recording career which includes his all time top hit, "Young Love," which sold close to 2,000,000 copies on Capitol Records. Sonny can trace his first important break in the songwriting-singing business to veteran Nashville guitarist — a. & r. man, Chet Atkins, who introduced him to Ken Nelson, the country records head at Capital Records. Nelson worked with Sonny on "Young Love," which was responsible for his prominence at the top of the heap in the record business not only in country, but in the pop music field as well. He has starred in mediums ranging from New York's famed Palace vaudeville theater to the Ozark Jubilee TV show.

When new acquaintances discover that I do a daily radio show on Nashville's famed "Music Row," I am bombarded with questions about particular entertainers. It seems everyone has a favorite singer who records in Nashville.

One name that pops up frequently is David Houston. I seldom have to answer questions about David, because his fans know more about him than I do.

To prepare these notes, I attempted a little survey to explain why a David Houston fan is a David Houston fan. Being a fan myself, the results were not startling to me, but they were interesting. Although David's fans like him for a variety of reasons, I think they can be narrowed to his distinctive voice quality, his choice of song material, his lyric interpretation and his ability to get the listener involved in his songs.

Billy Sherrill, David's producer and one of Nashville's most prolific songwriters, has assisted in the selection of songs for this album that aptly displays the versatility of David's voice. Some of them have already reached the top of the nation's popularity charts, but the Houston-Sherrill treatment makes it very hard to remember the names of the original performers. You can also enjoy two of David's successful hits: I Do My Swinging At Home and Wonders Of The Wine.

I had an advance copy of this album, and, for a while, I felt pretty important, because I knew something David Houston fans didn't know—the great job he does in this album!

"...bring back thoughts of special people, places and things."

Souvenirs are those keepsakes which bring back thoughts of special people, places and things. They may be intangibles—perhaps memories—or they may be real articles on a shelf reserved for special things. Too, they may be tied with a ribbon and kept in a private place. Some are meaningful only to an individual while others are treasured by many of us. For the many, we present this second collection of Hank Snow souvenirs. It is tied with the bright ribbon of song and intended for your shelf of very special things.

The songs selected represent memorable highlights of Hank's long tenure with RCA Victor records. Among the titles you will no doubt find many of your own favorite songs. Perhaps you will be surprised that any one singer can be responsible for such a long list of hits. Truth is, Hank has had success with so many songs that it is difficult to limit the selections to but one album.

Much of his success may be attributed to the remarkable way he has with any song. He can elicit utmost feeling from a ballad; his story songs are spellbinders, and he is undisputed master of the novelty tongue twister. There is a generous sampling of each type among these souvenirs.

DYNAGROOVE

Dynagroove records are the product of RCA Victor's newly developed system of recording which provides a spectacular improvement in the sound quality.

CHARACTERISTICS:

1. Brilliance and clarity — the original sound in startling definition
2. Realistic presence—sound projected in "photographic" perspective
3. Full-bodied tone—even when you listen at low level
4. Surface noise virtually eliminated!
5. Inner-groove distortion virtually eliminated!

To solve these old and obstinate problems in disc recording, highly ingenious computers—"electronic brains"—have been introduced to audio for the first time. These remarkable new electronic devices and processes grew out of an intense research program which produced notable advances in virtually every step of the recording science.

The final test of any record is in the listening—compare the sound of Dynagroove recordings!

Faron Young

Through a series of mutually favorable circumstances, Faron Young somehow managed to be born in Shreveport, Louisiana. That was fortunate indeed for Faron, since it enabled him to begin at an early period in his life with his chosen career of country music-making, thanks to the presence in Shreveport of one of the most famous country music stations of all, KWKH, home of the renowned Louisiana Hayride Show. Right out of high school, Faron won a featured role on the show.

In another sense, his Shreveport birthplace was fortunate not only for Faron himself, but for that whole legion of country music fans, for whom Faron has come to mean, over the years — the true image of country music as it should be sung. For where else indeed might such a talent have attained such quick recognition and a chance to perform on a major country music showcase?

Nowhere else, probably, but Nashville, Tenn., home of the Grand Ole Opry, to which Faron eventually found his way. The Opry beckoned, quite simply, because youthful Faron Young, age 19, had come up with a series of important record hits like "Tattle Tale Tears," "Have I Waited Too Long," "Live Fast, Love Hard, Die Young," and "If You Ain't Loving, You Ain't Living."

Since 1951, Faron has been an Opry star of the first magnitude, taking only enough time out to serve from 1952 to 1954 with Uncle Sam. His musical talent won for Faron an Army talent show on ABC-TV, and he soon found himself on a two-year junket entertaining troops around the world. Faron also picked up an Army recruiting show on radio, which ran on 2,000 stations across the land.

Songwriter and singer, Faron has also been active in motion pictures. At one point his handsome face and persuasive country singing style could be seen and heard with Bruce Bennett in "Daniel Boone," and with Ferlin Husky and Zsa Zsa Gabor in "Country Music Holiday."

Today, Faron is a happy homebody, or at least he comes as close to being that as any internationally successful country music star is ever likely to be. At home and off the road, Faron enjoys just being with his family and an occasional flurry of hunting and fishing, all of which simply reflects his rural background.

Born in February 1932, Faron was exposed to country ways almost from the start. His father acquired a dairy farm soon after Faron's birth and Faron recalls the cattle in the fields as his very first audience, whom he haltingly picked out the first chords he ever learned on a guitar. In Shreveport's Park High School, Faron formed his own band in which he played guitar and sang, and soon became the best known new young performer in the whole area. His strong local reputation earned him his spot on the KWKH Hayride Show and later he became the featured singer with Webb Pierce's band as it toured throughout the South.

That briefly, is the Faron Young story. But in a larger sense, he tells his own story in the great songs he sings. Here are some of the best performances of all by Faron Young, songs with meaning and sincerity, delivered in the talented tones of the one and only, the truly distinctive and distinguished country music star, Faron Young!

The Best Of GLENN BARBER

Ah, that elusive, effervescent, intangible thing called "Stardom." What is it that sets one singer from another, what quality of talent or voice causes one performer to be worshipped and idolized by millions while another performer is condemned to perpetually display his talents in the obscurity of the local tavern.

If I could truly analyze those etheral nuances of talent that allow a singer to be a star, if I could reduce to a mathematical formula the components that go into a recorded song that makes it a "hit" song, I would be so wealthy you would have to have an appointment to write me a letter.

No, I don't know what it is. But, whatever it is, Glenn Barber has it.

Is it just that he can sing better than most? He can. Is it just that he is an excellent musician? He is. Does his dark hair, handsome face, and sturdy build have anything to do with it? I don't know, but he has all that.

Is it, perhaps, his enlightened understanding of people, his insight into their motives, emotions, loves, hates and hurts, that give Glenn Barber the necessary attributes to be a big star. I suspect this has something to do with it, and he certainly has all that, too.

Whatever it is, Glenn Barber has it and you'll hear it in this album. Try it and see.

HYMN TIME

From a share cropper's cabin to the Governor's mansion of Louisiana, such is the success story of colorful Jimmie Davis.

One of a family of eleven children from the red hills of North Louisiana, he became the Governor of Louisiana; the composer of such national song hits as "You Are My Sunshine," "Nobody's Darlin';" the star of a fabulous Hollywood picture "Louisiana;" and a top recording star in the musical world.

Jimmie's first love is singing, and he prefers the Gospel and Sacred songs. Not only has he appeared in singing concerts, TV and radio programs all over

JIMMIE DAVIS

the nation, but he has enjoyed speaking to church audiences of all faiths throughout the country. A lifetime would not give him enough days to respond to the calls he has to sing and speak at various churches. He considers these invitations among the greatest personal compliments he has ever received.

Having grown up as a poor farm boy, an experience of which he is proud, Jimmie says he never wants to be removed too far from that atmosphere. He owns and operates a Louisiana farm and ranch in which he is always very interested. Along with his farming, personal appearances and musical interests, he considers outdoor recreation very vital to his health and takes time out to do a certain amount of hunting and fishing.

Ever since his graduation from Louisiana State University, Jimmie has made his home in Shreveport, where he lives with his wife Alvern and their son Jim. He says that his greatest regret is that he can't spend every day at home with his family.

Here is "Hymn Time," a group of Sacred and Gospel songs that Jimmie Davis has recorded for the first time. He sings them with a devotional sincerity and straightforwardness that will touch every heart.

COVER PHOTO: BY MARC BRODY

The average person's chances of becoming a top star in the world of entertainment are about a million to one. The odds on becoming Governor of any one of our fifty states are almost as slim. And the probability of a man striving for either one of these far off goals, not to speak of both, without sacrificing any of his devotion to God or his family, is almost zero.

James Houston Davis, twice Governor of Louisiana; Jimmie Davis, singer, song-writer and one of the most popular recording stars in the country; Jimmie Davis, loving husband and father... all one man, believe it or not.

And Jimmie Davis can explain it all in one surprisingly simple word, faith... the same kind of comforting and strengthening faith that gives his performance of these wonderful songs such meaningful power and inspirational beauty.

Much of Jimmie Davis' career mirrors the traditional American dream. The "rags to riches" theme; the poor farm boy who became Governor of the state of Louisiana, is part and parcel of the Jimmie Davis story. What is perhaps all the more remarkable, however, is that Jimmie Davis rose to eminence in more than one field. In addition to his talent as a singer, being one of the nation's outstanding recording artists, he has also been notably successful as a songwriter.

How does one reach the top in these varied endeavors? To state that Davis had manifold abilities is one answer. But he had, and continues to have, something else: faith. And, it is this faith in matters of the spirit, this belief in man and his essential religious nature, that shines out in his songs and makes his recorded performances touch the hearts of all who hear them.

Born in Quitman, Louisiana, he grew up close to the soil and early in life developed a passion for singing. The songs he loves best are the sacred and gospel songs—a preference which is reflected in the many albums he has recorded for Decca, such as Hymn Time, Songs Of Faith, Someone Watching Over You—and now Beyond The Shadows.

Jimmie Davis has given numerous concerts, radio and television performances, and he has appeared as a singer and speaker before many church groups.

As a songwriter too, he has reached the hearts of the people with such notable compositions as "You Are My Sunshine" and "Nobody's Darlin' But Mine."

For an insight into the heart and mind of Jimmie Davis, we offer this album, with its moving performances of "When The Morning Comes," "Until Then," "Take The Hand Of A Pilgrim" and other songs of devotion and faith.

They call it "Ingredients for a Nervous Breakdown." Take a family of 35 or so members. Pile them into a plane or bus. Add complete wardrobes (four or five costumes per person) plus regular luggage (adding up to about 150 pieces). Stir in ten or fifteen staff members (key musicians, wardrobe handlers, electricians and sound engineers, transportation experts, publicity men and program salesmen). Arrange for hotel accommodations for this large a group for a Summer tour of twelve to fifteen weeks. Figure out how to feed them . . . and you become a candidate for battle fatigue.

Of course, there are assorted side problems, too. How to find overnight diaper service on one-nighters. What to wear when an airlines strike makes it impossible to get wardrobe trunks out of Denver for three days, and the Family's appearing in Connecticut. How to set up efficient quarantine facilities when Chicken Pox hits the bus. And who sings the melody when the one who's supposed to missed the plane in Vancouver and it's opening night in Atlanta.

That's a brief glimpse of The King Family on tour. But somehow, at the last minute, they are on stage, ready to go, and in the last two years have appeared in almost half of the states in this country. Perhaps you've been one of those who have seen them. If so, you will recognize this album, which shows them "on location." It's subtitled "In The Round," because that's where they seem to show off best . . . perhaps because there are so many of them that they can circle the complete stage holding hands.

Obviously, The King Family can't put its entire two-and-a-half hour performance on one album. They've tried to select songs and dialogue that form the highlights. Some of the other songs performed on stage are included in other King Family albums. Among these songs are "The Square," "When Are You Going to Learn," "When the Saints Come Marching In," "Love at Home," and several others. They can be located in the following Warner Bros. albums: The King Family Show (W/WS 1601); The King Family Album (W/WS 1627); Christmas with The King Family (W/WS 1627); Sunday with The King Family (W/WS 1633).

A few special notes: One of the real show-stoppers on tour is Bob Clarke's recitation of "The Men in My Little Girl's Life." It includes quite a cast of girls from the family in telling the story. In order of performance, they are Laurette, Susannah, Xan, Carol, Cathy, and Candy.

If you think, when you hear The King Cousins' version of "The Telephone Hour" (from Bye, Bye Birdie) that you've heard them do it before, you're right. Several of The Cousins sang on the soundtrack of the motion picture.

In this album, you get an entire act by both Alvino Rey and by The King Sisters. With Alvino, you hear not only his regular guitar but also his steel-talking guitar ,and then finally his banjo.

The King Sisters talk and sing their way through almost fifteen minutes of their stage presentation, starting with "Yesterday" (from The Beatles repertoire) down through solos by Vonnie and Alyce, and ending with the fabulous imitations by Marilyn on "Everything's Coming Up Roses," where she treats you to versions by Ethel Merman, Lena Horne, Sarah Vaughan, Carol Channing, Judy Garland, and Louis Armstrong (right near the end she throws in a few bars of singing and whistling by Mrs. Miller.) Incidentally, Marilyn's husband, Kent Larsen, is featured on trombone along with The King Sisters in their version of "Lassus Trombone." If you think you've heard this arrangement before, you may have; it's based on the famous Warren Barker arrangement for ten trombones on the Warner Bros. album, "Power-Packed Trombones" (W/WS 1272).

And so you have it. America's first musical family . . . at their most alive . . . singing, talking, playing "in the round." It's a show that's broken attendance records from California to Maine. It could do the same on your own phonograph.

THE TALENT THAT IS CONNIE SMITH

In this writer's opinion, Connie Smith is the greatest female artist in country music today. In the studio, outlined against a background of perforated soundproof walls, the talent that is Connie Smith comes to life in every recording session. This collection of songs from Connie's past sessions is bound to be a favorite of yours — as it is of mine.

Actually, the first thing to establish about Connie Smith is — if there really is one! She is country music's answer to the Cheshire cat in "Alice in Wonderland." That's the cat whose grin kept getting bigger and bigger until it obliterated the cat itself. If you can imagine a grin with no earthly emanation, you have some idea of Connie Smith's voice. It is so strong, so resonant, so vibrant that there is a tendency to feel that it, too, has obliterated its earthly source. The only thing this leaves us with, then, is a heavenly source. Like, say, an angel.

Connie Smith has cornered the market on talent to such a point that I'm told the trustbusters are investigating her. She's country music's equivalent to AT&T. She's liable to get in trouble on the thievery docket, too, for "stealing" hearts. (For instance, when Connie sings I'll Be There (If You Ever Want Me), you try not to lose your heart to her. She'd wind up in jail for grand larceny if it weren't for one thing. Nobody will press charges.

Furthermore, your emotions are in danger when the Smith girl takes off on a song. Her solid emotion-packed delivery on selections like Ain't Had No Lovin' and Two Empty Arms will leave you breathless.

Besides having a tremendous emotional appeal going for her, Connie Smith's range is truly remarkable. Her high notes are — I think the expression is "out of sight." And low notes? Connie handles them without so much as a sign of stress or strain. What's more, she doesn't just sing these notes. She explodes them. It's as if this lovely lady swallowed gunpowder — followed by a chaser of nectar! Clarity? Pealing bells envy our Connie.

Emotion, range, explosiveness, clarity — these are only a few of the facets of Connie Smith's sparkling talent. While I could go on forever I know you'd rather listen to Connie than read me! So I have to draw the line somewhere in my praise of her talents, and I'll draw it by saying this: if, by some chance, I were never to hear another singer, I could always say that I had heard Connie Smith. To me that is sufficient.

JAZZ is a feeling rather than statement. An unmistakable feeling of self expression, of independence, of the individual speaking and living in harmony with his fellow men. This is a feeling which can be communicated.

Jazz appreciation is not limited to social or economic groups. Jazz is for everybody, for everyone who will listen.

The scope of jazz has widened as it has spontaneously developed contrapuntal melodies. Jazz has an important story to tell; as such innovators as 'John Lewis, Charlie Parker, Thelonious Monk and John "Dizzy" Gillespie' have all given to its telling—a structure, an intellectual appeal rivaling its emotional impact. Their contributions have made jazz a rich and fertile music, exciting, alive and stimulating, to the mind as well as to the heart. The contributions to jazz did not stop with the aforementioned, but you will find it to be ever increasing.

Young men and women are improvising, drawing from many sources, blending and putting into jazz something that was not there before . . . but never losing the source, the blues.

The young man today most qualified of the above mention is . . . Ramsey E. Lewis Jr. who was born in Chicago just 26 years ago. Ramsey has a background most musicians envy.

His studies started at the tender age of six. He continued to equip himself at De Paul University where he also became a student of the classics and thus the leader of the Ramsey Lewis Trio was born.

This trio (and I might add, is the most popular in the country today) consists of bass and cello player extraordinary, Eldee Young, who is also from Chicago.

The brilliant drummer, from Rosedale, Mississippi, raised in Chicago, is Isaac "Red" Holt. Three of the most brilliant minds ever applied to jazz.

The Ramsey Lewis Trio find themselves in a setting not familiar to some but one which find the group right at home, with the blues—and a little country feeling added for flavor.

Here, Ramsey has the assistance of strings and voices, under the leadership of Lew Douglas, and a very unique brass section lead by none other than Oliver Nelson. The "treatments" you will find to be indescribably beautiful. String and voices may lead you to believe that the group doesn't swing . . . quite the contrary . . . Ramsey is in full charge all the way and SWINGS. The group swings extra hard on "My Bucket's Got A Hole In It", making for smooth dancing and very commercial. Another highlight of the set is the trio's confession of "I Just Want To Make Love To You". The trio is into a great groove with Eldee on Cello and out front all the way.

This is Ramsey Lewis utilizing Country and Blues, as a truly soulful music to underline a variety of musical situations as only Ramsey Lewis can do it, BEAUTIFUL.

Sweet Dixie

Carl Jackson

I've traveled far and wide
I've lived a lot of life
I'll bet there's not a place I haven't been
And if heaven's here on earth
Then I know without a doubt
That the sweet sunny south is where it's at

Sweet Dixie I'm a comin' home to you
I can't tell ya' how I've missed you from the start
There's not another place on earth
I know I'd rather be
So Dixie I'm a headin' for your heart

There's nothin' quite the same
As fishin' with a cane
And wanderin' in at dusk with your catch
Then hungry as a hound
At the table you'd sit down
To sink your teeth in biscuits from the scratch

At night they'd gather 'round
From in and out of town
And Daddy'd gladly get his guitar out
And still when things are quiet
No matter where I'm at
I can hear that Martin ringing through the south

Livin' With The Past

Carl Jackson

By the side of the road
'Bout six miles out of town
Stood a house in need of repair
And in the evenings 'bout four
When I got in home from school
Without fail he'd be sitting there

And all the townfolks said he'd lived there for years
To me he always seemed so sad
And a growin' boy wondered how
he stayed there alone
Why that's enough to drive you mad

My mind used to wander
Back and forth with ideas
Like the pace of his old rocking chair
And at dusk when I'd see him
Get up and go inside
I knew that my answer must be there

So I crept beside the front room window
And I carefully looked in through the glass
And a growin' boy found out how
he stayed there alone
He was livin' with the past

He sat there for awhile
Just starin' at the wall
A thousand memories in his glare
And then he reached to take
A faded picture from its place
It almost seemed that someone else was there
The likeness was a lady
As beautiful as life
Her presence almost was real
And as he held her picture
A tear came to his eye
I knew just what he must feel

Ever And Ever

Carl Jackson

Ever and ever's the way I thought it would be Lovin' like livin' as far ahead as I could see
I never thought it would end
And I'd sell my soul to be with you again
Forever and ever and ever and evermore

Never no never would you be doin' me wrong
I took you for granted you changed the name
of that song
I never thought it could be
Then all at once you put the hurt on me
Forever and ever and ever and evermore

You leavin' took me completely by surprise
I wish to God you'd found a better way
To open up my eyes

Ever and ever's the way I thought it would be Lovin' like livin' as far ahead as I could see
I never thought you would go
And now I know that I'll be missin' you so
Forever and ever and ever and evermore
The hurt's on me forever and evermore

I Never Thought I'd Wake (To Find Her Gone)

Carl Jackson

Last night was the same old thing again
Two hours late and she's wondering where I'd been
I gave my usual story I've been giving for so long
'Cause I never thought I'd wake to find her gone

Now dear, you know the work is just stacked upon
my desk
It's so hard to get a minute's rest
I said the line was busy when I tried to telephone
'Cause I never thought I'd wake to find her gone

I'd heard her say she couldn't take no more
And I guess she proved it to me
When she walked right out the door

It seems my story was worn out
I'd used it for so long
Still I never thought I'd wake to find her gone

Anyone Is No One

Carl Jackson and T. J. Kuenster

Someone's not holding me tonight
No words or touch to make it right
Someone would be here if I phoned
I don't have to spend the night alone

A smile would be right over
But I would see right through
Anyone is no one after you

Someone would be here if they knew
I'm so alone and feeling blue

They'd surely bring me comfort
But soon I'd face the truth
Anyone is no one after you

Old Friends

Carl Jackson

I've been lookin' back in time
At a place so near to me
Yet far away
And I've been searchin' for the lines
That would carry me back
For just a day

And I would plunge
Into the deep end of the river
I'd trade my fortune for a dime
Just to gather in the big house on the corner
And spend a little time
With those old friends of mine

I've been wantin' you to know
That I can understand
What has to be
And I know it's gone but even so
I'm still wondering
If you ever think of me

I've been thinking lately of them
I wonder if they ever think of me

Mom let's go
I can't wait any longer
They're all countin' on me
Ya know yesterday I hit a homer
I never thought it would end
But it did
I'll never clear those bases again,
Again, never again

Well they're gone, yes they're gone
Yes they're gone forever
Oh they're gone, yes they're gone,
Yes they're gone forever

What I Was Before

Carl Jackson

Your questionnaire from miles away
Is still ringing in my ears
I'd almost talk again
But just can't lift the phone
The pressure of your constant doubt
Is building more and more
And your voice searchin' for a lie
Has wore me to the bone

I'd like to take you back again
And give it one more try
But nothing goes past the point of no return
If we could roll back time
Then maybe this could all be changed
But ya' know we all are meant
To spend some time to learn

This could be the last time
You ever hear from me
This guy may not hold what you're lookin' for I'll be touchin' down to happiness
Wherever it may be
I'll be headin' back to what I was before

If we could do it all again
Then maybe it would change
A little bit of trust could go a long way
'Cause Atlantic City looks
Will always turn my head around
But no jealous beauty queen
Will ever make me stay

Footprints In The Snow

Rupert Jones

Now some folks like the summertime
When they can walk about
Strolling through the meadow green
It's pleasant there's no doubt
But just give me the wintertime
When the snow is on the ground
For I found her when the snow was on the ground

I traced her little footprints in the snow
I found her little footprints in the snow
Lord, I bless that happy day
That Nellie lost her way
For I found her when the snow was on the ground

At night they'd gather 'round
From in and out of town
And Daddy'd gladly get his guitar out
And still when things are quiet
No matter where I'm at
I can hear that Martin ringing through the south

Sweet dixie I'm a comin' home to you
I can't tell ya how I've missed you from the start
There's not another place on earth
I know I'd rather be
So Dixie I'm a headin' for your heart

It was May of 1964 and I was working a show at Anderson, South Carolina. We were booked at the local fairgrounds and the show starred the Wilburn Bros., Loretta Lynn, who was still in the up-and-coming category, and Bill Anderson and the Po Boys. With the Bill Anderson Show was a new girl singer, who since coming into my life, has become one of my treasured friends.

Bill introduced me to Connie Smith, a diminuative girl singer he had discovered at a Country Music park near Columbus, Ohio. I was then to introduce her to the audience at the show. I am a "show study" and so for her debut in professional Country Music show business I said, "Ladies and Gentlemen . . . a real pretty little girl from Ohio (etc.), Miss Carol Smith."

I blew Connie's introduction and her performance blew my mind!

This was just before she recorded "ONCE A DAY" in July of 1964.

She was the Cinderella gal of the year. The record was so hot it went No.1, and at the Fall Convention in Nashville, Connie was given the award for being "Most Promising Girl Singer of the Year."

In the past ten years, Connie has proved time and again that she has the talent and the songs that people keep wanting to hear.

From my vantage point in Nashville, there have been two singers that seemed from the very beginning to have the talent to be big stars. The first was Connie Smith and the second was the recent entry into the field of Country Music by Johnny Rodriguez. Both were instant stars. (A Ralph Emery opinion and I shouldn't leave out Tanya Tucker, so let's make it three.)

Most of you know Connie and her dynamic way with a song.

She is in real life Mrs. Marshall Haines and very happily married with a brand new baby girl to be baby sister to Connie's two older boys.

Connie is deeply religious; the only time I've seen her a "little shook" on stage was when she had to perform in front of Rev. Billy Graham at the National Prayer Breakfast in Washington. Her religion is very real.

This album is full of Connie Smith "jewels." I recommend Harlan Howard's old song, "THE KEY'S IN THE MAILBOX," Warner Mack's evergreen "I'LL STILL BE MISSING YOU," and I'm sure Connie would want you to listen to "I WISH WE'D ALL BEEN READY."

In all these years of being called Connie's friend, this is my first opportunity to do her liner notes which gives me the personal pleasure of again introducing Connie Smith to the world. I love you Connie . . .

12 GREAT HITS

"Here is an album that, without fear of being boastful, I can proudly say contains twelve of the greatest hits of all time. And to make this album even more entertaining, on each of the selections we did our best to give you the arrangement which has already been best received by you, the record buying public. Take a look at this line-up:

TOM DOOLEY – Here is another victim of love's eternal triangle. He is hanged for shooting his rival.

HE'S GOT THE WHOLE WORLD IN HIS HANDS – This is a happy, hand-clapping gospel tune which assures us the Lord has, you and me brother, the little bittie birdie, the little tiny baby and even the whole wide world in his hands.

OLD SHEP – I'd like to dedicate this ballad to everyone who has known the love and devotion of a dog. To those of you who have not had this experience, this story might be confusing, but listen to it anyway.

SIXTEEN TONS – A coal miner relates, "You load 16 tons and what do you get, another day older and deeper in debt." This one is from the magic pen of Merle Travis and was one of the biggest and fastest selling records of all time when recorded by Tennessee Ernie Ford.

I'M MOVING ON – Written and made very famous by a truly great artist, Hank Snow. In this song the fellow is fed up with the triflin' ways of his girl friend so he's movin' on.

THE FOOL – This ole boy is drinking a toast to himself 'cause too late he realizes he is the fool that just told his baby good-bye.

THE BALLAD OF DAVY CROCKETT – Davy Crockett is a name that is as American as country ham and red-eye gravy. Davy was born in Tennessee, raised there and fought Indians there. He eventually wound up at the Alamo where he was killed. Here is his life story in song.

DARLING NELLY GRAY – Perhaps the only full length version of the age old favorite. It tells the heart breaking story of parted lovers. One small consolation – even death cannot destroy their love.

THE OLD LAMPLIGHTER – He walks down the street with a smile on his face to hide his lonely heart. If there are sweethearts in the park he leaves the lamp dark, for he recalls when dreams were new, he loved someone who loved him, too, who walks with him in memory.

RUNNING BEAR – The young Indian Brave and Indian maiden have a love so strong, they attempt to swim the raging river which separates them, and as their lips meet, the current pulls them down and at last they are together in the Happy Hunting Ground.

EL PASO – The great western classic, written and first made popular by Marty Robbins, tells of the plight of a young cowboy who killed a man while making a bid for the love of the Mexican dancer Felina. He escapes, but his love for her brings him back and he is shot by the posse and killed.

THE THREE BELLS – This great hit of French origin tells in three verses the story of the birth, love, marriage and death of Jimmy Brown.

Dorsey Burnette, voted the "Most Promising Male Newcomer of 1973" by the Academy of Country Music, offers more than just the promise of good music, he produces good music. He is the composer of more than 600 songs, including his gold singles "Tall Oak Tree," "Hey Little One" and "Big Rock Candy Mountain."

Dorsey is also responsible for a string of million sellers he wrote for Ricky Nelson during the height of his recording career. Along with Rick Nelson, many other performers have enjoyed major chart successes with Burnette songs, including Glen Campbell, Stevie Wonder, Brook Benton, Brenda Lee and Waylon Jennings.

A native of Memphis, Tennessee, Dorsey broke into the music business with his brother Johnny on the "Ted Mack Amateur Hour" where they won top honors four consecutive times. They formed the Johnny Burnette Trio in the late 50's, recording several albums which are now considered collector's items.

Dorsey launched his solo career in the 1960's with "Tall Oak Tree," the first ecology song to be recorded. "Magnificent Sanctuary Band" is another one of his major chart successes since the start of his solo career.

This album, "The Golden Hits of Dorsey Burnette" contains all the favorites that you will be sure to enjoy forever.

EDDY ARNOLD

In the dozen or so years since Eddy Arnold got his first taste of national fame as the "Tennessee Plowboy," his relaxed, easy singing style has taken him from the field of country music—in which he started and where he won quick acclaim as an unchallenged top talent—to a position in which he can now only be categorized, without any qualifying limitations, as simply "a singer." He is still the unusually sensitive interpreter of country songs that he was at the start but he is now just as much at home with the pop tunes that are not usually associated with country singers, with rhythm songs, with novelties and even with songs for children.

His ability to spread out in this fashion is due partly to the fact that he has a "natural" voice.

"He just naturally sings right," says Steve Scholes, an RCA executive who has guided most of Arnold's recording sessions. "It's an unusual quality. Caruso had it and so has Bing Crosby, but they're the only ones I can think of besides Eddy."

Natural talent is only one element contributing to Eddy's success. He is a notoriously hard worker. When he has a recording date coming up, he literally goes into training. For at least two weeks beforehand he refuses all bookings, gets up early to work on his farm outside Nashville where he lives in a modest rambling house with his wife and two children, and is in bed every night by nine.

He is equally painstaking about the material he records. He insists that a song must be exactly right or he won't use it.

"I like a simple ballad where the lyrics lay it right on the line," he once said. "I want it to move me. And I'll admit that sometimes I'm pretty hard to move."

He recorded one tune five times over a period of seven years before he got a "take" that satisfied him. This meticulousness is reflected in the songs he has chosen for this collection. Four of them—That's How Much I Love You, Wabash Cannon Ball, Kisses Sweeter Than Wine and Singing the Blues—are well established parts of his repertory. But rather than depending on old versions of these hits, as he might have, he recorded them in new versions in June, 1958, especially for this RCA Camden album.

That's How Much I Love You is, of course, the song that started Eddy on the road to success. It was his first big recorded hit when he originally made it in 1946 for RCA. In its first year it sold 650,000 copies, a very impressive sale for a newcomer at a time when million sellers were still so infrequent that they were looked on with genuine awe. It was this tune that, unbeknownst to everyone at the time, pointed the direction in which Eddy Arnold would grow and develop, for That's How Much I Love You was one of the very first country tunes to be picked up and recorded by most of the top singers in the pop field.

In the years that followed, Eddy continued to turn up songs that were taken up by pop singers—Eddie Fisher got his theme, Anytime, from an Arnold recording. At the same time Arnold's own records were finding an audience far beyond what was usually considered the market for country singers. In 1955, Eddy took an obvious step—he added material from the pop repertory to all the other kinds of songs he sings, and he proved immediately that the "natural" voice which had done so well in other types of music was equally serviceable on pop material.

Most of the other songs in this collection are recordings by Arnold which have never before been made available. They offer an illuminating cross-section of the varied kinds of tunes he sings—the lively humor of Take a Tiger by the Tail, the toe-tapping, swinging beat in How Did You Know, the essentially pop type of song such as Do You Miss Me, the blue but philosophical What a Way to Die and the country-styled morality song represented by The Mills of the Gods. Beyond this they show how astute Eddy is in picking his tunes—in picking the ones that suit his own down-to-earth, unpretentious style.

This down-to-earth quality is one of the clues to Eddy Arnold's ability to cover so wide a scope. From the very start, he has never pretended to be anything that he is not. He is, quite literally, a "Tennessee Plowboy." He was brought up on a small farm in western Tennessee. His father, a fiddle player who also sang bass in the church choir, was a dirt farmer. It was to get away from the family plow that Eddy got a job on a Jackson, Tennessee, radio station, "singing and banging a guitar," as he says. Since then, he has never put on airs of any kind. In his early days he avoided the flashy costumes worn by many country singers; he sang in a straightforward, natural voice instead of developing attention-getting mannerisms, and he has grown from there with the unaffected honesty of the true artist. He lives with sincerity and sings with sincerity—a sincerity that makes his songs true and real to everyone who hears them.

An RCA Victor Statement
about RCA Camden Records
by G. R. Marek, Vice-President and General Manager
RCA Victor Record Division

"We are proud of the opportunity to make great music by great artists available to millions by virtue of the low prices of RCA Camden Records. Were it not for the co-operation of artists such as the late Arturo Toscanini, Guy Lombardo, the Boston Pops and Symphony Orchestra, Leonard Bernstein, Count Basie, Hugo Winterhalter, Henri René, Perry Como and many, many others, RCA Camden Records could not be . . . for it is only in their willingness to have their music available at these prices that RCA Camden can exist.

"It is the desire of RCA Victor that the public be assured that the same high standards used in the production of RCA Victor Records have also been used in the manufacture of RCA Camden Records."

This is a High Fidelity Recording.

It is distinguished by these characteristics: 1. Complete frequency range. 2. Uniform response across the record. 3. A minimum of noise and distortion.

Bill Anderson has been on top in the music business for more than fifteen years . . . as a disc jockey, as a songwriter, and as a recording artist and performer.

His records have sold in the millions . . . his compositions recorded by everybody from Bing Crosby to Aretha Franklin . . . from Lawrence Welk to Jerry Lee Lewis . . . from Wayne Newton to The Osborne Brothers.

He's been the star of his own syndicated television show for nine years and has guested on every show from Captain Kangaroo to Dinah Shore . . . from The Today Show to Hee-Haw.

He's toured the world, shaken hands with Presidents, and has appeared in person at virtually every "cake-walk, county fair, and goat-ropin'" in existence.

When people try to figure out what makes him run . . . what makes him tick . . . they only need to look at his birth-date to find the answer. He was born on November 1st.

That makes Bill Anderson a Scorpio.

Scorpio, you know who you are. You are the sexiest sign in the Zodiac. (alright!)

You have a way of recharging your battery that provides you with an inexhaustible supply of energy, light, and power. (especially on a bus around 3 am)

Scorpio . . . of all the signs of the Zodiac . . . is the healer. You have the power to shape destiny . . . to turn liability into asset . . . to conquer all adversity. You are self-directed with a will of steel. Nothing can interfere with your master plan. If things look grim up ahead . . . or even hopeless . . . you still go bravely ahead. (now that comes in handy)

For only you know that beyond the cocoon the butterfly emerges and flies free. (ain't that wonderful)

Few people ever called Bill Anderson the greatest singer in the world. But few can deny his charisma . . . the soulful way he interprets a lyric . . . and no one can deny his success.

Buddy Killen first saw the potential in Bill Anderson and brought him to the attention of Decca (now MCA) Records. Killen was highly instrumental in the label signing Anderson to a one-year contract . . . a pact that now extends through 1981.

In 1976, Killen became Anderson's record producer and immediately scored with two smash hits . . . "Peanuts & Diamonds" and "Liars One — Believers Zero".

This is his first complete album as Bill's producer . . . and it's DYNAMITE!

Bill and Buddy work hand-in-hand in the studio . . . sometimes until the morning sun rises over the Tennessee countryside.

Buddy is the President of Nashville's largest music publishing company . . . Tree International.

He doesn't need to be in the studio all day and all night producing Bill Anderson's (or anybody else's) records. His pockets are full and his future is secure.

Why does he do it?? His birthday is November 12th. That makes him a Scorpio. Need we say more??????

WHAT IS ARRANGERS' PUBLISHING COMPANY?

Basically, we're a couple of former band directors who, over the years, have had our share of problems finding good marching charts. During a temporary lapse of sanity, we decided to go into publishing, seeking out the best arrangements, by the most talented arrangers, and making them available to bands around the country.

Next, we decided to produce the highest quality recording in the business, enjoyable to listen to, with clear, realistic representations of each tune.

Our arrangers receive the most generous royalties in the industry. We're proud of this, because we feel that in the marching band arena, the arranger is still the hero.

Our concept of publishing one copy per part has met with wide approval. This year we have reduced our prices, to allow for your cost of multiple copying. We include specific written permission for you to reproduce parts for your band's exact needs. We think this is the fairest, most sensible way to publish band music, because it acknowledges the basic fact of life: ALL BANDS DO NOT HAVE THE SAME INSTRUMENTATION.

For your convenience, we will be happy to cooperate with your local dealer in any way possible. You may still call or write us to order, and be assured of immediate delivery.

Thanks to your suggestions, we now publish bari sax parts, and all parts are 1 or 2 pages maximum whenever possible. Solos are written out, and often cross-cued.

As always, your comments and thoughts are most welcome. Have a great year, and we hope you enjoy the records.

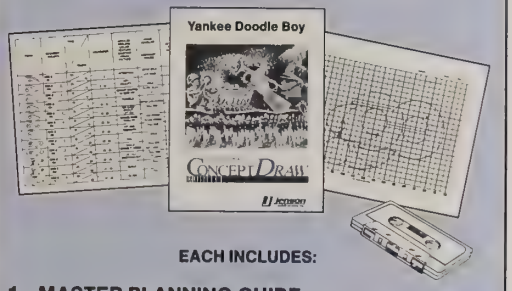
Series

DRILL CREATION PACKS

The easiest way to get a clean, contemporary look for your drills . . . let "Chops" do the difficult part. These are drills that truly maximize the visual potential of our music, and are carefully constructed for ease of charting, teaching and performing.

HOW DOES HE DO IT?

After designing the drills for texture, color and musical flow, Gary draws all formations and shapes to a medium scale on Jenson State of the Art Drill Design Paper. All moves are precisely timed to counts in the music. He then records the Audio Tape Tutorial, guiding you step-by-step through the final charting of the drill, which you may do manually or by computer. At this point, shapes can be expanded or reduced to fit your instrumentation.



EACH INCLUDES:

1. MASTER PLANNING GUIDE
   Complete syllabus with counts, timing, interpretation of textures and voices to be presented.
2. FLOW CHARTS
   Medium-scale drawings of each shape, featuring clear designs for the motion and direction of transitions. Easy to adjust for your size of band.
3. AUDIO TAPE TUTORIAL
   A count-for-count explanation to assist you in problem-free charting of the drills, either by hand or by computer. Also, methods for teaching it to your students.

Dear Crew Member,

I am a firm believer that the strength of McDonald's is our crew. That is why I wanted to be personally involved in the production of this specially recorded Soundsheet. It was created just for you and contains a message from me plus a lot of great music that will become a very important part of McDonald's image.

When you finish listening to the Soundsheet, I am certain that your role as a member of a McDonald's crew will take on greater significance for you. I really believe that nobody has a crew like McDonald's.

Sincerely yours,

Hi Friends

Crystal Creek is a group whose goal is to entertain. They take songs and tunes from the Rock, Folk and Pop field, flavor them heavily with Bluegrass and invite you to have a good time Crystal Creek does not indulge in subtlety Their music is out front, it's joyful, it's driving

Their leader, Nick Fallon, is the group's mandolinist He leads by urging each member to contribute from his own background and abilities Like Nick, acoustic guitarist, banjo player and singer, Rob Bulkley is primarily a Bluegrasser, while fiddler Mike Salsburg adds a jazz element. Jim Booth plays electric guitar and piano and sings with a line Buddy Holly like voice. He's also a writer who can [illegible] this album

I have always loved jazz even though I couldn't devote much time to it during the years that I was training to be a concert pianist. We had a little band at the Walden School in New York when I was in my senior year, but all I can say about it is that you should be glad they're not playing on this record.

Jazz is contemporary. Jazz is American. So are most films. Thus it seemed quite natural for me to utilize the elements of the jazz idiom in my work as a movie and television composer. And that is the basis for this album.

In a tense scene from "SUDDEN FEAR", one of my first film assignments, a radio produced the desired dramatic effect by playing a wild composition I called "RADIO HYSTERIA". Shortly thereafter, "THE MAN WITH THE GOLDEN ARM" started a whole trend toward jazz scoring. Although it was considered an innovation at the time, the idea appeared to be most logical to me, since the film dealt with a man who was a drummer and whose whole drive was to become a jazz musician.

Then in 1956, while "THE MAN WITH THE GOLDEN ARM" was enjoying the height of its success, I was approached to write a jazz score for a TV detective show called "TAKE FIVE". The show, featuring the piece "THREE TIME BLUESER", failed; but similar shows that followed did not, and jazz took a firm hold in television scoring.

"THE RAT RACE", with its big city locale, and "SWEET SMELL OF SUCCESS", a hard driving story of New Yorkers, also gave me opportunities to compose jazz movie scores, especially in the main title music, just as "WALK ON THE WILD SIDE" owes its jazz-flavored music to its New Orleans setting. One can't mention New Orleans without thinking of Basin Street, Bourbon Street and jazz.

The composition from "ANNA LUCASTA" is an example of an actual scoring cue in jazz. It is not a single piece or song, but rather a collection of phrases which change tempo and follow the mood of the scene in the film. "HOP, SKIP BUT JUMP" and "JUBILATION" were originally written for inclusion in scenes that were subsequently dropped from their respective movies; while "SAINTS AND SINNERS" is the theme music for a new television show starting in September 1962.

It goes without saying that an album of this kind would be impossible without the great musicians whose names appear here, but I would be remiss if I did not make a point of the contribution that Bobby Helfer made in assembling this group. Finally, every endeavor has a "man behind the man". In this case that man is Jackie Mills, who helped in innumerable ways and made the life of at least one recording artist a little less complicated.

—Elmer Bernstein

THE MATHEMATICAL GENIUS OF PEP LESTER

A record-and-a-half of Pop Noise Trash

A fabulous EP of beautiful melodies and backwards singing, plus an audio scrapbook LP compiled from five years of cheesy recordings of music and noise, all by Pep Lester and his Pals. Into the mess is tossed a lot of other stuff stolen off the airwaves and messed around with.

Over 40 selections, over 20 guest musicians, including Jad Fair, Michael Cudahy, Ellie Marshall, Kenne Highland, Glenn Jones, David Greenberger, and the lead guitarist from Venom. Photography by Pat Ireton. Purple footprint actually stamped by Phil Milstein (Pep Lester), each one an original (size 10½).

Special goodbye to The Green Monster.

Here's the Great One's greatest...the best of his incomparable listenin' music, plus two all-time classic Gleason monologues, "Apology at Bedtime" and "To a Sleeping Beauty."

The Best of Jackie Gleason

How do you pick the best of Jackie Gleason? The master's flawless gift for conjuring wonderfully satisfying, caressing, dream-inducing, irresistibly romantic melody has touched with magic all of the more than 30 albums and countless singles he has done throughout his gold-record-lined career.

Well, needless to say, you choose the finest of those instrumentals played with what is now known the world around as The Gleason Sound: a shimmering sea of strings, with the haunting solo voice of trumpet or tenor sax.

You add a generous representation of warm and sparkling Gleason easy-listenin' jazz, orchestrated for brass at its silkiest. Of course, you include a couple of big orchestra sides, as well as the memorable "I've Grown Accustomed To Her Face," arranged for eight marimbas, cellos, and solo trombone. You call up "Call Me Irresponsible," the Academy Award-winning hit from Jackie's nostalgic movie "Papa's Delicate Condition."

Finally, to capture another rich and well-loved facet of the magnificently many-sided Gleason, you include Jackie's two repeatedly requested monologues, the tender, touching "Apology at Bedtime," addressed to a little boy, and the gentle and heartwarming "To A Sleeping Beauty," addressed to a little girl. And there you have it: "The Best of Jackie Gleason." And better than Jackie's best, there isn't!

DIXIELAND RHYTHM KINGS VOL. II EM-105

DRK

Well-known in Dayton and Cincinnati, the Dixieland Rhythm Kings were organized in Dayton some years ago under the leadership of Gene Mayl.

This recording was made late in 1953, with most of the numbers coming from takes made while the band was on the job. The customers are apparent from time to time.

As was EM-102, this recording was made in the Turf Room at the Hitching Post, Dayton, Ohio.

At the time of the release of this record in early 1955, the DRK's are familiar to the fans in such places as Milwaukee, New York, Kingston, New Orleans, Wheeling and Boston in addition to the home stamping grounds. Their reception has been enthusiastic.

COUNTING GAMES and RHYTHMS for the LITTLE ONES

This album was especially created for PRE-SCHOOLERS, KINDERGARTENERS, FIRST-GRADERS and SECOND-GRADERS. It was created also for their teachers, parents and their big brothers and sisters - hopefully - they will help the "little ones" enjoy its content.

All of the songs, rhythms and rhymes included in the album have been tested over and over again with children and many of the approaches used in teaching the material has been demonstrated for teachers and music educators in various workshops throughout the country and in Canada. The positive responses received from both children and educators, prior to the recording, convinced me that Songs, Rhythms and Rhymes for the Little Ones should come into being, to be used as a teaching aid - as a resource for teachers, music educators and parents seeking new or different techniques and materials for the above age ranges. Thus, the album is to serve as a teaching supplement rather than a substitute for teaching. The album should be particularly helpful to those teachers whose responsibilities lay in bringing musical program to their children but find themselves with limited resource materials in the activity and singing area.

In order for the children to reap the full enjoyment of the album, introduce one or two songs at a time. In this manner they will become thoroughly acquainted with each song and rhyme, therefore making them personally their very own.

Here is a real opportunity for you to give young people a musical experience outside a "formalized pattern."

SIDE B

Band #1

EIGHT CLAY PIGEONS

You need not confine yourself to eight pigeons - you could easily use less or more. Let the children run, skip, hop, etc. on the fly-away providing there is ample space. And as each child flys away you might suggest an area of the city, state, country or the world to fly to.

Eight clay pigeons
Eight clay pigeons
Eight clay pigeons a - sitting on a wall
Oh look, one of them has flown away....etc.

Band #2
JOHN BROWN HAD A LITTLE INDIAN

More practicing with numbers - counting on fingers. You will observe that the children get awfully loud during portions of the song - they are simply getting tired - they spent two hours in the studio.

John Brown had a little Indian
John Brown had a little Indian
John Brown had a little Indian
One little Indian boy

One little two little three little Indians
Four little five little six little Indians
Seven little eight little nine little Indians
Ten little Indian boys

It's a challenge for the children to count backwards - younger children will have difficulty but first and second-graders can do pretty well.

Ten little nine little eight little Indians
Seven little six little five little Indians
Four little three little two little Indians
One little Indian boy

Band #3
IT'S THE MILKMAN

Since milk is such an important liquid in the physical growth of children, the milkman, who brings this valuable item to so many homes, must surely be important also. Of course the milkman brings with him a variety of dairy products and you can find out the extent of this variety by asking the children what the milkman brings to their homes.

Look who's here, it's the milkman
Look who's here, it's the milkman
Look who's here, it's the milkman
And I wonder what he's brought today

For variety:

Slap our thighs
Beat our chest
Stomp our feet

Rhythm instrument:

1 castanet, 2 castanets, 3 castanets, 4 castanets and clap hands; triangle and clap hands; rhythm sticks and triangle; tamborine with voices; tom tom and voices; all in unison.

Communication

There's Volendam and Marken, too,
Where folks still dress as they used to do.
There are Rembrandt's paintings and Van Gogh's,
Masterpieces, everyone knows.

Cleverness, cleanliness,
Frugalness and friendliness,
And a strong will to be free -
That's Holland to me.

BIG BEN

In the Palace of Westminister,
Where The Houses of Parliament meet -
Is a great big clock in a great big tower,
With a great big bell that strikes the hour,
And they call that bell Big Ben, Big Ben, Big Ben,
Yes, they call that bell Big Ben.

It rings out over London,
A tradition all English people know -
Like great kings and queens and fine ships at sea,
Like a cricket match and a cup of tea,
Oh, they call that bell Big Ben, Big Ben, Big Ben,
Yes, they call that bell Big Ben.

Not even a terrible war
Could halt this booming bell.
It'll ring for many years more -
There's lots of time to tell.

If there's one thing in all London.
That's a fav'rite of every Englishman -
It's a great big clock in a great big tower,
With a great big bell that strikes the hour,
And they call that bell Big Ben, Big Ben, Big Ben,
Yes, they call that bell Big Ben.

COMMUNICATION

Though you live far away, you are never alone.
All you have to do is use the telephone
And you're face to face
With a friend in any place.

Many int'resting things can now eas'ly be seen
Just by looking at a television screen -
Get a bird's eye view
And be comfortable, too.

The newspaper and the movie show
Take you anywhere you care to go.
The telegraph and the radio
Tell you quickly what you want to know.

There's the teletype going day and night,
And the latest thing they call the satellite,
Whose messages now race
Down to earth from outer space.

JUMPIN' AT APOLLO
12 MINUTES TO GO
SHE'S FUNNY THAT WAY

Illinois Jacquet flies through a jam session of eight smash hit sides . . . spotlighting his dynamic tenor saxophone backed by a crew of foremost 'name" musicians.

Jacquet, the former sensation of Lionel Hampton, Count Basie and Cab Calloway aggregations, packs wallop throughout every number, displaying his remarkable combination of exciting jazz and artistically brilliant technique. He delivers the same driving power and beat on wax that have crowded theatres, nightclubs and ballrooms across the country with screaming fans. This long-awaited album contains Jacquet's greatest through the years, from the wild, blasting originals, to radically-styled standards that have boosted him to fame.

Starring with the youthful king of the sax are such celebrated sidemen as the great baritone master, LEO PARKER; composer-pianist, SIR CHARLES THOMPSON; high-noted trumpet man, JOE NEWMAN; SHADOW WILSON on drums; and the famed AL LUCAS on bass; RUSSELL JACQUET, trumpet; WILLIAM DOGGETT, piano; JOHN BROWN, alto sax; ARTHUR DENNIS, baritone sax; and ULYSSES LIVINGSTON, guitar.

ABOUT THE ARTIST . . .

Illinois Jacquet was born in Houston, Texas, and first began his musical career by tooting a saxophone at the age of nine. Next he took up the drums, and as a youngster was beating the cowhides like a professional.

After completing high school and supplying the neighborhood abundantly with music, Illinois and his family — including three musical brothers — moved to Los Angeles. There, to pay tuition fees at City College, Illinois commenced playing tenor sax in local dance bands. Lionel Hampton heard him and on the same night offered a contract. Glamour and monetary rewards outweighed the lure of college textbooks, so Illinois packed his saxophone and went on the road. As the Hampton outfit made a complete swing of the country, Jacquet attracted wide attention. His high-register notes and his low blasts brought shrieks and screams from audiences, and soon the 18-year old Texan took star billing with the band. Then came "Flying on Home," the big-selling Hampton record featuring Jacquet as star instrumentalist. This all-time hit capped the popularity build-up of the handsome musician and skyrocketed him to national favor.

After two years with Lionel Hampton, Illinois turned down numerous band offers and left to form his own combo in California. He broke it up only when he was persuaded to join Cab Calloway's orchestra to fill Chu Berry's chair. With Calloway, the personable young tenor man gained further fame, which brought back that old temptation to launch off on his own. For a year he fronted his own six piece band at L. A.'s Swing Club, and did the movie short, "Jammin' the Blues," with Sid Catlett, Lester Young, Harry Edison and other greats.

Jacquet's career heightened when he signed with his third name band, Count Basie. On records and in personal appearances with Basie, he jumped disc sales and, nightly, "tore down the house." He combined showmanship with high calibre musicianship, and established himself as the peer of jazz instrumentalists.

Next triumph came with the sensational Norman Granz concerts, "Jazz at the Philharmonic," with Jacquet joined along with other top musicians of the country.

At last, "the flying Jacquet" formed his own, greatest combo — the high-flying outfit that has gone on to make jazz history and to break box-office records. It is this topflight crew that Apollo Records presents in this long-playing album — Illinois Jacquet, of the perfected technique, the most powerful drive and beat in jazz today, and the bandstand of All Stars!

NOTES ON THE NUMBERS . . .

This Illinois Jacquet recording of ROBBIN'S NEST became a national sensation. It is titled by Jacquet in honor of disc jockey Fred Robbins, who made it his theme. Sir Charles Thompson penned the number and is heard at the piano on this waxing.

SHE'S FUNNY THAT WAY and GHOST OF A CHANCE are standards done by Jacquet and his jazz outfit, with feeling for the heart, with masterly technique for the ear. The stopper, 12 MINUTES TO GO, was cut at a record session when Jacquet had 12 minutes' studio time to go. This has zoomed to high popularity for its smack of the spontaneous and its relaxed styling.

Straight through the album, instrumental spotlight turns on each star, from baritone idol, LEO PARKER, through the roster to wild trumpet man, JOE NEWMAN. With JACQUET BOUNCE and JUMPIN' AT APOLLO, they transform originals into jazz "classics." JACQUET MOOD races away for spectacular honors, in heated competition with the supersonic tenor man on his never to be forgotten BOTTOMS UP. Toppers all, with all the musical tricks, this is exciting jazz, charged with electricity, bounce and jump!

Here are some excerpts from Gabe Kaplan's lp. "Holes and Mellow Rolls" #ABCD 815.

In the original album there is an entry blank for the National Ranking Contest. On a local level, some stations have been running this contest with great success. EXPLANATION: A rank being a put down, usually with a bit of humor.

Should comedic put downs not be an ideal lp promotion for your stations, this edited version will suggest other humorous ideas.

The fourth cut side 2 of this ep is "Holes and Mellow Rolls," edited to reveal the character of one, Arnold Horchack. Arnold Horchack was the class loser and loner . . . not by his choice; however, the main person that all school humor revolved around.

Your station might have a contest relating to this person. Draw or describe your Mr. or Miss. Arnold Horchack. What makes or made this person unforgettable? Losers can be winners . . . Laugh with Gabe and ABC Records.

Count Basie's bands have over the years added up to a collective jazz institution. Rare indeed are the bands that have swung so mightily so often.

Back in '34, in Kansas City, Bill Basie got the break of his life, the one which was to shape his whole fantastic career. He was taken on as pianist with the hottest band of the day, Bennie Moten's. A year later Moten was dead, and drawing on the best talent of the Moten outfit as a nucleus Basie assembled the first of a series of some of the very best bands ever.

In 1936, critic John Hammond brought the band to New York. Success and prominence followed, and it has been that way ever since.

Listen here to a trio of the most fruitful periods in the illustrious history that is Count Basie's: the free-blowing crew of 1939-40; the electric little octet of 1950, and the thrilling outfit that spelled 1951. You are listening to jazz history.

DORIS DAY with Orchestral Accompaniment

When Doris Day was named as Success of the Year by a musical magazine, there was no question whatever about the correctness of the choice. For in 1948, she zoomed from the equivocal position of a highly promising singer to that of one of the country's top recording artists and an established movie star on the strength of a handful of records and a single motion picture. This was partly because Doris brought to music and films a quality that had too long been missing, a sort of breezy freshness and an intimate directness of appeal. More important, it was suddenly discovered that she was a superlative songstress and an ingratiating performer.

Not that Doris hadn't been heard before: for several years she was featured vocalist with Les Brown and his orchestra, and built up a considerable reputation among musicians for her deft and intelligent way with a popular song. A number of the recordings she made with this orchestra — notably Sentimental Journey — are fondly prized by collectors. Doris landed with Les after a short engagement with Bob Crosby and his orchestra and a series of programs over Station WLW, Cincinnati. Her early enthusiasm for a career as a dancer was somewhat dampened by a broken leg, and she began studying singing with the vocal coach at WLW, which lead to her initial broadcasts and her tours with the orchestras. Toward the end of 1947, Doris left the Brown organization to go out on her own, opening at the Little Club on New York's East Side. A recording contract of her own followed, then a movie contract, a spot on the Hit Parade with Frank Sinatra, and eventually a star spot on the Bob Hope radio program, again singing with Les Brown. All this in something less than eighteen months.

To rhythm numbers she brings a brisk, sparkling enthusiasm that lights up even an ordinary song, while to ballads Doris brings a sort of husky grace and an impression of genuine sincerity that has captivated an imposing number of listeners. For her first collection of songs, she has chosen a group of established favorites that are regularly but infrequently heard, songs with a rather more sophisticated touch, both lyrically and musically, than is generally found. In them is some of her finest singing, brilliantly phrased and beautifully keyed to the mood of the song. With the assistance of a vocal group, Doris conjures up a series of exceptional romantic interludes, and concerned, as most of these songs are, with love requited and otherwise, they offer her an opportunity to display her remarkable talent for distilling the intimate magic that characterizes her singing. Here is popular artistry of a high order, applied by Doris Day to popular songs of the first rank.

JAZZ AT OBERLIN

THE DAVE BRUBECK QUARTET

Oberlin College in northern Ohio has always been the scene for a great deal of musical activity, mainly because of its highly regarded Conservatory of Music. Through the years the Conservatory has considered it its duty to maintain a policy of adhering rather closely to the mainstream of established classical literature in its instruction and its students' performances, never having seen fit to include jazz in its curriculum. Generally, jazz found little enthusiastic support on the Oberlin campus.

Toward the beginning of 1953 the few jazz enthusiasts at Oberlin, having grown extremely tired of the situation, decided to do something, to present, at Oberlin, jazz on an organized concert level. On March 2, 1953, in Oberlin's Finney Chapel they presented in concert the Dave Brubeck Quartet. In spite of early doubt, apprehension, and lack of encouragement, the concert was a huge success, the Quartet holding completely under its control for almost two hours a large and varied audience, many of which were Conservatory students almost entirely uneducated in jazz. When the group finally left the stage, the starving crowd, whose appetite had been only partially satisfied, were crying for more.

The success of the concert had an immediate effect. Students organized the Oberlin College Jazz Club, with plans for three concerts during the following year, including a return performance by the Quartet. Jazz had found itself firmly and comfortably at home in surroundings, where, in the past, it had been met only with apathy and misunderstanding.

These sides from the Oberlin concert represent the Quartet in their most free, uninhibited, yet relaxed manner. They swing constantly, but, as is innate in Brubeck's music, they never cease to emphasize structure — structure growing out of free improvisation.

STARDUST shows off Paul Desmond at his lyrical best, maintaining throughout a feeling of jazz timelessness. Dave constructs his solo on clear, classical lines — restrained, beautiful in their simplicity.

In PERDIDO the Quartet as a unit swings mightily, with Paul's and Dave's solos underlined firmly by the beat set by Ron Crotty and Lloyd Davis.

FOOLISH THINGS, probably the best on the program, again finds Paul at his high expressive peak, but on this side it is Dave who amazes. This is Brubeck at his best, constructing form that builds from "old country" style blues through the more sophisticated Gershwin-type jazz, the rhythmic vitality meanwhile increasing to Bartokian proportions. It all resolves in a quiet, relaxed coda provided by Paul and Dave together. An ingratiating jazz experience — in Dave's words, "the best thing we've ever done."

WAY YOU LOOK TONIGHT, the last number on the concert, finds more intense swinging by the group, superb solos by Dave and Paul, and some interesting contrapuntal inventions by the two. The very unique drum figurations in the background are provided by Lloyd Davis who had played the entire concert with the flu and a 103 degree temperature.

We sincerely feel that this record contains the best of that which happened in Finney Chapel that Monday evening and that it fully captures the enthusiastic and entirely unanticipated response of the audience. The concert was the force which gave birth to jazz at Oberlin. We hope the record retains enough of that quality to do the same elsewhere.

LININ' TRACK

LININ' TRACK

. . .or just plain Tsoris

Hi Friends,

Crystal Creek is a group whose goal is to entertain. They take songs and tunes from the Rock, Folk and Pop field, flavor them heavily with Bluegrass and invite you to have a good time. Crystal Creek does not indulge in subtilty. Their music is out front, it's joyful, it's driving.

Their leader, Nick Fallon, is the group's mandolinist. He leads by urging each member to contribute from his own background and abilities. Like Nick, acoustic guitarist, banjo player and singer, Rob Bulkey is primarily a Bluegrasser, while fiddler Mike Salsburg adds a jazz element. Jim Booth plays electric guitar and piano and sings with a fine Buddy Holly-like voice. He's also a writer who can be credited with much of the original material on this album

Thanks to Moishe Mark

I have always loved jazz even though I couldn't devote much time to it during the years that I was training to be a concert pianist. We had a little band at the Walden School in New York when I was in my senior year, but all I can say about it is that you should be glad they're not playing on this record.

Jazz is contemporary. Jazz is American. So are most films. Thus it seemed quite natural for me to utilize the elements of the jazz idiom in my work as a movie and television composer. And that is the basis for this album.

In a tense scene from "SUDDEN FEAR", one of my first film assignments, a radio produced the desired dramatic effect by playing a wild composition I called "RADIO HYSTERIA". Shortly thereafter, "THE MAN WITH THE GOLDEN ARM" started a whole trend toward jazz scoring. Although it was considered an innovation at the time, the idea appeared to be most logical to me, since the film dealt with a man who was a drummer and whose whole drive was to become a jazz musician.

Then in 1956, while "THE MAN WITH THE GOLDEN ARM" was enjoying the height of its success, I was approached to write a jazz score for a TV detective show called "TAKE FIVE". The show, featuring the piece "THREE TIME BLUESER", failed; but similar shows that followed did not, and jazz took a firm hold in television scoring.

"THE RAT RACE", with its big city locale, and "SWEET SMELL OF SUCCESS", a hard driving story of New Yorkers, also gave me opportunities to compose jazz movie scores, especially in the main title music, just as "WALK ON THE WILD SIDE" owes its jazz-flavored music to its New Orleans setting. One can't mention New Orleans without thinking of Basin Street, Bourbon Street and jazz.

The composition from "ANNA LUCASTA" is an example of an actual scoring cue in jazz. It is not a single piece or song, but rather a collection of phrases which change tempo and follow the mood of the scene in the film. "HOP, SKIP BUT JUMP" and "JUBILATION" were originally written for inclusion in scenes that were subsequently dropped from their respective movies; while "SAINTS AND SINNERS" is the theme music for a new television show starting in September 1962.

It goes without saying that an album of this kind would be impossible without the great musicians whose names appear here, but I would be remiss if I did not make a point of the contribution that Bobby Helfer made in assembling this group. Finally, every endeavor has a "man behind the man". In this case that man is Jackie Mills, who helped in innumerable ways and made the life of at least one recording artist a little less complicated.

—Elmer Bernstein

A record-and-a-half of Pop Noise Trash

A fabulous EP of beautiful melodies and backwards singing, plus an audio scrapbook LP compiled from five years of cheesy recordings of music and noise, all by Pep Lester and his Pals. Into the mess is tossed a lot of other stuff stolen off the airwaves and messed around with.

Over 40 selections, over 20 guest musicians, including Jad Fair, Michael Cudahy, Ellie Marshall, Kenne Highland, Glenn Jones, David Greenberger, and the lead guitarist from Venom. Photography by Pat Ireton. Purple footprint actually stamped by Phil Milstein (Pep Lester), each one an original (size 10½).

Special goodbye to The Green Monster.

Here's the Great One's greatest...the best of his incomparable listenin' music, plus two all-time classic Gleason monologues, "Apology at Bedtime" and "To a Sleeping Beauty."

The Best of Jackie Gleason

How do you pick the best of Jackie Gleason? The master's flawless gift for conjuring wonderfully satisfying, caressing, dream-inducing, irresistibly romantic melody has touched with magic all of the more than 30 albums and countless singles he has done throughout his gold-record-lined career.

Well, needless to say, you choose the finest of those instrumentals played with what is now known the world around as The Gleason Sound: a shimmering sea of strings, with the haunting solo voice of trumpet or tenor sax.

You add a generous representation of warm and sparkling Gleason easy-listenin' jazz, orchestrated for brass at its silkiest. Of course, you include a couple of big orchestra sides, as well as the memorable "I've Grown Accustomed To Her Face," arranged for eight marimbas, cellos, and solo trombone. You call up "Call Me Irresponsible," the Academy Award-winning hit from Jackie's nostalgic movie "Papa's Delicate Condition."

Finally, to capture another rich and well-loved facet of the magnificently many-sided Gleason, you include Jackie's two repeatedly requested monologues, the tender, touching "Apology at Bedtime," addressed to a little boy, and the gentle and heartwarming "To A Sleeping Beauty," addressed to a little girl. And there you have it: "The Best of Jackie Gleason." And better than Jackie's best, there isn't!

DRK

Well-known in Dayton and Cincinnati, the Dixieland Rhythm Kings were organized in Dayton some years ago under the leadership of Gene Mayl.

This recording was made late in 1953, with most of the numbers coming from takes made while the band was on the job. The customers are apparent from time to time.

As was EM-102, this recording was made in the Turf Room at the Hitching Post, Dayton, Ohio.

At the time of the release of this record in early 1955, the DRK's are familiar to the fans in such places as Milwaukee, New York, Kingston, New Orleans, Wheeling and Boston in addition to the home stamping grounds. Their reception has been enthusiastic.

PEACEFUL FACE

The wind makes a noise in the leaves

Though troubles comfort and constrain
Yet I know you'll return to peace once again
Like a moon on fire, or a silver wave
Bring a peaceful face to me again
Like a heart in chains, or a soul in flames
Bring a peaceful face to me again

So difficult to achieve
Through the calm of your face

The century comes and it goes
And my child will be there to bear all its woes. . .

COUNTING GAMES and RHYTHMS for the LITTLE ONES

This album was especially created for PRE-SCHOOLERS, KINDERGARTENERS, FIRST-GRADERS and SECOND-GRADERS. It was created also for their teachers, parents and their big brothers and sisters - hopefully - they will help the "little ones" enjoy its content.

All of the songs, rhythms and rhymes included in the album have been tested over and over again with children and many of the approaches used in teaching the material has been demonstrated for teachers and music educators in various workshops throughout the country and in Canada. The positive responses received from both children and educators, prior to the recording, convinced me that Songs, Rhythms and Rhymes for the Little Ones should come into being, to be used as a teaching aid - as a resource for teachers, music educators and parents seeking new or different techniques and materials for the above age ranges. Thus, the album is to serve as a teaching supplement rather than a substitute for teaching. The album should be particularly helpful to those teachers whose responsibilities lay in bringing musical program to their children but find themselves with limited resource materials in the activity and singing area.

In order for the children to reap the full enjoyment of the album, introduce one or two songs at a time. In this manner they will become thoroughly acquainted with each song and rhyme, therefore making them personally their very own.

Here is a real opportunity for you to give young people a musical experience outside a "formalized pattern."

SIDE B

Band #1

EIGHT CLAY PIGEONS

You need not confine yourself to eight pigeons - you could easily use less or more. Let the children run, skip, hop, etc. on the fly-away providing there is ample space. And as each child flys away you might suggest an area of the city, state, country or the world to fly to.

Eight clay pigeons
Eight clay pigeons
Eight clay pigeons a - sitting on a wall
Oh look, one of them has flown away....etc.

Band #2
JOHN BROWN HAD A LITTLE INDIAN

More practicing with numbers - counting on fingers. You will observe that the children get awfully loud during portions of the song - they are simply getting tired - they spent two hours in the studio.

John Brown had a little Indian
John Brown had a little Indian
John Brown had a little Indian
One little Indian boy

One little two little three little Indians
Four little five little six little Indians
Seven little eight little nine little Indians
Ten little Indian boys

It's a challenge for the children to count backwards - younger children will have difficulty but first and second-graders can do pretty well.

Ten little nine little eight little Indians
Seven little six little five little Indians
Four little three little two little Indians
One little Indian boy

Band #3
IT'S THE MILKMAN

Since milk is such an important liquid in the physical growth of children, the milkman, who brings this valuable item to so many homes, must surely be important also. Of course the milkman brings with him a variety of dairy products and you can find out the extent of this variety by asking the children what the milkman brings to their homes.

Look who's here, it's the milkman
Look who's here, it's the milkman
Look who's here, it's the milkman
And I wonder what he's brought today

For variety:

Slap our thighs
Beat our chest
Stomp our feet

Rhythm instrument:

1 castanet, 2 castanets, 3 castanets, 4 castanets and clap hands; triangle and clap hands; rhythm sticks and triangle; tamborine with voices; tom tom and voices; all in unison.

There's Volendam and Marken, too,
Where folks still dress as they used to do.
There are Rembrandt's paintings and Van Gogh's,
Masterpieces, everyone knows.

Cleverness, cleanliness,
Frugalness and friendliness,
And a strong will to be free -
That's Holland to me.

BIG BEN

In the Palace of Westminister,
Where The Houses of Parliament meet -
Is a great big clock in a great big tower,
With a great big bell that strikes the hour,
And they call that bell Big Ben, Big Ben, Big Ben,
Yes, they call that bell Big Ben.

It rings out over London,
A tradition all English people know -
Like great kings and queens and fine ships at sea,
Like a cricket match and a cup of tea,
Oh, they call that bell Big Ben, Big Ben, Big Ben,
Yes, they call that bell Big Ben.

Not even a terrible war
Could halt this booming bell.
It'll ring for many years more -
There's lots of time to tell.

If there's one thing in all London.
That's a fav'rite of every Englishman -
It's a great big clock in a great big tower,
With a great big bell that strikes the hour,
And they call that bell Big Ben, Big Ben, Big Ben,
Yes, they call that bell Big Ben.

COMMUNICATION

Though you live far away, you are never alone.
All you have to do is use the telephone
And you're face to face
With a friend in any place.

Many int'resting things can now eas'ly be seen
Just by looking at a television screen -
Get a bird's eye view
And be comfortable, too.

The newspaper and the movie show
Take you anywhere you care to go.
The telegraph and the radio
Tell you quickly what you want to know.

There's the teletype going day and night,
And the latest thing they call the satellite,
Whose messages now race
Down to earth from outer space.

12 MINUTES TO GO
SHE'S FUNNY THAT WAY

Illinois Jacquet flies through a jam session of eight smash hit sides . . . spotlighting his dynamic tenor saxophone backed by a crew of foremost "name" musicians.

Jacquet, the former sensation of Lionel Hampton, Count Basie and Cab Calloway aggregations, packs wallop throughout every number, displaying his remarkable combination of exciting jazz and artistically brilliant technique. He delivers the same driving power and beat on wax that have crowded theatres, nightclubs and ballrooms across the country with screaming fans. This long-awaited album contains Jacquet's greatest through the years, from the wild, blasting originals, to radically-styled standards that have boosted him to fame.

Starring with the youthful king of the sax are such celebrated sidemen as the great baritone master, LEO PARKER; composer-pianist, SIR CHARLES THOMPSON; high-noted trumpet man, JOE NEWMAN; SHADOW WILSON on drums; and the famed AL LUCAS on bass; RUSSELL JACQUET, trumpet; WILLIAM DOGGETT, piano; JOHN BROWN, alto sax; ARTHUR DENNIS, baritone sax; and ULYSSES LIVINGSTON, guitar.

ABOUT THE ARTIST . . .

Illinois Jacquet was born in Houston, Texas, and first began his musical career by tooting a saxophone at the age of nine. Next he took up the drums, and as a youngster was beating the cowhides like a professional.

After completing high school and supplying the neighborhood abundantly with music, Illinois and his family — including three musical brothers — moved to Los Angeles. There, to pay tuition fees at City College, Illinois commenced playing tenor sax in local dance bands. Lionel Hampton heard him and on the same night offered a contract. Glamour and monetary rewards outweighed the lure of college textbooks, so Illinois packed his saxophone and went on the road. As the Hampton outfit made a complete swing of the country, Jacquet attracted wide attention. His high-register notes and his low blasts brought shrieks and screams from audiences, and soon the 18-year old Texan took star billing with the band. Then came "Flying on Home," the big-selling Hampton record featuring Jacquet as star instrumentalist. This all-time hit capped the popularity build-up of the handsome musician and skyrocketed him to national favor.

After two years with Lionel Hampton, Illinois turned down numerous band offers and left to form his own combo in California. He broke it up only when he was persuaded to join Cab Calloway's orchestra to fill Chu Berry's chair. With Calloway, the personable young tenor man gained further fame, which brought back that old temptation to launch off on his own. For a year he fronted his own six piece band at L. A.'s Swing Club, and did the movie short, "Jammin' the Blues," with Sid Catlett, Lester Young, Harry Edison and other greats.

Jacquet's career heightened when he signed with his third name band, Count Basie. On records and in personal appearances with Basie, he jumped disc sales and, nightly, "tore down the house." He combined showmanship with high calibre musicianship, and established himself as the peer of jazz instrumentalists.

Next triumph came with the sensational Norman Granz concerts, "Jazz at the Philharmonic," with Jacquet joined along with other top musicians of the country.

At last, "the flying Jacquet" formed his own, greatest combo — the high-flying outfit that has gone on to make jazz history and to break box-office records. It is this topflight crew that Apollo Records presents in this long-playing album — Illinois Jacquet, of the perfected technique, the most powerful drive and beat in jazz today, and the bandstand of All Stars!

NOTES ON THE NUMBERS . . .

This Illinois Jacquet recording of ROBBIN'S NEST became a national sensation. It is titled by Jacquet in honor of disc jockey Fred Robbins, who made it his theme. Sir Charles Thompson penned the number and is heard at the piano on this waxing.

SHE'S FUNNY THAT WAY and GHOST OF A CHANCE are standards done by Jacquet and his jazz outfit, with feeling for the heart, with masterly technique for the ear. The stopper, 12 MINUTES TO GO, was cut at a record session when Jacquet had 12 minutes' studio time to go. This has zoomed to high popularity for its smack of the spontaneous and its relaxed styling.

Straight through the album, instrumental spotlight turns on each star, from baritone idol, LEO PARKER, through the roster to wild trumpet man, JOE NEWMAN. With JACQUET BOUNCE and JUMPIN' AT APOLLO, they transform originals into jazz "classics." JACQUET MOOD races away for spectacular honors, in heated competition with the supersonic tenor man on his never to be forgotten BOTTOMS UP. Toppers all, with all the musical tricks, this is exciting jazz, charged with electricity, bounce and jump!

Here are some excerpts from Gabe Kaplan's lp. "Holes and Mellow Rolls" #ABCD 815.

In the original album there is an entry blank for the National Ranking Contest. On a local level, some stations have been running this contest with great success. EXPLANATION: A rank being a put down, usually with a bit of humor.

Should comedic put downs not be an ideal lp promotion for your stations, this edited version will suggest other humorous ideas.

The fourth cut side 2 of this ep is "Holes and Mellow Rolls," edited to reveal the character of one, Arnold Horchack. Arnold Horchack was the class loser and loner . . . not by his choice; however, the main person that all school humor revolved around.

Your station might have a contest relating to this person. Draw or describe your Mr. or Miss. Arnold Horchack. What makes or made this person unforgettable? Losers can be winners . . . Laugh with Gabe and ABC Records.

"EPIC" TRADEMARK

Count Basie's bands have over the years added up to a collective jazz institution. Rare indeed are the bands that have swung so mightily so often.

Back in '34, in Kansas City, Bill Basie got the break of his life, the one which was to shape his whole fantastic career. He was taken on as pianist with the hottest band of the day, Bennie Moten's. A year later Moten was dead, and drawing on the best talent of the Moten outfit as a nucleus Basie assembled the first of a series of some of the very best bands ever.

In 1936, critic John Hammond brought the band to New York. Success and prominence followed, and it has been that way ever since.

Listen here to a trio of the most fruitful periods in the illustrious history that is Count Basie's: the free-blowing crew of 1939-40; the electric little octet of 1950, and the thrilling outfit that spelled 1951. You are listening to jazz history.

DORIS DAY with Orchestral Accompaniment

When Doris Day was named as Success of the Year by a musical magazine, there was no question whatever about the correctness of the choice. For in 1948, she zoomed from the equivocal position of a highly promising singer to that of one of the country's top recording artists and an established movie star on the strength of a handful of records and a single motion picture. This was partly because Doris brought to music and films a quality that had too long been missing, a sort of breezy freshness and an intimate directness of appeal. More important, it was suddenly discovered that she was a superlative songstress and an ingratiating performer.

Not that Doris hadn't been heard before: for several years she was featured vocalist with Les Brown and his orchestra, and built up a considerable reputation among musicians for her deft and intelligent way with a popular song. A number of the recordings she made with this orchestra — notably Sentimental Journey — are fondly prized by collectors. Doris landed with Les after a short engagement with Bob Crosby and his orchestra and a series of programs over Station WLW, Cincinnati. Her early enthusiasm for a career as a dancer was somewhat dampened by a broken leg, and she began studying singing with the vocal coach at WLW, which lead to her initial broadcasts and her tours with the orchestras. Toward the end of 1947, Doris left the Brown organization to go out on her own, opening at the Little Club on New York's East Side. A recording contract of her own followed, then a movie contract, a spot on the Hit Parade with Frank Sinatra, and eventually a star spot on the Bob Hope radio program, again singing with Les Brown. All this in something less than eighteen months.

To rhythm numbers she brings a brisk, sparkling enthusiasm that lights up even an ordinary song, while to ballads Doris brings a sort of husky grace and an impression of genuine sincerity that has captivated an imposing number of listeners. For her first collection of songs, she has chosen a group of established favorites that are regularly but infrequently heard, songs with a rather more sophisticated touch, both lyrically and musically, than is generally found. In them is some of her finest singing, brilliantly phrased and beautifully keyed to the mood of the song. With the assistance of a vocal group, Doris conjures up a series of exceptional romantic interludes, and concerned, as most of these songs are, with love requited and otherwise, they offer her an opportunity to display her remarkable talent for distilling the intimate magic that characterizes her singing. Here is popular artistry of a high order, applied by Doris Day to popular songs of the first rank.

JAZZ AT OBERLIN

THE DAVE BRUBECK QUARTET

Oberlin College in northern Ohio has always been the scene for a great deal of musical activity, mainly because of its highly regarded Conservatory of Music. Through the years the Conservatory has considered it its duty to maintain a policy of adhering rather closely to the mainstream of established classical literature in its instruction and its students' performances, never having seen fit to include jazz in its curriculum. Generally, jazz found little enthusiastic support on the Oberlin campus.

Toward the beginning of 1953 the few jazz enthusiasts at Oberlin, having grown extremely tired of the situation, decided to do something, to present, at Oberlin, jazz on an organized concert level. On March 2, 1953, in Oberlin's Finney Chapel they presented in concert the Dave Brubeck Quartet. In spite of early doubt, apprehension, and lack of encouragement, the concert was a huge success, the Quartet holding completely under its control for almost two hours a large and varied audience, many of which were Conservatory students almost entirely uneducated in jazz. When the group finally left the stage, the starving crowd, whose appetite had been only partially satisfied, were crying for more.

The success of the concert had an immediate effect. Students organized the Oberlin College Jazz Club, with plans for three concerts during the following year, including a return performance by the Quartet. Jazz had found itself firmly and comfortably at home in surroundings, where, in the past, it had been met only with apathy and misunderstanding.

These sides from the Oberlin concert represent the Quartet in their most free, uninhibited, yet relaxed manner. They swing constantly, but, as is innate in Brubeck's music, they never cease to emphasize structure — structure growing out of free improvisation.

STARDUST shows off Paul Desmond at his lyrical best, maintaining throughout a feeling of jazz timelessness. Dave constructs his solo on clear, classical lines — restrained, beautiful in their simplicity.

In PERDIDO the Quartet as a unit swings mightily, with Paul's and Dave's solos underlined firmly by the beat set by Ron Crotty and Lloyd Davis.

FOOLISH THINGS, probably the best on the program, again finds Paul at his high expressive peak, but on this side it is Dave who amazes. This is Brubeck at his best, constructing form that builds from "old country" style blues through the more sophisticated Gershwin-type jazz, the rhythmic vitality meanwhile increasing to Bartokian proportions. It all resolves in a quiet, relaxed coda provided by Paul and Dave together. An ingratiating jazz experience — in Dave's words, "the best thing we've ever done."

WAY YOU LOOK TONIGHT, the last number on the concert, finds more intense swinging by the group, superb solos by Dave and Paul, and some interesting contrapuntal inventions by the two. The very unique drum figurations in the background are provided by Lloyd Davis who had played the entire concert with the flu and a 103 degree temperature.

We sincerely feel that this record contains the best of that which happened in Finney Chapel that Monday evening and that it fully captures the enthusiastic and entirely unanticipated response of the audience. The concert was the force which gave birth to jazz at Oberlin. We hope the record retains enough of that quality to do the same elsewhere.

SPECTACULAR BLUEGRASS FAVORITES

with 5 String Banjo

featuring – HYLO BROWN of Grand Ole Opry fame and BILL CLIFTON, one of America's foremost Bluegrass Artists

BLUEGRASS—the most authentic American folk music is swiftly achieving the widest international popularity. It has been written about in Esquire and other prominent publications, and is played at Carnegie Hall in New York for serious music lovers at the same time it is played at the Grand Ole Opry down in Nashville, Tennessee.

When performed by the great country artists who appear in this fine collection of Spectacular Bluegrass, it is enjoyed by mountain folk, city people, in the colleges and in many countries all over the world.

Real down to earth singin' and banjo pickin' in this album will bring you the same pleasure it brought to our forefathers. This is the same music created out of joys and sorrows of the folks who lived in the area bounded on the East by the Great Smoky Mountains and on the West by the muddy waters of the Mississippi River. This is the music sung in the cabins and near the streams in the mountains. From this region came the poetry and melodies that have lived for so many years. For this is distinctly American music with its roots in the heart of Dixie.

Played on the 5 string banjo, an original American instrument, this music could only have been recorded right at the source. This Musical Heart of America is right in Nashville, Tennessee. It is from Nashville that this music comes. It is in Nashville that the great country artists live and work, and it is in Nashville that these recordings were made.

People who attend the Grand Ole Opry in Nashville or who have seen Lester Flatt and Earl Scruggs on television have been impressed with the real country and Bluegrass styles of Hylo Brown. He is featured vocalist with the Flatt and Scruggs Show. Now you can hear him perform SOURWOOD MOUNTAIN, a song we identify with Hylo.

Bill Clifton is finding favor with folk music fans throughout the country and his performance of "I Left My Girl In Tennessee" is sure to find lasting favor with Bluegrass fans. It certainly belongs in this collection of Spectacular Bluegrass Favorites. His music has a rich, full and authentic sound and is a "must" in any collection of this type.

The sincere people who create this music are following in the footsteps of our forefathers and bring us much pleasure from our Great American Heritage.

TECHNICAL DATA

In the making of this recording our sound engineers used an Ampex Tape Recorder, Model 350, in conjunction with Telefunken and Altec microphones. The mastering was effected by the use of a Scully Automatic Recording Lathe with Grampion feedback cutter heads. SPECTACULAR BLUEGRASS FAVORITES

with 5 String Banjo

featuring – HYLO BROWN of Grand Ole Opry fame and BILL CLIFTON, one of America's foremost Bluegrass Artists

BLUEGRASS—the most authentic American folk music is swiftly achieving the widest international popularity. It has been written about in Esquire and other prominent publications, and is played at Carnegie Hall in New York for serious music lovers at the same time it is played at the Grand Ole Opry down in Nashville, Tennessee.

When performed by the great country artists who appear in this fine collection of Spectacular Bluegrass, it is enjoyed by mountain folk, city people, in the colleges and in many countries all over the world.

Real down to earth singin' and banjo pickin' in this album will bring you the same pleasure it brought to our forefathers. This is the same music created out of joys and sorrows of the folks who lived in the area bounded on the East by the Great Smoky Mountains and on the West by the muddy waters of the Mississippi River. This is the music sung in the cabins and near the streams in the mountains. From this region came the poetry and melodies that have lived for so many years. For this is distinctly American music with its roots in the heart of Dixie.

Played on the 5 string banjo, an original American instrument, this music could only have been recorded right at the source. This Musical Heart of America is right in Nashville, Tennessee. It is from Nashville that this music comes. It is in Nashville that the great country artists live and work, and it is in Nashville that these recordings were made.

People who attend the Grand Ole Opry in Nashville or who have seen Lester Flatt and Earl Scruggs on television have been impressed with the real country and Bluegrass styles of Hylo Brown. He is featured vocalist with the Flatt and Scruggs Show. Now you can hear him perform SOURWOOD MOUNTAIN, a song we identify with Hylo.

Bill Clifton is finding favor with folk music fans throughout the country and his performance of "I Left My Girl In Tennessee" is sure to find lasting favor with Bluegrass fans. It certainly belongs in this collection of Spectacular Bluegrass Favorites. His music has a rich, full and authentic sound and is a "must" in any collection of this type.

The sincere people who create this music are following in the footsteps of our forefathers and bring us much pleasure from our Great American Heritage.
